Unemployment Drop Includes Roseburg Area

Nearly 20,000 workers returned to their jobs during March, the Oregon State Employment Service reported today, but a new influx of jobs seekers held the actual monthly gain to 16,000. Local offices said 57,990 person still were looking for work—11.5 per cent fewer than a year ago and about forty thousand under the winter peak early in February.

Klamath Falls reported 2,400 without jobs, an increase of 375 during March. Publicity about new industries opening up brought hundreds across the California border, it was said.

The only other community with more unemployment April 1 than a month before was Toledo, where a labor dispute resulted in 1,950 idle as against 950 on March 1.

On the other hand, declines of from 40 to 60 per cent in unemployment came from Hood River, Tillamook, Oregon City, Lebanon and Roseburg— mostly due to resumption of logging and lumbering operations, according to local office managers.

Around Portland, Corvallis, Eugene, Freewater, Bend, Grants Pass and La Grande,the number without work dropped less than 20 per cent during March. Astoria, Pendleton and Eugene reported more unemployed than on April 1 1949.

Wool Market Strong, Assn. Manager Reports

PORTLAND, — (AP) —The wool market is strong. It will remain that way this year, predicted R. A. Ward, Portland, manager of the Pacific Wool Growers association yesterday.

He told a meeting of association directors that production is running behind consumption. Prices will remain good both on domestic and foreign markets, Ward said. Little, if any, government support will be needed, he added.

R. L. Clark, Portland, was re-elected president. Ward and Gaylord Madison, Echo, Ore., were named vice-presidents. C. E. Grelle, Portland, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Horsemen will vie for $210,000 in purses in 15 stake races at Delaware Park from May 29 to July 4.

Indians Profit From Sales Of Timber, Fish Resource

PORTLAND, — (AP) —Western Indians received $3,877,750 from timber sales last year, the Federal Indian service reported.

The timber was sold on a sustained yield basis from 17 Indian reservations in Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho and Nevada, the district Director, Col. E. Morgan Pyrse, said.

Ninety percent of the money went to Indian owners, the other 10 percnet to the government for administration costs, he said.

Indians also realized $1,148,287 from wildlife resources, principally fish, Col. Pryse added.

B-29 CRASHES; NO DEATHS

SAN ANTONIO, April 8. — (AP) — A B-29 Superfortress crashed Friday in the open brush five miles southwest of Kelly air force base but the six men aboard escaped death.

The bomber broke into flames after the two officers and four civilian flight test mechanics got away. The plane was demolished.

The plane was on a test flight.
