

Society and Clubs

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER and BETTY ALLEN

CHARTER MEMBERS of Beta Sigma Phi in Roseburg which was organized 14 years ago, who are still active in the organization are Mrs. Morris Bowker, Xi Epsilon chapter and Mrs. H. C. Church, sponsor of Alpha Theta. They attended the formal banquet Monday evening at Carl's Haven. Membership has grown from five to 100 in the past 14 years. Picture by Paul Jenkins.

Beta Sigma Phi Holds Formal Banquet May 1

Four Roseburg chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, Xi Epsilon, Mu, Alpha Theta, and Alpha Iota celebrated Beta Sigma Phi's nineteenth anniversary of Founder's Day Monday at a formal dinner meeting.

The tables were decorated with spring flowers, yellow and black programs, and yellow candles. The speaker's table was centered with a bouquet of yellow roses in a black vase and flanked by yellow toasts.

Mrs. Wayne Crooch was toastmistress for the evening and introduced special guests. Out-going president of each chapter introduced their sponsor and director and the newly-elected presidents.

All members recited the opening ritual and were welcomed by Mrs. Crooch. Mrs. H. C. Church gave an interesting talk on "Our Nineteenth Anniversary," and gave a brief resume of the history of Beta Sigma Phi in Roseburg.

Beta Sigma was founded April 30, 1931, and has since grown into an international organization. Mu chapter was started in Roseburg in 1936 with five members and a sponsor and director. Of these original members, Mrs. H. C. Church, sponsor of Alpha Theta, and Mrs. Morris Bowker of Xi Epsilon are still active members. Membership in Roseburg has increased to approximately 100 members and four chapters, with another Exemplar chapter soon to be organized.

Seated at the speaker's table

besides Mrs. Crooch and Mrs. Church were Mrs. Jack Wharton, who read "One World in Friendship," Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, who read the message from the sorority founder, Mr. Walter W. Ross; and Mrs. Clair K. Allen, who led the group in the Founder's Day pledge. Other honored guests were Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. J. P. Moteschenbacher and Mrs. Horace Berg, honorary member of Mu chapter.

The meeting was adjourned with the closing ritual. Others attending were the Mesdames Geo. Crocker, Eugene Kent, Don Gum, Jack Parriss, Jr., Daniel Dimick, Harry Harris, Verdun Boucock, Lawrence Wiley, Bruce Hetrick, Jim Finlay, Charles Hart, Charles Williamson, R. D. Rennie, Eugene Powell, Carl Wassom, Mary Black, Marcus Brown, Clarence DeCamp, Jack W. Cummins, Frank Rogan, Morris Bowker, Meredith Wilson, Warren Mack, Wm. Semmler, Ed Wyatt, R. W. Tozier, the Mesdames Ray C. Brown, Ted Shultz, John R. Gardner, Marion J. Spring, Harold Jokela, Herman Matsoff, Roy Stein, Frank Norton, Harrison Winston, Gene Kresson, Sid Moon, Jr., Bernard Saar, Jack Bathrick, Don Wilson, Craig Short, Robert Phillips, Sidney Domenico, L. E. Garrison, Henry Darby, Ernest Barker, Jr., Ralph Ohman, Frank Wickham, John Todd, John Killip, Benjamin DuFresne, Dallen Jones and Miss Mary Peterson.

MRS. FRED LOCKWOOD IS HOSTESS AT CHARMING LUNCHEON FOR CLUB

Mrs. Fred Lockwood entertained her bridge club at a charming twelve-thirty o'clock luncheon at her lovely home on East Douglas street Tuesday afternoon. Artistically arranged spring flowers decorated the serving table and formed the living room bouquets.

Members of the club present were Mrs. Alfred Anderson, Mrs. M. C. Bowker, Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark, Mrs. Ted Wirak, Mrs. L. K. Fies and Mrs. Bert Crook. Guests were Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

High scores for the afternoon's contract bridge play were won by Mrs. Fies and Mrs. Hallmark.

MRS. A. D. PARR IS HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB ON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. A. D. Parr entertained her bridge club at a delightful one o'clock dessert-luncheon Wednesday at her lovely home on East Lane street. Mixed spring flowers formed the decorations.

Guests and members enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Parr were: Mrs. Bert Crook, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. M. C. Bowker, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. S. J. Cooper, Mrs. C. M. McDermott, Mrs. Roy Cummins and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

High scores for the afternoon's contract bridge play were won by Mrs. Geddes and Mrs. Cooper.

Wedding Takes Place In Pasadena, California, April 23

Trued-Brown Wedding Party

The Messiah Lutheran Church in Pasadena, California, was the scene of one of the charming weddings of the season on Sunday afternoon, April 23rd, at two o'clock, when Miss Diane Brown, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Earle Brown, became the bride of Robert Ducret Trued, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Clarence Trued of Roseburg. The marriage rite was performed by the Rev. G. W. Henry, assisted by the Rev. Emer Engberg in the presence of 500 guests.

Preceding the ceremony Harley Pryor, baritone, sang "Day of Days," composed by the bridegroom's father. He was accompanied at the organ by Ramona Ulrich-Strech, who also played the wedding marches. As the couple knelt at the altar Mr. Pryor sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white brocade lace over satin, with full length train. Her nylons finger tip veil was held in place by a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and Cecil Brunner roses. Her only ornament was a double string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Mrs. Freeman Saylor, matron of honor, wore a gown of orchid color frosted organly with a halo of yellow roses to match her bouquet. Bridesmaids Shirley Burgess and Patricia Cannon wore frosted organly gowns of green and yellow respectively, and carried bouquets of orchid color carnations with halos to match. Nancy Ann Newman and Susan Hart, flower girls, wore long dresses of powder blue frosted organly, and sprinkled pink rose petals before the bride. Kenneth Nelson was best man, and ushers were M. Clifton Hewlett, H. Reed Stevens Jr., Roger Nelson and Robert Duffy. A reception was held in the Chapel next to the Church.

The bride was graduated from Pasadena City College in 1948. For the past year she has been assistant buyer in the china division of the Nash department store in Pasadena. Mr. Trued, after serving in the army air corps during the war, completed his education at the University of Southern California, majoring in business administration. He has since been employed with the Leo F. Young accounting firm in Roseburg. The young couple will reside at 315 Chadwick street in Roseburg. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. S. Clarence Trued, of Roseburg, went south to attend the wedding.

Ritual Of Jewels Given Eight Chapter Members

An impressive candlelight ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Harrison E. Winston Monday evening at Carl's Haven when the formal ritual of jewels ceremony was given eight members of Mu chapter, Beta Sigma Phi.

Receiving their pins were Mrs. George Crocker, Mrs. Dan Dimick, Mrs. Henry Darby, Mrs. Harold Jokela, Mrs. Eugene Kent, Mrs. Knute Kershner, Mrs. Herman Matsoff and Mrs. Roy Stein.

New officers of Mu chapter were installed by the retiring president, Mrs. Winston. The incoming officers included: Mrs. Jack Bathrick, president; Mrs. Don Gum, vice-president; Mrs. Roy Stein, recording secretary; Mrs. Eugene Kent, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Knute Kershner, treasurer.

Completing their year's work as officers of the chapter were Mrs.

Winston president; Mrs. Dallen Jones, vice-president; Mrs. Jack Bathrick, recording secretary; Mrs. William Semmler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Norton, treasurer.

A gavel guard and gift were presented Mrs. Winston for her fine work as president during the past year.

Attending the ceremonies were the Mesdames Jack Wharton, Clair K. Allen, Horace Berg, Harrison Winston, Dallen Jones, Jack Bathrick, Wm. Semmler, Frank Norton, Don Gum, Roy Stein, Eugene Kent, Knute Kershner, Wayne Crooch, Jim Finlay, Carl Wassom, Mary Black.

Also the Mesdames Herman Matsoff, Henry Darby, Dan Dimick, Benj. O. DuFresne, Ed Wyatt, Geo. Crocker, Harold Jokela, Ted Schultz, Bruce Hetrick, John Killip and Miss Mary Peterson.

MISS MARGARET JOYCE HONORED AT FAREWELL PARTY WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Miss Margaret Joyce, chief dietitian at the Roseburg Veterans hospital, who is leaving the middle of May for Rome, Italy, on a trip was honored at a delightful farewell party Wednesday evening given by Mrs. Paul Jenkins and Miss Kay Ward at the former's attractive home in Laurelwood. Beautiful bouquets of mixed spring blossoms decorated the rooms.

Canasta was in play during the social hour with Paul Jenkins winning high score and Miss Naomi Scott receiving low score.

Later Mrs. Jenkins and Miss Ward served refreshments to Miss Joyce, guest of honor, and Mrs. E. H. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, Miss Ruth Bloom, Mrs. Vivian Proban and her sister, Mrs. John Blankenbaker, who is visiting here from Oklahoma; Miss Naomi Scott, Miss Colette Langenberg, Father Leopold and Paul Jenkins.

Attends Youth Conference

Miss Anne Mellis

Miss Anne Mellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Mellis, 306 Glen street, Roseburg, has returned to her home, following a trip to Cleveland, Ohio, as the Oregon delegate to the Youth Conference held April 18-21. Miss Mellis left April 15th and returned home April 24.

She was selected as local youth entry for delegate from Oregon to attend the conference. She was then selected as the Oregon delegate out of a group of sixty-seven girls by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Oregon Conference.

Miss Mellis was accompanied by Mrs. Henry Otto of Salem and they traveled via the Empire Builder, Great Northern, and New York Central to Cleveland and returned west via the Northern Pacific lines. About seventy-five girls from the United States were in attendance at this Youth Conference, which was held in conjunction with the Third General Assembly of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church.

Miss Mellis left Friday, May 5th, for Corvallis to give her report before the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Oregon in session in that city May 4-5th.

BETA SIGMA PHI SPONSORS, directors, presidents and vice presidents in attendance at the formal Banquet at Carl's Haven Monday evening included, left to right, Mrs. J. P. Moteschenbacher, Mrs. Jack Wharton, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. Claire K. Allen, Mrs. Jack

Bathrick, Mrs. Ted Schultz, Mrs. H. C. Berg, Mrs. Dallen Jones, Mrs. Marcus Brown, Mrs. Frank Wickham, Mrs. Ralph Ohman, Mrs. R. W. Tozier, Mrs. Don Gum, Mrs. Charles Hart and Mrs. John Todd. Picture by Paul Jenkins, News-Review Photographer.

RITUAL OF JEWELS CEREMONY was given Monday following the formal Banquet at Carl's Haven by Mu chapter. Honored, left to right, were Mrs. Harold Jokela, Mrs. Henry Darby, Mrs.

Eugene Kent, Mrs. George Crocker, Mrs. Roy Stein, Mrs. Daniel Dimick and Mrs. Herman Matsoff. (Not in picture was Mrs. Knute Kershner. Picture by Paul Jenkins.