Pay Telephone Slugs Cost Company $14,174

MIAMI, Fla., May 1. — (AP) — Slugs used in pay telephones cost the Southern Bell Telephone company $14,174.50 last year. Charles Pierson Jr., of Atlanta, commercial supervisor for the company, said more slugs were dropped in pay stations in Miami than any other Florida city.

Phoney quarters cost the biggest loss. He said 53,203 lead quarters cost the company $13,300. During the year the company found 65,384 slugs of which 4,069 were nickel slugs and 4,712 were spurious dimes.

He said the company disregarded the slugs and simply absorbs the loss.

TRAIN KILLS MAN

COTTAGE GROVE, May 1. — (AP) — Ed Cardwell, about 80, of Divide, Ore., did not hear a Southern Pacific locomotive come up behind him as he walked along the railroad track five miles south of here Friday. A moment later he was struck and killed.

Homemakers' Festival Will Be Held In Roseburg

Speakers, group singing, special music and displays of work done will be featured at the Homemakers' festival in Roseburg on Friday, May 5, at the Methodist church.

All home extension units in Douglas county are taking part in the program and displays.

Homemakers who have never taken part in extension work are especially invited to attend the festival and see what is being done by women over the county. There is no charge.

The morning program begins with registration at 10 o'clock daylight saving time. Speakers will be Mrs. May Matthews, Roseburg school lunch coordinator, who will speak on "Homemaking in Korea," and Mrs. K. Ethel Lathrop, Central Point, whose topic is "Women-World-Wide Homemakers."

Other parts of the program include musical numbers from the senior high school quartet, a salad making demonstration by members of a 4-H cooking club, a skit by members of the Gunter home extension unit and group singing. Samples of work done in the Douglas county home extension units are on display in the windows of Carstens Furniture and Roseburg Electric.

These articles will be moved Friday to the Methodist church for the Homemakers' Festival, where large displays of work are being arranged.
