Town-Country Salad Tempting

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

With spring in the air, it's time for new luncheon salads. Try this one with a base of cottage cheese, a dairy food rich in calcium and protein. Combine with it cling peaches and sliced onions, both on the April plentiful list, and green pepper rings.

Town-and-Country Salad (Serves 6-8)

Four cups cottage cheese, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons sliced onion, one No. 2 can sliced cling peaches, salad greens, onion and green pepper rings, rye wafers.

Mix together cottage cheese, chopped green pepper and onion. Arrange cling peaches in a layer in a large serving dish. Top with cottage cheese mixture. Garnish with salad greens, onion and pepper rings. Serve with Devonshire dressing and crisp rye wafers.

Devonshire Dressing (Make one cup)

One cup sour cream, 1 1/2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, 2 tablespoons peach juice, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt.

Blend all ingredients until smooth. Makes 1 cup.

Salad Mousse (Serves 8)

One can (No. 2 1/2) sliced cling peaches, 3 packages (3-oz. size) cream cheese, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 5 tablespoons salad oil, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 2-3 cup canned peach juice, 8 marshmallows, lettuce, whipped cream mayonnaise, toasted crisp rye wafers.

Drain the peaches and arrange them in the freezing tray of the refrigerator. Beat the cream cheese with a fork until smooth. Mix juice with salad oil, salt and

PUPILS CONQUER FIRE

ALBANY — (AP) — Youngsters from Scramble hill school saved a farm house from burning down. Mrs. Lloyd Porter, who lives across the street from the rural school, noticed her roof was on fire. She appealed to the school pupils, who promptly formed a bucket brigade.

By the time firemen arrived, the blaze was out.

The vampire bat legend of the old world is remarkable because real-life bats that suck blood are confined to tropical America.

paprika and whip until thoroughly blended, then stir it into the cream cheese. When blended, add the peach juice, a little at a time, beating the mixture until it is light and fluffy.

Pour over the peaches and freeze until firm. Cut in squares and arrange on lettuce. Garnish each square with a maraschino cherry and serve with whipped cream mayonnaise and toasted crisp rye wafers.

Whipped Cream Mayonnaise Whip 1/2 cup heavy cream until stiff. Fold in 4 tablespoons mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 2 teaspoons powdered sugar.
