

Jackie Jensen Eyed For Spot In Yanks' Outfield

NEW YORK, April 29—(AP)—Any day now, you'll find Jackie Jensen, the $85,000 bonus dandy, playing left field for the New York Yankees.

Casey Stengel has been waiting for the chance to sub Jensen for Johnny Lindell. It may come when the Yankees next face a lefthander. "I want to see the kid play," said Casey. "You've seen a lot of worse ball players right in this here American league than the kid. He's going to be all right."

Jensen, a California football star who led the Golden Bears into the 1949 Rose Bowl, can't wait to get started. As a bonus player, he's set with the Yanks for the year. But he wants to play.

"I want to play baseball," he said. "I'm not interested in pro football. Not unless this doesn't pan out. A running back doesn't last too long."

Jensen first attracted attention as a pitcher with California. He pitched and played the outfield in the NCAA "college world series" at Kalamazoo a couple of years ago.

Although Jackie still has a year of football eligibility he turned to pro baseball last year.

"I didn't want to play football any more," he said, "and take a chance on an injury that might

VANDALS VICTORIOUS

By The Associated Press

Idaho's Vandals, flushed by their 5-3 victory over Oregon State yesterday, will try today to make it two in a row over the Beavers, whom they knocked from second to third place in the conference Northern Division baseball race.

The win pulled the Vandals out of the cellar and got OSC off to a bad start on its four-game road trip to the Inland empire.

The two-game series at Moscow is the only conference action scheduled this weekend. The Beavers move to Pullman Monday for a make-or-break twin engagement with the front-running Washington State Cougars.

By ELSIE BROZIO

The three act comedy entitled, "A Ready Made Family" put on by the Wilbur Community club Friday night, April 21, was a big success. It played to a packed house. Shirley was the make up artist. He has been taking this course in the Roseburg high school. The money will go towards 4-H scholarships and schoolground play equipment.

National Science Foundation Given Congress O. K.

WASHINGTON, April 29—(AP)—A unanimous Senate vote Friday completed congressional action on a bill to set up a national science foundation. The House had approved it previously.

The measure, a compromise of varying bills passed earlier by the Senate and House, is aimed at promoting research and education in basic sciences.

It sets up a foundation headed by a 24-member board and a $15,000-a-year director to award research contracts and fellowship grants for scientific studies.

The board would cooperate with the defense department and the atomic energy commission.

The bill authorizes a $500,000 appropriation for the first year and $15,000,000 annually thereafter. Separate legislation is necessary to provide the actual money.

Hoover's Plan Criticized By Eleanor Roosevelt

LAKE SUCCESS, April 29—(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said Friday former president Herbert Hoover's two-world speech advocates "the surest way to war."

The widow of the wartime president, active in United Nations affairs since the beginning of the world peace organization asked for comment on Mr. Hoover's proposal to reorganize the U. N. in a way to shut out Russia and other communist countries.

"I think it was an odd speech for a Quaker," Mrs. Roosevelt said. "It is the surest way to war, and for a Quaker to advocate a step toward war is odd."

COUGARS BEAT OREGON

Bucky Harris Toasts Joe Page As Senators Win

By JACK HAND

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

"Here's to Joe Page" remains Bucky Harris' favorite toast. Now the Washington manager celebrates Joe's home run ball, not his relief pitching.

Revenge must be sweet for the former New York Yankee Pilot who was fired after just missing the 1948 pennant. For the second time in six days, his maligned Senators whipped Fireman Joe.

Steve Nagy, drafter from the Pacific Coast league for $10,000, turned back the world champions for the second time last night, 5-4. On top of that, he won the game with an inside-the-park homer off Page in the eighth inning.

Page, of course, was money in the bank for Bucky in 1947 when he won the pennant and World Series. In '48 Joe fell down, the Yanks missed and Bucky lost his job.

Nagy's success is a feather in Harris' cap. He saw Steve win 15 for San Francisco last year when he was managing San Diego. On his advice, owner Clark Griffin drafted the 29-year-old southpaw who failed in a previous trial with Pittsburgh.

Bucky waited until he hit the Yankee stadium to give Nagy his first chance. He started last Saturday and went all the way to grab a ten-inning decision. Last night was his second start.

Bobby Feller, cut in salary and demoted to No. 2 boy on the Cleveland staff, is taking it out on American league batters.

Bob picked up win No. 2 yesterday, cutting down the onrushing Detroit Tigers with eight hits, 6-1. Last year Feller didn't win his second game until June 14.

Boston welcomed their "Fenway park cousins"—the Philadelphia A's—with a 4-1 win behind Mel Parnell. Not since Sept. 12, 1948, have the A's won a game at Boston.

The Chicago-St. Louis game in the American was rained out after 2½ scoreless innings. Cincinnati finally got in the win column by whipping Chicago 3-1. Ralph Kiner took matters into his own hands in the seventh inning with a two-run homer that gave Pittsburgh a 4-3 edge over the St. Louis Cards.

Curt Simmons pitched like the $65,000 bonus beauty he was supposed to be three years ago, when the Philadelphia Phillies owned
