Proof positive of the favored spot Roseburg listeners place the news-commentary of Fulton Lewis Jr. was to be found in the flood of phonecalls to our studio Tuesday afternoon when Fulton Lewis failed to appear in his regular 4 o'clock listening period. By way of explanation, we might add that his news-commentary was canceled on the network to make way for the "Game of the Day" on Don Lee in its entirety. KRNR is not and will not be carrying the "Game of the Day"... hence, we cannot be sure whether or not Don Lee will kick through with the 4 o'clock Fulton Lewis broadcast during the next few months. You may depend on hearing him, however, each night, Monday through Friday (9:45-10:00 p.m.)

A tremendous thrill is in store for Roseburg's small fry when KRNR's new "Kid Frolics" makes its debut this Saturday (10:30-11:00 a.m.). To all first-comers admitted to the Ott and Ricketts Music Store, corner Cass and Jackson streets, go free gifts, the chance to participate on the half-hour program, and the possibility of winning exciting prizes. Entire fiasco will take place in the store itself... highlighted by organ music emanating from the street-window. Keeping the kiddies in line, plying them with questions and presenting the prizes will be emcee Lyle Fenner... a wonder with children... has two of his own! And mothers... by all means do accompany your toddlers... (if convenient)... promises to be the greatest local fun-show ever produced on KRNR for kid participation and listening entertainment for everyone... young or old! Kiddies... if you're ten or under... you are hereby most cordially encouraged and invited to attend the new "Kid Frolics" Saturday at the Ott and Ricketts Music Store. Air time: 10:30 to 11 a.m. Be there early!

TONIGHT: Circus atmosphere—circus thrills on "The Clyde Beatty Show (8:00-8:30 p.m.)... Hot-rod specialist Wilbur Shaw and sports author John Durant will be the guest panelists for the hot-stove sports session on "Sports for All" (8:30-8:55 p.m.)
