Every day in every way it gets wetter and wetter! And now we've got mermaids, yet! Yes, at ASHCRAFT JEWELERS, 105 S. Jackson St., there are mermaids carved on the links of sterling silver bracelets from Siam. These aren't cheap copies, but genuine original hand-carved jewelry. The designs are inlaid in different shades of silver on each link of the narrow or wide bracelets. Mermaids and dancers and soldiers are displayed in typical Oriental fashion on large fan-shaped pins, which have matching ear clips or dress clips. An Oriental dancer crouches on round button-shaped earrings; either with clip or screw-back. Just go in and look at them—you'll want to give a set to someone special.

Know someone who just had a baby? Here's a card that says "Congratulations on the new little noise-maker," and inside is a rattle on a spring. When they open it, the rattle will pop out and go "jangle, jangle" at them. This card is one of many clever Narcross Sound Effects cards at ROSEBURG PHARMACY, 241 N. Jackson St. Another, for a birthday, says "Happy Birthday from one rattlebrain to another." Some have metal clickers instead of rattles. There are cards for all purposes—anniversaries, get-well cards, marriage congratulations, etc. See and hear them this weekend, when you're in town to shop.

Baby pictures are priceless, and now you have a chance to get double value from yours. Just bring your youngster to CLARK'S STUDIO, 103 S. Jackson St., for a beautiful 8" x 10" portrait. It's specially priced at only $1.50, until May 13. If your child is between the ages of six weeks and six years, you may then enter his portrait in Clark's Baby Contest. He or she will be eligible for one of the prizes, totaling $105 in cash. Where else can you get so much for so little, we ask you?

Know a little girl who broke her favorite doll? Or just wore it to a frazzle? Don't break her heart by throwing it away. Take it to YOUNG'S DOLL & TOY SHOPPE, 104 S. Main St., and let them restore it. They are wizards at doll repairing. They can mend broken legs and refinish them so the break doesn't show at all. They will replace missing arms or legs, reset eyes or put in new ones. Doll bodies can be restored like new, and heads mended or replaced. Is doll's hair falling out? Young's Doll & Toy shop will re-dress doll's human hair wig so it looks like new. Or you can buy a new wig and they will put it in the doll. Won't your little daughter's face beam when she sees her doll all new again? Take it in and have it fixed this week.

When you buy bread, what do you look for? Why—freshness, of course, and where can you buy it so fresh as at CLEO'S QUALITY BAKERY, 314 N. Jackson St. It's made right there in Cleo's own ovens, and has that good homemade flavor. Cleo's bread is made with milk, which gives it that nicely browned crust. It toasts better, too. Buy Dutch Crunch, Date-nut, Cinnamon, 100% wheat, or homemade milk loaf any day of the week. Or go in on Mondays for American Rye; on Tuesdays for Salt Rising bread; on Wednesdays for Russian Rye; on Thursdays for crusty Sour-dough French bread and rolls; on Friday for American Rye, again; and on Saturday for Cheese Bread. They're all made of the finest ingredients, hand-made with that rich wheat flour. For those who need it, Cleo will be happy to make salt-free bread on order. Drop in tomorrow for your weekend supply of wholesome, flavorful homemade bread and rolls.

These planes are easy to build, so that even third graders can enter, and no one above the ninth grade can compete. There are twenty prizes on display in Lester's window—14 honor awards, 3 race car kits, 2 boat kits, and a gorgeous gold trophy for the first prize. Let's see what fine Mustangs, Ercoups, and Aeronaucs our boys can build!

These dreary days make us all want something warm and filling to eat in mid-afternoon. Why not treat your friends for an afternoon? And what's the meekest place in town for such doings? Why, the ICE CREAMERY, where they serve that good hot chocolate with a marshmallow melting on the surface. Lunches are served there, too, from 11 to 3 each day—meatloaves or minced ham sandwiches, malted milks or Cakes, and every delicious ice cream dish your heart desires. They're open Sundays, too, from eleven in the morning to eleven at night, when there's lots of parking room downtown. Drop in for a snack, or a pint or quart of their homemade ice cream, hand-packed and high-packed. And if Mr. Glenn H. Cleveland of Dillard is reading this, he'll be glad to know that he can get a quart of his favorite flavor any day this week at the Ice Creamery, absolutely free.
