

Opening Of Bids For County Home Given Later Date

Date for the opening of bids for the new Douglas County home has been set back to Tuesday, April 18, at 10 a. m. in the courthouse, announced County Judge D. N. Busenbark. The bids were originally scheduled for opening Tuesday of this week, but the change was necessary because of a delay in making available the plans and specifications.

Architect William Laing, Medford, announced the following contractors are holding plans and specifications on the job: General contractors—H. G. Carl, 1675 Fair Oaks Way, Salem; Donald M. Drake Co., Lewis building, Portland; Mike Harris Construction Co., 305 Overland Ave., Grants Pass; Tom Lillebo, Reedsport; R. H. Puddycomb, Leverette building, Medford; E. A. Shannon, Box 355 Rt. 3, Roseburg; Todd Building Co., 904 S. Stephens St., Roseburg; and H. C. Wirtz, Box 2000, Highway 99, Grants Pass.

Plumbing and heating, R. E. Carson, 713 East H St., Grants Pass; Denn-Gerretsen, 402 Oak St., Roseburg; Harris Plumbing & Heating, 805 St. Stephens, Roseburg; H. E. Hawk Plumbing & Heating, 818 W. Sixth, Medford; and Terps Plumbing & Heating, P. O. Box 842, Roseburg.

Electrical work—Ace Electric Co., 3525 N. E. Broadway, Portland 13; Chance Electric Service, 235 S. Highway 99, Grants Pass; Steek Electric Co., 119 N. Stephens, Roseburg; and Trowbridge Electric, 136 N. Jackson, Roseburg.

WILL UP TIRE PRICES
AKRON, O., April 10.—(AP)—Another increase in tire prices is "badly needed," President J. P. Seiberling told stockholders of the Seiberling Rubber Co. today. The increase is "inevitable" before midsummer, he said, and should be "at least 10 per cent."

TOO MUCH IS ENOUGH
LOS ANGELES, April 10.—(AP)—Robbers sometimes can go too far, Assamotoki Kokiichi complains. Three times in one week, the janitor told police, the same man met him near work, stuck a knife in his ribs and robbed him of a few dollars.

Kokiichi called the police in yesterday after the fourth hold-up. The robber took not only his money but also his false teeth, including a $50 gold molar.

Lloyd Services Set

Barber Shop Type Warbling Pleases Capacity Throng

An audience, taxing capacity of the junior high school auditorium, was entertained Saturday night by eight male quartets and two chorus groups as the Roseburg S.P.E.B. S.A. chapter sponsored the 1950 Quartet Parade as a benefit for the Knights of Pythias Girls Drum corps uniform fund.

Two Roseburg quartets joined with two from Medford and four from Eugene, together with chorus groups from both Medford and Eugene to furnish a two-hour program of vocal music.

Intermission entertainment included a group of selections by the girls drum corps, under the direction of Billy Black.

Feature of the program was the appearance of the Agony Four, Corvallis quartet, affiliated with the Eugene chapter, winners of the Pacific Northwest barbershop quartet championship. Mixing straight "barbershop" harmony with comedy selections, the Corvallis singers graciously responded to encores until almost exhausted.

The audience also showed much appreciation of the music by the Eugene chapter chorus, under the direction of J. H. Leabo.

AFL Head Backs Merger Proposal

WASHINGTON, April 10.—(AP)—AFL President William Green today strongly endorsed the idea of merging all American labor unions into a single federation, but avoided taking a stand on a CIO plan for all unions to cooperate politically pending the merger.

Green wrote President Philip Murray that the AFL favors formation of "one strong, well established labor organization" in America.

But he said he was referring Murray's idea of a political-economic coordinating committee to the AFL's executive council for a decision when the council meets at Philadelphia May 8.

Murray proposed last week that the CIO, AFL railroad unions and other major labor groups join in such a committee and also work for organic unity.

The AFL's traditional position has been that labor organizations should merge first, and that economic-political cooperation would follow automatically.

Ban On Importation Of Russian Crab Meat Asked

WASHINGTON, April 10.—(AP)—Three northwest congressmen have joined in asking a ban on the importation of Russian products.

Basis of the request was the report that Russia has sent 59,000 cases of canned crab meat into the United States and plans shipment of another 400,000 cases. The total value would exceed $23,000,000.

The congressmen told Secretary of the Treasury Snyder the imports should be banned under a law prohibiting importation of goods produced by convict, forced or indentured labor.

They said Russian crab shipments posed "a serious threat to our entire fishing industry and particularly the crab fishing industry."

The request was initiated by Reps. Norblad of Oregon, Mack and Tolleson of Washington, Nelson of Maine, Miller of Maryland, Nixon and Scudder of California. All are republicans.

Easter Weekend Traffic Deaths About 'Normal'

By The Associated Press
The nation's traffic deaths over the Easter weekend were about the normal daily rate of highway fatalities.

The total was 172 between 6 p. m. Friday and Midnight Sunday. This 54-hour total compares with an average of 175 for a similar period on the basis of figures compiled by the National safety council for the first 39 days of the year.

Mother-in-Law Of N. Y. Mayor Cited In Parking

NEW YORK, April 10.—(AP)—A New York policeman is in for a surprise. The officer, William Kelly, attached a summons to a 1940 Studebaker sedan Saturday parked by an excavation in front of 20 East 70th street. The charge was partially obstructing a bus stop.

Later a gray-haired woman in a mink cape appeared in a drug store at Madison avenue and 72nd street and asked for an envelope and a stamp.

"Imagine the mother-in-law of the mayor of New York getting a parking ticket," she said to the clerk.

The car, with a New Jersey license, is registered in the name of Mrs. Eleanor Young. She is the mother of the former Sloan Simpson, who recently married Mayor William O'Dwyer.

Sen. Morse Seen As Easy Winner Of Renomination

SALEM, Ore., April 10.—(AP)—U. S. Senator Wayne L. Morse has some campaigning to do, but the political experts here should win renomination easily in the May 19 Republican primary.

Morse has two opponents, but only one has campaigned thus far. He is David I. Hoover, a dairy farmer who used to be a Los Angeles deputy sheriff. The other is John McBride, a Portlander who has spent seven years in Washington in congressional secretarial jobs. He advocates "sound money."

Hoover says Morse is a bad Republican and should start his own third party. He accuses Morse of being in sympathy with socialism, of not trying to get Communists out of government jobs, and of supporting President Truman's deficit-financing policies.

He says Morse's campaign slogan, "principle above politics," is "pre-fabricated escape hatch" and means that Morse isn't a regular republican.

Morse replies that he supports the 1948 Republican platform, wants government spending cut down, and would like to correct "pre-fabricated economic injustices. He is in solid with all labor and most farm groups."

Hoover plans a vigorous campaign wind-up, backed by conservative elements of the party. But the Morse organization is prepared, too, and the senator with the pro-administration voting record will return from Washington soon to step up the tempo of his renomination battle.

Hoover is 52 years old. He and his wife moved to their Lane county farm 10 years ago from Los Angeles, which he left because he got tired of smelling exhaust fumes. He was a deputy sheriff in Los Angeles.

Morse was elected six years ago by a nearly 100,000 vote margin. He defeated former U. S. Senator Rufus C. Holman, a foe of international cooperation. Morse called him an isolationist.

Before entering the Senate Morse was dean of the University of Oregon law school and had gained fame as an arbitrator of west coast longshore disputes.

Morse and Hoover have a few things in common. They live in the same county. Both love horses. Both oppose the Truman proposal for a Columbia Valley authority.

Child Slightly Hurt In Running Into Passing Car

Donnie Coltrane, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coltrane of 634 Alameda Ave., sustained slight injuries, when she reportedly ran into the rear fender of a passing car near her home about 11 a. m. Sunday.

The investigating state police officer said the driver of the car was Delbert Franklin Roach, 16, of Roseburg. No citations were issued.

The child was taken to Mercy hospital for x-ray examination and her injuries were found to be not serious.

School Board Use Of Tax Money To Pay Dues Scored

SALEM, April 10.—(AP)—Attorney General George Neuner scolded the Oregon School Boards association for continuing its efforts to use tax money to pay dues to the association.

The association, which Neuner says is "a voluntary organization without any background of legislative origin or approval," wants each school board in the state to pay dues, using money collected from school taxes.

In an opinion for Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction, Neuner ruled for the second time that tax money can't be used to pay the dues.

Neuner pointed out that the legislature also is against this idea. The 1949 house of representatives voted 44 to 14 against giving the association its official blessing.

"In the light of this record, the renewed importunity of the School Board association is an imposition upon your department," Neuner wrote to Putnam.

The association's membership is on an individual basis, with annual dues of $2.50 per member.

Fire Wardens Confer In Salem

The annual fire wardens' conference was held in Salem Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week to discuss problems encountered by field personnel and also to alleviate some of the difficulties which arose during the past fire season. The sessions were in the form of panel discussions with key field personnel participating.

Fred Southwick, district warden spoke on problems of supplying fire crews in remote areas by airplane. Les Cummings, inspector, elaborated on some of the problems encountered by inspectors on operators fires. Other Roseburg personnel attending were John B. Richards and Bruce Ferguson, assistant district wardens; Bob Russell and Glen Cole, inspectors; William Hughes, conservationist; and Norman R. McDonnell, technical assistant.

Local personnel attending expressed the opinion that the knowledge gained at this meeting will be beneficial in coping with problems that arise during the next fire season.

Speech Contests For Medals Dated By WCU

Two speech contests will be sponsored by the W. C. T. U. at the North Roseburg church, located between Cloverdale park and the highway, just north of the Garden Valley intersection, Tuesday night, April 11, at 7:30 o'clock. Special music and important matters pertaining to those interested in temperance work will also take place.

The silver medal contestants include Danny Arnesmeyer, Jimmy Johansen, Robert Parker, Mary Weaver and others expected to enter. The gold medal contestants include Patty Ridgeway, Sylvia Rand, Merle Suter, Martha Thomas and Winnifred Williams. The public is invited.

McCarthy Claims Mystery Witness To Back Charges

WASHINGTON, April 10.—(AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) said today he is ready to give Senate investigators the name of a mystery witness who will swear that Owen Lattimore is or was a Communist.

Lattimore, John Hopkins professor who specializes on far eastern affairs, has denied he is or ever was a Communist. He called McCarthy a contemptible liar for making the charge.

McCarthy's charges are being investigated by a senate foreign relations subcommittee. "I am giving the committee the name of the witness I wish to have called first," McCarthy said. "I am asking the committee to subpoena him and have him testify."

McCarthy added that he expects to produce other witnesses who he said would back up his accusations against Lattimore. The committee has made tentative plans to hear on Thursday whatever witnesses McCarthy can produce.

The tumultuous inquiry into McCarthy's charges of Communism in the State department was enlivened meanwhile by an exchange in which: 1. A Democrat, Rep. Dingell of Michigan, declared that "reckless" Republican leaders are backing McCarthy in a drive to "get" President Truman.

2. McCarthy retorted that Mr. Truman is "afraid" to let a senate investigating committee examine secret files which McCarthy contends will prove his accusations.

Plywood Corporations Sign Access Agreement

NEW YORK, April 10.—(AP)—United States Plywood corp. announced today it has signed a contract with the Mutual Plywood corp. of Eureka, Calif., giving it access to production of 60,000,000 feet of fir and redwood plywood a year.

U.S. plywood said it is participating in the financing of the Mutual operation, which has just completed a modern plant, expected to be in operation early in June.

AAU CHOOSE SPOKANE

PORTLAND.—(AP)—The next northwest conference of Alcoholics Anonymous will be at Spokane in 1951.

The group, which has no permanent organization, laid tentative plans in the first regional meeting here for a continuing organization. Its formation was delayed, but members were asked to cooperate in a census of members on which to base delegations to any future national or international convention.

Most of the cities of the Pacific northwest states and British Columbia were represented in the sessions here.

Train-Auto Crash Kills Five Youths

COUER D'ALENE, Ida., April 10.—(AP)—Kay Olson, 17, of Post Falls, Idaho, still was in a state of shock today after the collision that killed five of her young companions.

She was the only one of six persons in a light passenger car to escape death early Saturday morning when the automobile struck a passenger train locomotive. The accident occurred at a grade crossing of the Spokane International railroad nine miles northwest of Coeur d'Alene.

Hospital attendants said the girl's condition would not permit immediate questioning by police authorities. She was cut about the head and face.

One of those killed in the accident, Allen Manweiler of Rathdrum, Idaho, was engaged to Miss Olson a few hours before the tragedy. He was a 20-year-old University of Idaho student.

Others who died in the crash were Edward Turo, 20, and LeRoy
