The Roseburg Indians won their second track meet this season the hard way, Friday at Finlay field,

After trailing all the way, the Indian relay team came through in the final event, to put Roseburg in the lead for the first time. The final score gave Roseburg 59 points. Myrtle Point was second with 56 points and Coquille was third with 40 points.

third with 40 points.

Roseburg and Coquille copped the only two places in the 880-relays. Going into that event, Roseburg was behind 20 points. Myrtle Point had an opportunity to win the meet, however, in the weight men's relay, which they won. However, the Myrtle Point coach insisted hefore the race that the points in that event would not count toward the score.

College Position

NEW YORK, April 8 — (AP) — It isn't often that a coach gives up a college job to shift to a high school post, or vice versa, but both happened yesterday.

They climaxed a day of wholesale coaching developments:

1. Dick Miller, 12-year-old head foothall coach at North Dakota U. resigned to take a high school job at Canton, Ohio.

2. Ray Eddy of the champion Madison (Ind.) high school team became head banketball coach at Purdue.

3. Wilbur (Sparky) Stalcup of Missouri said the Thursday announcement of his appointment as head basketball coach at Michigan Stale was a misunderstanding, Yesterday Sparky said he'd decided to stay at Missouri.

Three other coaches changed jobs, Robert (Red.) Brown of Davis and Ekins moved to West Virginia U. as head basketball coach. Press. Maravich of West Virginia Wesleyan gave up his head cage coach job to become West Virginia U freshman basketball and hasehall coach. Bob Fuller of MeDonogh school in Baltimore shifted to Virginia U as freshiman football line coach.

SPOKANE, April 8 — (39 — All is not well between football Coach Dixie Howell and the University of Idaho athletic department, Herb Ashlock wrote in the Spokane Chronicles SEATTLE — (P)— Taking a tip from the farmer, the Washington State Department of Fisheries is fertilizing streams with a view to increasing the production of fish. The work is part of a study being undertaken by the department into the life and times of Mr. Salmon.

Director Alvin Anderson said the Chronicle.
Ashlock, sports editor of the paper, wrote, ". Its fairly common knowledge that Howell atcommon knowledge that Howell attended the national coaches' meeting in New York after the season and did a little shopping on his sown. He did not represent the school in any capacity, electing to pay his own way to and from the conclave."

The writer said three basic things were responsible for unitappiness in the Vandal camp:

(1) Idaho's poor record last year, three wins and five losses;

(2) The big defeat by Washington State college—35 to 13;

(3) Irritation on Howell's part when two games with California schools were dropped from the schedule. Director Alvin Anderson said the Director Aivin Anderson said the study would go into "the effects of stream bed disturbances on fish food supplies; the relation between salmon populations and both food abundance and water flow levels; and the speed with which disturbed streams recover their normal food production."

Passes Counting Station

The first chinook salmon to be officially observed in the Umpquariver went through the counting station at Winchester at 3:02 p.m. Friday. Ross Newcomb, game department resident biologist, says people have told him they have seen salmon rolling at various points below Winchester, but the fish which passed over the counting board Friday is leading the upstream migration. The salmon was estimated at about 20 pounds in weight.

Salmon fishing season in the Umpqua river will open April 15 with a hag limit of one fish in any one day and one fish in any seven consecutive days.

Steelhead are still migrating upstream, but the rate of migration has slowed considerably, Newcomb says.
