With vacation-time rearing its luscious head, and summer beckoning the work-weary to far-away places... may we suggest Los Angeles to the vacation-wise. From the natural, realistic beauty of the Oregon landscape, you suddenly find yourself vaulted into a man-made world of make-believe; for the City of the Angels contains the very heart of the movie and radio industries, the epitome of entertainment. Thus, smacking of a travel-folder or a member of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce... we seriously urge you, by all means to visit Don Lee's K.H.J., 1313 North Vine street in Hollywood, should you take us seriously, and visit southern California. K.H.J.'s new studios are considered to be the finest yet constructed in the world of radio. You'll marvel at its vastness... its complexities.

And so to tipping... you'll get it no matter where you go... the extended hand of the doorman, the waiter... and you'd better follow up, or else! Harry Mynatt, official escort of "Queen for a Day," has paid a cool $25,000 during a five-year period on tips alone! Harry, who every week-during aquires the lucky lady elected "Queen for a Day" on the LDC Cinderella show around Hollywood's night-spots, has visited 3,000 local hotels and night spots. He's put all the insight he has thus acquired into a book, "Dining Out In Hollywood and Los Angeles," written in cooperation with Craig Davidson, advertising executive. It includes information on cuisine as well as where to dine with the whole family, the boss and the out-of-town visitor who wants to see celebrities. It also prominently features tips on tipping, a problem familiar to all diners-out. Harry has figured out that he has had about $100,000 worth of restaurant bills during the past five years. Fact remains, however, that the bills were all paid... not by Mynatt... but by "Queen for a Day"...

TONIGHT: Citizen-of-the-week on "Jovin Jamboree" (8:30-9:00 p.m.)... special paid political broadcast (9:30-10:00 p.m.)... "Dave Hoover for U. S. Senator" (10:00-10:15 p.m.)... "Music You Want" (10:15-10:45 p.m.)... "Hank's Music Shop" (10:45-11:25 p.m.)

Anti-Trust Suit Ouster Due To Secrecy Of FBI. WASHINGTON, April 25.—(AP)—A 4 to 4 tie in the supreme court Monday upheld a lower court's decision of an anti-trust suit because the government refused to disclose FBI files in the case. The Justice department had appealed on the grounds that the lower court's action in an oil case threatened to interfere seriously with enforcement of the anti-trust laws. The tribunal's action was announced in a brief order by chief justice Vinson. It noted that justice Clark took no part in the case. While a tie vote upholds a lower court ruling, it does not establish a legal precedent. The anti-trust suit was filed in U. S. district court in Shreveport, La. It named the Cotton Valley Operators committee, the Ohio Oil company and the Magnolia Petroleum company among others. The suit charged they conspired to monopolize business in oil and gas from the Cotton valley field in Webster Parish, La. Before the case came to trial "Advertisement" ULAH RHODEN SCHOOL OF BALLET The Sea Nymph and Evening of Ballet FOUR BALLETS each performance • The Sea Nymph • Bed Time Story • Coppelia • Frivolty THIRD YEAR 70 BALLERINAS ROSEBURG JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL FRIDAY APRIL 28, 1950 SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1950 ADULTS $1.00 CHILDREN under 10 50c Performance Promptly at 8:00 p. m.

Oregon Federation Of Women Honor 3 Groups. PORTLAND, April 25.—(AP)—The Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs honored three affiliated groups Saturday night for outstanding community projects. The Pacific Progress club, Forest Grove, the Salem Junior Women's club and the Corvallis Women's club were division winners of $100 over 29 other entries. The Forest Grove unit received an additional $250 sweepstakes prize.

BUILDINGS DESTROYED. TENNENT, Calif.—(AP)—A fire this Saturday morning destroyed the cookhouse and three other buildings at the Long-Bell Lumber company Modoc Camp No. 1.

Norwegian Wins Sialom. NORDEN, Calif., April 24.—(AP)—Norway's 21-year-old Guttorm Berg captured the silver bell giant sialom yesterday. He swept down the mile-long Mt. Lincoln course in 1:14.1, barely ahead of Austria's Farns Gahl, who finished in 1:14.3. Berg is an exchange student from Norway attending Whitman college. Jannett Burr of Seattle captured the women's event in 1:33.4 with Fay Nelson of Seattle second in 1:40.0.

Industrial Accidents. WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Secretary of Labor Tolson announces plans for a nation-wide education program against industrial accidents, through news columns and locally sponsored advertising. Tolson heads the president's conference on industrial safety which will meet here June 3-7. The advertising campaign is to be timed to the association. The association of casualty and surety companies will prepare the advertising material, which will be distributed through state press associations. Tolson said there are 2,000,000 industrial accidents a year, involving a total loss to all concerned of more than $4,500,000,000.

French Nun Canonized For Deeds Of Charity. VATICAN CITY.—(AP)—A French nun famed for her charitable works is the newest saint of the Roman Catholic church. Marie Emile de Rodat, who founded the religious congregation of the Sisters of the Sacred Family in 1832 and devoted her life to caring for the young and sick, has been canonized by Pope Pius XII in St. Peter's Basilica. Sixty thousand persons witnessed the colorful ceremony, first canonization of the holy year. The Pope set the date for the celebration of her sainthood at Sept. 19—date of Marie Rodat's death in 1852 at the age of 65.

Business Houses Burn. BAKER, April 25.—(AP)—A grocery store operated by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Brooks and a beer tavern owned by Paul Van Horn in Unity, about 50 miles southwest of Baker, were completely destroyed by fire late Sunday. It was reported here. Cause of the fire has not been determined.
