

THE LITTLE MAN FROM MARS on his flying saucer visited Roseburg Wednesday morning for the opening of Ward week at the local Montgomery Ward store. The flying saucer landed at 9 a.m. in front of the store. His unheralded appearance brought out police cars—sirens wide open—to the scene for an immediate investigation. The officers found the situation well in hand and that Mayor Al Flegel (not shown) had already appeared to welcome the two-faced visitor, who proved very friendly. In the foreground are Ward Manager Ed Nolte, the Little Man from Mars and assistant Manager Roy Abrahamson. (Staff photo.)

Home Talent Play Slated At Wilbur

Of much interest to the Wilbur community is the home talent three act play which is to be held at the Wilbur school house Friday, April 21. It will be put on by the older people of the community. The name of the play is "Ready Made Family" and includes nine character parts. The cast includes Begonia, the Negro maid, played by Mrs. Olive Blondell; Nicodemus, the colored handy man, played by Harvey Carey; Agnes Martyn, a widow, by Mrs. Lois Palmer; Bob, her son, by Fredrick Broszio; Marilee, her daughter, by Mrs. Elsie Broszio; Gracie, her youngest child, by Mrs. Glen Godfrey; Miss Lydia, her sister-in-law, by Mrs. Jean Godfrey; Henry Turner, a widower, by Mr. Melvin Palmer; Doris, his daughter, by Mrs. Alice Vasche; and Sammie, his son by John Shirley. Much work has gone into this production and the cast extends an invitation to all persons interested to attend. A small charge will be asked and all proceeds will go towards sending 4-H children to summer school at Corvallis. Pie and coffee will be sold after the play.

Dinner Dance Scheduled Friday By Active Club

The Roseburg Active club will hold a dinner dance, starting at 7:30 p.m., Friday at Melody Inn in Winston. Kenneth Atterbury is in charge of arrangements. Members are privileged to bring guests but it is requested they notify either Kenneth or Lowell Atterbury that the approximate number to attend may be known in advance. The club also voted to stage an amateur night program later this spring. The plans call for having auditions from which the entertainers for the evening program can be selected. The date for the affair will be announced later. The place will probably be the Junior high school auditorium. Kenneth Atterbury was named chairman, and will be assisted on arrangements by Paul Wray and Lowell Atterbury.

Attend Meeting—A group of members of Douglas court, Order of Amaranth, motored to Eugene Monday evening where they attended the Willamette court, Order of Amaranth installation. Those making the trip were Mrs. Fred Darby, Mrs. Thomas Bullipit and Mrs. Lester Twoby. Mrs. Lock-year, member of Willamette court, who recently moved to Roseburg, accompanied the Douglas court members.

SUTHERLIN BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB TO WORK WITH NEW ACTIVITY

Associated Business Women's club at Sutherlin will assist with the rehabilitation program for patients at the state tuberculosis hospital from Douglas county. Mrs. Marian Buchanan was appointed chairman of the committee to be assisted by Mrs. Connie Smith and Mrs. Doris Steinbach.

Mrs. Lina Torrey read a letter from the hospital at the meeting held Monday, April 3, at the Scout hall in Sutherlin.

Mrs. Eleanor Anderson was introduced as a new member and presented a corsage.

Mrs. Amie Leige reported on the Timber Day's committee meeting and announced that the celebration will be run this year by the American Legion.

A discussion on the Scout Jamboree scheduled during the summer at Valley Forge was heard. The club plans to assist the three boys who are attending from Sutherlin.

School lunch program was reported on by Mrs. Ivena Halverson. Mrs. Lucille Chase, Mrs. Betty Correll, Mrs. Florence Cook and Mrs. Connie Smith contributed to the birthday box.

Mrs. Florence Groshong, Mrs. Ivena Halverson, Mrs. Dorcas Hoagland and Mrs. Juanita Hol-

Local News

Visits Here—Mrs. Maude Johnson of Eugene spent Easter vacation in Roseburg at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Seofield.

Enjoy Weekend—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davies of Roseburg enjoyed the Easter weekend in Eugene.

Visit in Corvallis—Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker in Corvallis with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shoemaker in Corvallis.

Easter Guests—Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bubur over Easter weekend were Mr. and Mrs. William D. McKillop and daughter, Cathy, of Long Beach, Calif., and the Bubars' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Watson and three children, of Eugene.

Returns Home—Mrs. Clarence Sandburg left for her home in Portland Wednesday after spending several days in Roseburg and Riddle visiting friends and relatives. She attended the wedding of Bill Schultz and Betty Hunnicutt Sunday. While in Roseburg she was a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Augusta Wilson, and her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schultz, on South Jackson street. Sunday evening, Mrs. Sandburg drove to Riddle where she visited relatives and old-time friends. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wilson of Riddle brought her to Roseburg Tuesday evening. She is the former Carrie Wilson and resided in Riddle for some time.

To Coquille—L. L. Powers and W. Howard Pattison returned to Roseburg today after driving a group of Job's Daughters members to Coquille, where they will attend the three-day grand session.

Returns to Work—Genevieve B. Simmons has returned to her work as secretary to Attorney Paul E. Geddes in Roseburg, following her recovery from minor injuries suffered March 25 in an automobile accident.

To Meet Monday—George Starmer camp and auxiliary to United Spanish War Veterans will meet at 6:30 o'clock potluck dinner Monday night, April 17, at the Methodist church parlor, corner of Lane and Main streets.

To Elect Officers—Oakland PTA will elect new officers at a meeting Monday night, April 17, at 8 o'clock at the school auditorium. Entertainment will be furnished by the third grade children with their mothers serving the refreshments. Supt. Gilbreath will discuss the problems confronting the student entering college. Other features are planned for the program.

Out-of-Town Guests—Out-of-town guests attending the Schultz-Hunnicutt wedding Sunday were Dr. and Mrs. Dewey Wilson, of Coos Bay; Dr. John Wilson and daughters, Marilyn and Donna, of Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wilson of Riddle and Mr. and Mrs. George Schultz of Portland. They returned to their homes Sunday evening.

Curtin

By MRS. GRACE THOMPSON

Tony Rayburn of Myrtle Creek visited Earl Hodges Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thompson, Patty and Faye, of Rogue River visited relatives and friends here during the past week. Friday evening a family dinner and get-together was held at the J. R. Sowles home in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Dement of southern Oregon have announced the arrival of their first daughter and second child, Trudy, born March 25. The Dements are former residents. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rains of Drain, and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dement of Elkton.

Mrs. Flora V. Holt, Mrs. Dorothy Booher and Mrs. Grace Goins spent Thursday afternoon at the Harry Holt home in Creswell being happy celebrating his birthday. Holt is recuperating satisfactorily from a recent heart attack.

Bernell Goins took a load of lambs to Portland Wednesday, returning home on Thursday. He reports a top market for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Thompson and sons spent Easter Sunday at Halsey with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Falk, also visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thompson at Harriaburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Booher and children motored to Horton Sunday where they were part of a group who helped Mr. and Mrs. George Pennock celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. Bernell Goins worked several days on Rock creek with his "cat" building a logging road.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilman are here helping take care of his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gilman, who have been ill with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gilman are the parents of a boy born April 6 at the Butler Maternity home in Cottage Grove. The boy has been named Robert, and he has a sister named Connie. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gilman.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hodges spent the weekend at the coast.

TO ADDRESS LIONS

Dr. Burch B. Gilpin of the Veterans hospital will speak to the Roseburg Lions club and show pictures on England, at the club's weekly meeting tonight in the Hotel Umpqua. The club is also sponsoring a square dance, in cooperation with the Lady Lions, to be held at the Country club Saturday, starting at 8 p.m. This is the third in a series of dances of the winter and spring months.

POWWOW BALLYHOO—Pictured above are members of the ninth grade at Junior high school as they accompany Jim Mess, school district maintenance superintendent, on a tour of the town in the interests of their play, "The Trysting Place," which will be presented in the school auditorium Friday night. From the left those standing in the trucks are: Marlene Jewell, Carolyn Burr, Dalise Hicks, Charlotte Sand, Tommy Thompson, Buddy Langberg and Clyde Pope. Pointing to the sign are Lois Patterson, at the left, and Sandra Bullington. (Picture by Paul Jenkins.)

Clerk Wins Skating Title

EAST LANSING, Mich., April 13.—Dark-haired Barbara Marchetti, who clerks in a five and ten when she isn't winning ice titles, is undisputed queen of the continent's indoor speed skaters. The teen-ager from Wyandotte, Mich., made a clean sweep of the senior women's events at the North American indoor speed skating championships by winning all four events in her division for a perfect 120 score.

Her feat almost eclipsed the valiant uphill fight Edgare Dame of Revere, Mass., made to retain the senior men's crown.

SUIT DISMISSED

Circuit Judge Carl E. Wimberly has issued an order, based upon the motion of the plaintiff, dismissing as settled the suit of Douglas Creditors association against Roy Thompson.

FANS WATCH KAHUT

EUGENE, April 13—Some 1500 fight fans watched Woodburn's Joe Kahut in a fast four-round exhibition with Tommy De Mers, Sand Point, Ida., here last night. There were four other bouts on the card, two of them ending in kayoes. Don Rogers, 135, Portland, measured John Warren, 133, Los Angeles, in the second; and Bob Schaeffer, 153, Eugene, knocked out Bill Davis, 154, Portland, in the first.

Ex-OSC Griddler Sues

LOS ANGELES, April 13—Erberle Schultz, former star tackle for Oregon State, is suing the now defunct Los Angeles Dons for $7,700, alleging breach of contract. Schultz, at the trial which opened yesterday, contended the Dons paid him only $500 of an $8,900 contract. The Dons' counsel said Schultz was injured before signing the agreement. Schultz a year ago was awarded a $5,000 judgment against the Los Angeles Rams on the grounds that business inducements offered here failed to materialize.

TV Troubles Hit Seals

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13—The San Francisco Seals have TV troubles—the fans are staying home to see the games. The telecasts don't bring a penny into the Pacific Coast league club coffers.

Vice-President Charles J. Graham woefully mourned that the Seal management made a big mistake in throwing in television rights free in the club's broadcasting contract.

"It definitely has me worried," Graham said today. Manage Lefty O'Doul said television salesmen were even saying buy a television set and stay at home to watch the Seals play baseball.

EVERYBODY'S ENTERING
UMPQUA DAIRY'S
"CARTON CONTEST"

A free quart of UMPQUA DAIRY ice cream to everyone who enters. Nothing to buy — no obligation.

HERE'S ALL YOU NEED TO DO

If you have constructed or think you can make something new or original from an empty Umpqua Dairy milk carton, attach your name and address and age to the entry and bring it to the Umpqua Dairy, Sykes and Short street any weekday between 9 and 5. You will be given a quart of Umpqua Dairy ice cream then and there.

If your idea for use of the cartons does not lend itself to a construction draw a diagram of the use of the carton or describe your idea in writing. Write plainly and be sure to include your name and address and age. Bring your drawn or written entry to Umpqua Dairy. Free ice cream! You must submit your own idea. There is no age limit. Only one entry per person please.

For the ten best ideas we give FREE one gallon of Umpqua Dairy Ice Cream.

Prizes will be given to the oldest and youngest contestant.

For the best idea of all we will give a grand prize of $15 value.

First ten prize winners will be announced in our advertisement in the News-Review on May 11.

The contest will run from April 6 until May 6.

Employees of Umpqua Dairy and local advertising mediums and their families not eligible.

What's YOUR idea?

... What's your idea for inventing something useful, new, novel or humorous from an empty Umpqua Dairy milk carton as illustrated at left? We'll bet you can think of something that will win a grand prize... but of course you'll receive a free quart of Umpqua Dairy ice cream just for making an entry. Put on your thinking cap and get to work!

OH, MR. PRINCIPAL...

Umpqua Dairy would be pleased if your students would care to enter our "carton contest"... it might prove to be an educational project—and of course there's free ice cream for everyone who enters. Each contestant must submit his own idea—just one entry each, please. Call us for further details.

TRY IT THIS WEEK!

Umpqua Dairy
Strawberry Ice Cream
contains real Fresh-Frozen Strawberries!
get some — at your grocers!

so much richer in flavor that you can get 20 EXTRA CUPS of coffee from each pound...

SAVE UP TO 25¢
(equivalent to 1/2 lb. extra)

Golden West Coffee

ground 3 ways
Regular-drip-Silex-for richer flavor in any coffee maker

it's third less... get the same amount of rich, mellow coffee

save up to 25¢
Since you use less per cup you'll save as much as 25¢ for other groceries.

Your first taste tells of Golden West's extra richness. You'll find richer flavor and genuine satisfaction. This luxury coffee costs less, for you get 20 extra cups from every pound. Make it as you always do, using 1/3 LESS. Then let that steaming, fragrant cup prove how good coffee really can be... at a saving of up to 25¢ per pound.

CLOSEST & DEVIERS SUBSIDIARY OF
BEN-HUR PRODUCTS, INC.

PHONE 38
Umpqua Dairy Products Co.
HOME OF QUALITY DAIRY PRODUCTS
ROSEBURG, OREGON SYKES & SHORT, STS