

Exchange Vows In Candlelight Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McDonald

Before an altar banked with baskets of forsythia and spring blossoms, Miss Mildred MacDonald became the bride of Harold McDonald March 10, at 8 p.m. in an impressive ceremony in the Methodist church, Myrtle Creek.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvine J. MacDonald of South Myrtle. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McDonald of Myrtle Creek.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold Burelson.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Jean Verrell, wearing a gown of pale pink, lighted the tapers which stood in tall candelabra at both sides of the altar.

The bride was beautiful in a white satin gown fashioned with embroidered lace yoke and basque waist. A satin peplum fell into a long train. She wore a fingertip veil with a beaded coronet. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. Her bouquet was made of white carnations, a single orchid for the center and circled by stephanotis.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Harris of San Francisco. She wore an aqua gown with hooped skirt and carried a bouquet of variegated carnations with halo to match.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Forrest, cousin of the bride, and Miss Marian Verrell, both of Myrtle Creek. Miss Forrest's gown was of pink taffeta, lace trimmed and her flowers and halo were of deep rose carnations. Miss Verrell wore aqua and carried pale pink carnations and had a halo of similar flowers.

Karen Iverson, wearing a pale blue organdy dress and carrying pink carnations was a charming flower girl.

Serving as best man was John H. Miller and usher was Lee Crawford, both of Myrtle Creek.

The bride's mother wore a forest green gown with black velvet jacket. The bridegroom's mother wore tomato red. Both had gardenia shoulder corsages.

Preceding the ceremony the Rev. Burelson sang: "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Mrs. L. W. Ulan played the nuptial music. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony, with the bride couple cutting the cake. It was served by Mrs. George Waller of Oakland, Oregon, aunt of the bride. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Norman Harrang of Eugene, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Alvin Helgeson, Misses Alice and Marie Hardage of Grants Pass served the punch. Miss Judith Forrest, cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Wedding guests from out-of-town were: Mrs. Nellie Forrest of San Francisco, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold M. Helgeson and son, Marc, of San Carlos, California; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Forrest of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harrang and daughter of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hardage of Grants Pass.

The bride couple made their home in Myrtle Creek, following their honeymoon.

Daun Lillard will be wed Sunday, May 7 at St. George's Episcopal church in Roseburg.

Guessing games were won by Maxine Russell and Mrs. Neil Hart. During the evening the Elks Quartet, composed of Cliff Kinch, James Moran, Daun Lillard and Warren Ward, serenaded the ladies with several selections.

Dessert was served buffet style from a table laid with lace cloth, white tapers and bouquets of spring flowers.

Gifts were received by Miss Crocker from the Mesdames Ruth Reese Glen Beach, George West, Gaye Mowrey, Cliff Smith, Arne Couple, Edwin Gardner, of Eugene; Helen Cordon, J. L. Saunders, Vera Washington, Wesley Bayler, Carmen Clark, LeRoy Hiatt, Grady Mankins, Pete Rutter, C. J. Stanton, Art Cooper, Blayne Flora, Jack Lillard, William Mills, Nick Barton, Kelsey Hobday, Jr., Maxine Russell, Jim Rutter.
