Lebanon Closes Borders To All Syrian Trade

BEIRUT, Lebanon, March 27.—(AP)—Lebanon closed its borders Saturday to all Syrian trade, marking a complete break in economic relations between the two neighbors.

Syria took the first step March 15 when it renounced a seven-year-old customs union with Lebanon. Lebanon's closing of the border, effective since midnight, is a reprisal measure.

The move came as a surprise, since Lebanon's Premier Raed El Solh and Syria's Premier Khaled Bey Azem had conferred in Beirut only Thursday. Observers believed the meeting indicated that more friendly steps lay ahead.
