QUESTION: A young friend of my son's drove up into the hills on a fishing trip a couple of weeks ago. He left a valuable rifle and some expensive fishing gear in his car while he fished along the banks of a stream. When he returned, he found the car had been broken into and the rifle, fishing gear and some other items stolen. He was not insured so he had to stand the loss.

ANSWER: Your insurance man can interpret your particular policy but as a general rule, most Resident The policies written during the past several years would protect you fully under the circumstances described. The " theft " clause in the policies is included.
