SURPRISE HOUSEWARMING HONORS WINSTON COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Clell Holteem were honored with a surprise housewarming Saturday evening, April 15th, at their home in Winston. The affair celebrated completion of interior and exterior redecoration. Of special interest was the unusual fireplace recently added to the living room. Of white brick, the corner fireplace has no mantle and is made attractive by the use of a plate glass shelf below a large mirror and highly polished myrtle wood book shelves on either side. The guests attending presented Mr. and Mrs. Holteem with various miniature potted plants to be used above the fireplace.

Visiting and group singing was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the host and hostess. Those attending were Mrs. A. D. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Shigley, Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brower, Mr. and Mrs. Frank True, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cluster and Mrs. Ruby Fox.

SUNTAN PLAN AWRY

KLAMATH FALLS.—Ponder a moment over the troubles of Doyle Schiffman, who wanted a nice, smooth suntan this spring. What he got was yards and yards of gauze.

Doyle, 17-year-old high school senior, dropped off to sleep under his sunlamp and was under the light all night.

His head and upper body were painfully burned and will be damaged white instead of tan this spring.
