

Society and Clubs

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER and BETTY ALLEN

A beautiful and warm spring day and four lovely girls from Roseburg senior high school posing in spring garden settings compose the pictures for today's society page. The pictures were taken by Paul Jenkins. Upper left is Miss Patricia Mears looking out of the dining room window of the Jenkins home in Laurelwood and enjoying the view of the perfectly appointed garden. Center left is Donna Sandusky and Glenn Gill, who posed in the garden of the Jenkins home. Top right is Zona Wilshire beside a gorgeous red rhododendron in the attractive garden of Mrs. Edgar Lewis in Laurelwood. Right center, Glenna Gill, Donna Sandusky, Zona Wilshire and Patricia Mears are pictured amid flowering trees in the beautiful garden of Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly on Glenn street.

Haskins-Kinney Party Is Charming Event

One of the most charming parties of April was given Wednesday by Mrs. John L. Haskins and Mrs. Kenneth W. Kinney at the former's attractive home at the Veterans hospital post, when they invited a group of friends to a one o'clock luncheon and card party.

Artistic arrangements of tulips, durnicum and scilla were arranged throughout the rooms, while the serving tables were centered with sprays of redbuds.

The hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. F. P. Powell and Mrs. Burhl Gilpin.

Covers were placed for Mrs. L. F. Shipway of Des Moines, Iowa, Mrs. H. L. King, Mrs. F. P. Powell, Mrs. Burhl Gilpin, Mrs. John Pierce, Mrs. C. B. Wade, Mrs. George E. Houck, Mrs. R. D. Coen, Mrs. Roy Catching, Mrs. Ted Wirak, Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. Arthur W. Baum, Mrs. William Linsell, Miss Rosa B. Parrott and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Following the three-course luncheon, contract bridge and canasta were in play with high score prize for bridge going to Mrs. Baum and second high score prizes going to Mrs. Booth and Mrs. R. D. Coen. The canasta high prize was won by Mrs. Houck.

Founders Day Dinner Planned By Sorority

Plans for the formal founders day dinner, installation of officers and rituals of jewels for Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi were made at a meeting Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Henry Darby with Mrs. William Semmler and Mrs. Ed Wyatt assisting hostesses. The dinner will be an event of six-thirty o'clock May 1 at Carl's Haven. Tickets are available by contacting Mrs. James Finlay.

The group will sponsor a rummage sale April 29 at the parish house. Those having articles for the sale are asked to leave them with Mrs. Bruce Hetrick or to call her if the articles are to be picked up.

The program on literature was in charge of Mrs. Hetrick, who talked on the seven joys of reading and also on famous characters of literature. Mrs. Roy Stein told how to read a book and Mrs. John Killip read some original poems.

Besides the hostesses and those taking part on the program, those present were Mrs. Harrison Winston, president, Mrs. Kelsey Kite and Mrs. George Quina, guests, and Mrs. Dallen Jones, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Jack P. Bathrick, Mrs. Daniel Dimick, Mrs. Benjamin O. DuFresne, Mrs. Mary Black, Mrs. Knute Kershner, Mrs. Don Gum, Mrs. Eugene Kent, Mrs. Frank Norton, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. James Finlay, Mrs. Wayne Crooch, Miss Mary Peterson, Mrs. Ted Schultz, Mrs. Herman Matisoff and Mrs. Harold Jokela.

The next meeting will be May 3 at eight o'clock in the evening at the home of Mrs. Herman Matisoff, 2032 Myrtle.
