Mistake in Spelling

Jails Alleged Forger

PENDLETON, March 28.—(AP)—His poor spelling spelled trouble for a man here Saturday. Today he's in jail.

A Pendleton merchant noted a check he had just cashed had a local name misspelled. He called police and seven minutes later Eugene Charlson, 29, San Francisco, was under arrest. A forgery charge will be placed against Charlson, said police chief Charles Lemons. He said Charlson is wanted in Eugene and Spokane.

Charlson, according to police, arrived in Pendleton Saturday on the plane from Portland and already had passed checks in a mail amounting to $1,000 before he was arrested.
