

Budget Election Registration Open At Canyonville

To enable more people of Canyonville to register for the budget election, City Recorder Laura Goodell will remain in her office from 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. on Saturday, May 6, the last day to register to be able to vote for the city of Canyonville budget. Persons unable to come to the office during these hours may have some member of their family pick up a registration card any time this week and take it home. The person may fill out the card and send it back to the recorder's office on or before May 6, the recorder said. Only 113 persons had registered by Monday of this week.

The council met Friday night, accepted the budget and set May 15 from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. for the election to be held in the city hall. The purpose is to submit to the legal voters of Canyonville the question of increasing the tax levy for the fiscal year July 1, 1950 to June 30, 1951.

The reasons for increasing the levy are: The amount of $10,979.65 necessary to balance the budget exceeds the maximum allowable under the six percent limitation law. The amount of tax, in excess of the six percent limitation, proposed to be levied for this year is $5,835.82.

There will be a meeting of the levying board of Canyonville in the city hall May 13 at 8 p. m. to explain the proposed budget for the fiscal year. The public is urged to attend this meeting to learn and discuss the facts concerning the budget.

districts and are called especially useful by their sponsors.

The engineers' part of the bill long has been known as "the pork barrel section" by those who say it is more for local patronage than for needed improvements.

The appropriations committee refused to approve any funds for advance planning of projects by the engineers during the next fiscal year.

Republicans so far have failed to carry out their plans to make substantial cuts in the bill. In fact, the House had added about $67,000,000.

A final attempt to make reductions will be launched just before the House votes to send the bill to the Senate.

Republicans are working on a motion to send the bill back to the appropriations committee with orders to make specific reductions. They can get a roll-call vote on the motion, something they haven't been able to get on amendments offered up to now.

Douglas County Scouts, Cubs To Attend Council

More than 300 Boy Scouts and Cubs from Douglas county will participate in the Oregon Trail Council Boy Scout fair, to be held this weekend at the Lane county fairgrounds in Eugene.

Rollie Quam, local scout executive, said fair planners are anticipating a crowd of 60,000 persons, which will make this the largest scout show the area has ever seen. A total of 7,000 Scouts and Scouters will participate in this display of scout lore and youth training.

A mass parade of all participants, marching through downtown Eugene streets, will open the festivities Saturday noon. The show will officially open Saturday at 2 p. m. and continue until 10 p. m. Sunday morning. Scouters will attend the church of their choice. The show will re-open at 2 p. m. and close at 6 p. m.

Quam said today that six Douglas county Scout troops and two Cub packs have signed for displays and demonstrations in the main booth show. These units and their demonstrations include 133, Eden-bower, carpentry; 109 LDS church, proper use of knife and hatchet; 29, Oakland, knot tying; 19, Sutherland, foundry practice; 125, Canyonville, sheet metal working; 78, Drain, national jamboree campsite model; Cub Pack 419, Sutherlin Methodist church, radio demonstration; Pack 334, Benson grade school, weaving.

Quam said these units have signed as of April 25, but that other county units are also expected to participate. Latecomers may sign until May 5.

The local scout executive said that half of all ticket proceeds sold by each local group will be retained for use as each unit sees fit. Tickets, available from any local scout, are priced at 30 cents, for adults and 10 cents for children.

Adler Wins Round In His Suit For Libel

HARTFORD, Conn., May 2.—(AP)—Larry Adler, harmonica virtuoso, won a point today in his fight to prove that "guilt by association is an un-American principle."

Federal Judge J. Joseph Smith ordered stricken from the record a circular which pictured him and Paul Draper, dancer, as having "enthusiastically supported" an alleged Communist school.

The court, however, ruled that the circular could be marked for identification and that it might be taken up later.

The circular of the Abraham Lincoln school, of Chicago, was introduced yesterday by counsel for Mrs. Hester McCullough, of Greenwich, Conn., housewife and defendant in a $200,000 libel suit brought by Adler and Draper. They claim she accused them of pro-Communist activities.

Budget Bulge Perils U. S. Economist Says

the businessmen. He predicted it would take two years at a minimum before the deficit dollars now being poured into the public's pocket can be checked off and replaced by private investment.

"You can't simply kick the $6,000,000,000 or $7,000,000,000 of deficit out from under the market without seeing excess inventory accumulate, plants curtail operations, and unemployment mount," he explained.

Unless a practical time-table is adopted and adhered to—if an attempt is made to do the job overnight—the country simply will trade a deficit for a depression, the economist said.

"In fact, you wouldn't even trade a deficit for a depression. The depression thus brought on would bring its own new deficit with it."

Nourse declared he saw few indications that the nation's economic morale, at this moment, is at the necessary pitch to wage a winning battle against red ink. He said: "If I were sitting in the Kremlin, I think that I would be quite complacent as I viewed the progress of the battle of the budget bulge. Sitting in Washington, I am deeply concerned."

Nourse pointed out that senators and congressmen of both parties have shown a clear intent to cut excise taxes by amounts much greater than President Truman asked and have shown little will to make the offsetting increases he proposed.

Town, Beset By Snow, Asks Help

GRANTS PASS, May 2.—(AP)—A group of semi-snowbound families in the remote town of Marial appealed for help Monday in getting more provisions.

They wrote to the Red Cross and to newspapers, saying they needed feed for their stock, and asking to have a bulldozer open the snow-blocked road.

The town is not completely snowbound, since there is a trail open for horseback riding. First-class mail is delivered and supplies can be packed in and out. But the road is impassable for motor vehicles.

The Red Cross here and in Portland had not yet received the letter, but representatives conferred with officials of the Siskiyou National Forest. The road is on forest land.

H. V. Obye, Siskiyou supervisor, said his men would check the condition of the road and open it "if it isn't a bigger job than we have funds for."

Marial, a small community on the lower Rogue river in Curry county is always snowbound until late in the year.

"I do not of course enjoy being vilified by anybody, even by a motley crew of crackpots, professional informers, hysterics and ex-Communists who McCarthy would have you believe represent sound Americanism."

"My life and works speak for themselves. . . . Unlike McCarthy I have never been charged with a violation of the laws of the United States or the ethics of my profession."
