LOOKINGGLASS WCS REELECTS OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR

The Lookingglass Woman's Society of Christian Service met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cliff Harner. The meeting was preceded by a showing of the colored slide set prepared by the National Woman's Division covering in part the scope of the work of the society in the United States and abroad. This part of the program was held in the church and largely because of the better understanding thus provided of the over-all program of the society at large. The local group decided to double their former pledge for missions.

In regular session, the devotional service was led by Mrs. Flora Lowden and the business meeting conducted by the president Mrs. Corvin Heard. Plans were made for a fellowship dinner to be held in the church parlors following the services on Sunday, May 7. Committees will be announced later. A report was made on a letter received from the superintendent of the Jesse Lee Children's Home in Seward, Alaska, indicating their special need of quilts for the single beds and that they would greatly appreciate receiving good books for children. These needs the local society will help supply. The superintendent also paid a fine tribute to Mrs. Gene Elliott now stationed at Hope, Alaska. "Gene" was a much loved pastor of the local circuit a few years ago.

A communication from District Superintendent S. Raynor Smith advised that societies in the southern district were contributing to a fund to help defray hospital expenses for Mrs. C. Brittain. She has been confined to Mercy Hospital in Roseburg many weeks, receiving treatment for a serious hip injury resulting from a fall on icy pavement shortly after the first of the year. Rev. and Mrs. Brittain now stationed at Sutherlin were former pastors on this circuit. The local society expressed appreciation of the opportunity to help with the fund.

The annual election of officers resulted in the re-election of the president Mrs. Corvin Heard; secretary, Mrs. Elliott; and treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Marsh. Mrs. Dorothea Gatenman was elected vice-president and Mrs. Guy Harbaugh assistant secretary. Secretaries of the various departments will be announced by the president later.
