

Society and Clubs

by LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER and BETTY ALLEN

Sally Ann Stanley Weds Quinton Hughes April 8

The wedding of Miss Sally Ann Meek Stanley, daughter of Mrs. Lola Turner Stanley of Portland and Roseburg, to Quinton C. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes of Fort Douglas, Ark., was an event of Saturday, April 8th, at St. George's Episcopal church in Roseburg with Rev. Alfred S. Tyson officiating.

George Gray gave the bride in marriage. She wore a gown of white nylon and lace net with a full train and finger tip veil of illusion held in place with a pearl headress. She carried a spray of white Easter lilies.

Mrs. Gordon T. Kaelin of Vancouver, Wash., was matron of honor, and the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of yellow nylon net with a matching picture hat and carried a nosegay of yellow and white daisies.

Leon Hughes was best man for his brother and ushers were Kenneth Hughes, brother of the bridegroom, and Tom C. Scott.

The bride's mother wore a white suit with light brown accessories and a corsage of baby orchids.

Mrs. Roy B. Herschleb was organist and played Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin. Mrs. Robert Lockyear was soloist and sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Mallott and "O Perfect Love" by Barnby.

A reception followed in the parish house for one hundred and forty guests. Officers of Douglas court No. 18, Order of the Amaranth were in charge. The bride's table was beautifully decorated with yellow Calla lilies and the bride's cake was decorated with a yellow and white lily motif. Mrs. Murry Smith and Mrs. T. W. Bernard poured. Mrs. Frank Long and Mrs. Fred Darby finished cutting the cake. Mrs. Gordon Harness had charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lew Dykstra, uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hughes, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Mildred O'Reif of Portland; Mrs. Al Menke of North Bend; Mrs. Gordon Kaelin of Vancouver, Wash., and the Misses Marry Orr, Beverly Hershey and Ann Adams of Portland, all classmates of the bride at St. Helens Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes are honeymooning on the Oregon coast and will be at their new home on the North Umpqua river after April 15.

BRIDE OF SATURDAY was Miss Sally Ann Meek Stanley, who became the bride of Quinton C. Hughes, at St. George's Episcopal church in Roseburg. (Picture by Clark's Studio.)

A BEDTIME STORY will be presented at the Uiah Rhoden School of Ballet recital April 28th and April 29th at 8 o'clock both evenings at the Junior high school auditorium. Little Bo-Peep, Melanie Hunicutt, and Lamb standing, Sue Lindell. Lambs left to right seated include: Andrea Gill, Orpha Rutan, Sharon Cox, Betty Kay Schnore, Eleanor Wickstrom (not in picture) will also take part in the ballet. (Picture by Paul Jenkins.)

Island Ceremony Is Of Local Interest

An island wedding followed by a reception in the home of Robert Louis Stevenson was the romantic news received here by relatives of the marriage of Cleo Jacklin Hale and Albert Theodore Diamond.

The ceremony was read Thursday, March 30 in the Pilgrim chapel Central Union church according to a letter received by the bride's mother, Mrs. Jessie Dorviller and her brother, Arlo Jacklin.

For her wedding the bride selected a white embroidered batiste ballerina length gown and with this wore pink accessories and island flowers.

Mr. Diamond is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Diamond of Honolulu. He is with the navy at Pearl Harbor, NSC, civil service. The bride is receptionist and painter at the Craig Stevens studio at Honolulu.

Following the wedding the guests drove to San Souci Inn, where a reception was attended by 200 guests. The Inn is the former home of Robert Louis Stevenson. Later the couple flew to Lehu, Kauai where they spent two weeks at the Kauai Inn.

Mrs. Dorviller spent 11 months on the islands with her daughter last year.

Mrs. Albert Diamond

Old Glass And China Discussed By Group

Inter-Se Study club met at a lovely one-fifteen o'clock dessert-luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Harold Nichols on Watson street with Mrs. W. R. Brown as guest speaker on "Old glassware and china-ware."

Narcissi, lilies and duronicum formed the attractive decorations. Covers were placed for the guest speaker and Mrs. Paul Elliott, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. Alva Laws, Mrs. E. E. Lindell, Mrs. W. Howard Pattison, Mrs. Charles A. Ricketts, Mrs. John Ulrich, Mrs. R. B. Hampton, Mrs. V. V. Harpham and the hostess, Mrs. Nichols.

The next meeting will be April 25 at a one-fifteen o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. V. V. Harpham with Mrs. Theo Bond in charge of the program on "Furniture styles and how to recognize them."

Modern Cinderella

is Miss Joan Rutter who with her mother Mrs. J. M. Rutter, of this city, will leave Thursday by plane from Portland for Hollywood. She will christen the Western Air Lines plane "Cinderella" and then board the flying pumpkin coach for sunny California.

Winner of a recent contest in Portland Joan shopped Tuesday and returned to Portland today to complete her wardrobe for the trip. She will go to Portland Wednesday of next week for a coiffure to give her $500 wardrobe that last minute touch.

Joan's fairy godmother is Mrs. O. M. Feldkamp who entered the picture and recommendations in a contest sponsored by the Oregonian, Western Airlines, Lipman Wolfe and Walt Disney Studios. Miss Rutter is a freshman at Oregon State college where she has gained considerable popularity and can be listed as one of Roseburg's favorites. (Cut Courtesy The Oregonian.)

Miss Joan Rutter

STUDYING OLD GLASSWARE and china Tuesday was the topic of Inter Se club at the home of Mrs. C. H. Nichols. Mrs. W. R. Brown led the discussion. Standing with the hostess, Mrs. Nichols, left to right, are Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Charles Ricketts, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. Paul Geddes and Mrs. Ray B. Hampton. (Photo by Paul Jenkins, News-Review photographer.)

INTER SE MEMBERS enjoyed a discussion on antiques, old glassware and china Tuesday. Among those attending were Mrs. W. Howard Pattison, Mrs. John Ulrich, Mrs. E. E. Lindell, Mrs. Vern Harpham, Mrs. Paul Elliott and Mrs. Alva Laws. (Paul Jenkins, News-Review photographer.)