MIDSHIPMAN CALVIN HURD TO MARRY YOUNG SINGER

Of interest in Roseburg is the betrothal of Midshipman Calvin Hurd of Annapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Hurd, of Pierceton, Ind., formerly of Monrovia, Calif., and Roseburg, Ore., to Miss Beatrice Belding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Belding.

The engagement was told at a dinner party honoring the attractive Miss Belding, who is fast gaining renown in the musical world as a coloratura soprano, and who has accepted Midshipman Hurd's pin. Formal presentation of the ring will be made in traditional Annapolis rites in June at the Academy's formal Ring Dance.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Both Miss Belding and her fiance were graduates of Monrovia-Arcadia-Durarte high school. Miss Belding studied voice at the Juilliard school of music in New York under Edith Piper. Coached by Carl Kritz and Max Rudolph, of the Metropolitan Opera company, Miss Belding made her debut in Carnegie Recital Hall as Olympia in "Tales of Hoffman."

Returning to the west coast, Miss Belding, who is likened musically to Lily Pons, sang with the San Gabriel Symphony orchestra. She made her west coast debut under Manager Pierre Cerraille in May of last year at the Shakespeare Club of Pasadena and in the fall, she gave a concert in the Gold Room of the Pasadena Civic auditorium.

She presented a concert Feb. 12, at the Assistance League in Hollywood, after which she presented concerts in Pacific coastal cities. She is accompanied by Jet Turner, pianist, and Margerete Weigel, as flutist.

Midshipman Hurd attended preparatory school in the east before entering Annapolis. An upper classman in June, he will be graduated next year. His father owned and operated a cannery while in Roseburg. His mother was a prominent member of the Roseburg Woman's club, while residing here.

Jap Submarine Captain Settles Bombing Dispute

PORTLAND — (AP) — Japanese submarine Captain Meiji Tagami settled an army-forest service dispute when he told in Tokyo of incendiary bombs dropped near Cape Blanco, Ore., in 1942.

The western defense command approved publication of the story of a Sept. 9, 1942, bombing on Mount Emily near Brookings, Ore. —south of Cape Blanco—but denied there was evidence of bombs falling nearer the cape.

The forest service, banking on reports from six trained fire observers, said there was. The plane was heard in the clouds and the bomb explosion was heard, the forest service maintained.

The Army did report a later bombing in the area.

The Mount Emily bombs caused a minor, easily quelled snag fire. The Cape Blanco bombs started no fire on the rainy day.

A U. S. plane on patrol reported sighting and bombing a sub off Cape Blanco that day.

Tagami's shelling of Ft. Stevens was wasted effort. The shells landed far from any installations at the ancient river-mouth fortress whose guns lacked range to reply to the sub.

Partnership Settlement Is Asked In Court Suit

Harold Raper has filed suit in circuit court against Frank and Audrey Loper, asking that a partnership between the parties be dissolved. The plaintiff also asks that the court determine an accounting of the finances of the partnership and the amount he should recover from the defendant, and that a receiver be appointed for disposal of the property and disbursement of the funds received.

Raper claims that during January 1949 in San Jose, Calif., while he was still a minor, he turned over $300 to enable the defendant to move his family to Oregon, in consideration for which Loper allegedly promised the plaintiff partnership in real property and cabins to be built for rental.

Raper claims that the family moved to Sutherlin and purchased lot 15, Union Gap homesites, but that subsequent to the purchase he turned over $2,337.22 for partnership funds, that he worked 20 hours a week for 16 weeks at a reasonable wage of $29 a week, but that he lived in the household of Loper and that his board was worth $80 a month.

He states that on Nov. 6 he married Loper's step-daughter, but when he intended to move his wife him the partnership was over. from the house, Loper informed

Jim Ferrier, Ben Hogan Leading Masters Tourney

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 8 — (AP) — Jim Ferrier and Ben Hogan had ended, maybe temporarily and possibly permanently, two rumors about their golf as the tough third round of the masters tournament began today.

Ferrier — a giant Australian with a kink in his swing — leads the masters with 137 strokes which should rank among the most consistent in golf and stop stories that he's erratic.

Little Ben, a Texan who never brags even about Texas, is second with 141. Hogan's great second round in 68 strokes proves again that the quiet, intense champion is far from finished with the game he commanded until a serious automobile accident in February 1949.

Gangsters Slew Political Boss, Paper Declares

ST. LOUIS, April 8.—(AP)—The St. Louis Star-Times said Friday Charles Binaggio, slain leader of a Democratic faction in Kansas City, "practically" received his "death sentence" in a St. Louis hotel last January.

In a copyrighted story the newspaper said Binaggio came here "to see what he could do to appease the demands of underworld bosses."

It continued:

"Binaggio accepted between $100,000 and $200,000 from gamblers in the 1948 statewide Democratic campaign on the assurance that he would see to it that St. Louis would be a 'wide-open town.' Then he failed to deliver . . .

"He was told flatly that the gangsters and gamblers at this end of the state were 'tired of waiting.' In gang language, these are ominous words.

"The next development came later in the gloomy word from the Kansas City boss that a hitch had developed in the plans."

The Star-Times said the "stumbling block" in the way of the underworld planners was Gov. Forrest Smith's appointment of a political unknown, William Holzhausen, as president of the St. Louis police board. It said Binaggio "thought Holzhausen could be handled" but found instead a "stubbornly righteous man—almost a reformer."

The story said much of the big fund came from gamblers on the east side in Illinois — "gamblers anxious to move their base of operations into St. Louis proper" when the new Missouri state administration took office in January, 1949.

Give Chicken Old-Time Flavor

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

The "all-purpose chickens" (for broiling, frying or roasting) get themselves easily into family menus.

Let's brush up on chicken cookery, adding two recipes to our file

For chicken with gravy, purchase one that's fresh, New York dressed (feathers only removed); fresh, fully drawn; or frozen. If the chicken is quick frozen, thaw according to the directions on the box.

In the following recipes the chicken is cooked in its own flavor-fillip, 1 can of condensed cream fillup, 1 can of condensed cream of mushroom soup and 1 cup of water heated together may be substituted for the 2 cups of hot milk in the recipe.

Old-Time Chicken

One chicken, 1 egg, ½ cup milk, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1½ cups sifted bread or crackercrumbs, ½ cup butter or shortening, 2 cups hot top milk.

Have chicken drawn and cut into serving pieces, if quick frozen, thaw according to direction on the box. Rinse in cold water and dry. Beat egg slightly and add ½ cup milk. Season chicken pieces. Dip pieces into egg mixture and roll in crumbs. Heat butter in heavy skillet.

Brown chicken, skin side down. Turn and brown other side. Add the hot milk, cover, and simmer on top of range or bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until tender, about 30 to 40 minutes.

Here's a wonderful full-flavored chicken sauce with a colorful crispy relish crust.

Relish Crust Chicken Pie
(6 servings)

Two cups diced cooked chicken, 1 cup cooked peas, ½ cup cooked diced celery, 2 cups hot chicken gravy or medium white sauce, ¾ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, if desired.

Combine chicken and vetetables and add to gravy. Add seasonings and put into individual buttered baking dishes or a 1½-quart casserole. Top with Relish Crust Biscuits and bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes. Relish Crust Biscuits: 2 cups biscuit mix (home-made or prepared), ¼ teaspoon paprika, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 2 tablespoons grated raw carrot, 1 tablespoon minced green pepper, 2/3 cup milk (approximately).

Combine the biscuit mix, paprika parsley, carrot and green pepper in a bowl. Make a well in the biscuit mix, add the milk and stir. Turn onto floured board or pastry cloth and knead 6 times. Roll to ½-inch thickness. Cut and place over the hot chicken.
