ANNUAL STUDY CLUB GUEST DAY HIGHLIGHTED BY TWO GUEST SPEAKERS

The annual spring guest day, sponsored each year by the members of the Yoncalla Women's Study club, was held Thursday afternoon, March 16, in the Epworth hall of the Yoncalla Methodist church. Luncheon was served at one-thirty from decorated tables, carrying out the St. Patrick's day color scheme with green tapers and bouquets of jonquils.

During the afternoon, Mrs. J. L. Gault, president of District No. 2, Corvallis, spoke on "Federation, and what it means." Federated Women's clubs started 60 years ago, from a small group of women in New York. There are now over six million members in the U.S. and 31 foreign countries. The motto of the clubs is education, service, unity and diversity, the speaker said.

Miss Muriel Mitchell, librarian from Roseburg talked on county and city libraries. She emphasized that youth and adults will read, even if they are busy, if they have something to read that is appealing.

The club quartette consisting of Mrs. Don Atkinson, Mrs. Bud Rice, Mrs. Guy Day and Mrs. Harold Turpin sang two songs, "My Wild Irish Rose" and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," with the club president, Mrs. Fred Merk as accompanist.

RIVERSDALE GRANGE HAS QUARTERLY BIRTHDAY POTLUCK DINNER FRIDAY

The quarterly potluck birthday dinner was held Friday night by Riversdale Grange at the hall. The St. Patrick's motif decorated the table, which was centered with a large birthday cake. Forsythia and daffodil bouquets were used about the rooms. More than 100 were present with all officers in attendance. Two masters from visiting Granges included Mr. Wahl of Sutherlin Grange and Rubie Bloom of Evergreen Grange. There were 11 members from Evergreen Grange and seven from Sutherlin. Mrs. Ida Bly of No. 101, Spokane county, Wash., was also a guest.

Eighteen were given the first and second degrees and three applications for membership were read, followed by a report of committee chairmen.

Plans were made for a social night to be held Saturday, March 25, at nine o'clock at the hall with Mr. and Mrs. Clem Schneider and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hess in charge. Those attending are asked to bring their own dance records.

The next Grange meeting will be April 7 at eight-fifteen at the hall. The third and fourth degrees will be conferred. All Granges having candidates for these degrees are asked to bring them to the meeting. Ladies attending are asked to bring cookies or sandwiches.

ALL READY FOR THE BARN DANCE to be sponsored by the Junior Woman's club Saturday night at the Country club are Mrs. William Chalmers, Mrs. Glen R. Miller and Mrs. James Rutter. The dance is for members of the club and friends. Tickets are on sale at Lawson's Jewelry store. Snacks will be served throughout the dancing hours. (Picture by Paul Jenkins.)
