THIEVES STEAL SAFE
SPOKANE, May 10 (AP)—Thieves went through a transom of a downtown shop Sunday night and carried away a safe holding more than $5,000 worth of watches and jewelry.

Police said the theft was reported by Tom W. Burns and Frank Sacco, owners of the Best Jewelry and Watch Repair shop in the Sherwood building.

They said the safe weighing between 75 and 80 pounds held a large number of watches, five of them diamond studded.

KDND DIAL-LOG

AROUND THE STUDIO: Psychiatrist from the Veterans hospital transcribed an authentic five-minute hypnosis routine Monday morning, complete with patient . . . will use it in his treatments at the VA playing it back to patients . . . not for hypnosis, but as an inducement for relaxation. Probably the first time a KRNR mike has picked up such a dissertation . . . but who knows, perhaps by 1984, such things on the air-waves will be far from an oddity . . . maybe a replacement for programs like "Sleepytime Tales" . . . later to be replaced by chloroform . . .

Replacing "Chicago Theater of the Air" Sunday night (10:30-11:30 p.m.) one time only, will be a special documentary-type program entitled "The Holy Year in Rome." The program will be based on material recorded in Rome, Lourdes and Paris. To be heard on the program will be Pope Pius XII, the Sistine choir, orphan singers from Lourdes, description of the Papal procession, interior of the Vatican and catacombs beneath it. Interviews with American-Catholic students at college in Rome, and an introduction by His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman (Sunday, 10:30-11:30 p.m.)

TONIGHT: "Non-political" is the pitch for tonight's address by President Harry S. Truman (8:00-8:30 p.m.) . . . transcribed direct from point of origin in Pendleton, Oregon. Definitely political in nature is the transcribed 15-minute talk by Wayne Morse (8:30-8:45 p.m.) . . . On "Music You Want" (10:15-10:45 p.m.) Verder's "Aida," "Delius," "Walk to the Paradise Gardens," and Dukas' "Sorcerer's Apprentice," will be heard. "Aida" will be performed by the Boston "Pops" orchestra; "Walk to the Paradise Gardens" by the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, and "Sorcerer's Apprentice" by the New York Philharmonic orchestra.

commission on organization of the executive branch of the government by former President Herbert Hoover.

Farley said he believed President Truman has profited from Mr. Hoover's findings and said: "The budget presented some months ago represents a great improvement over the budget presented a year ago. It shows for the first time the cost of the various projects, set up in such a way as to indicate their total cost."

Farley paid a tribute to Hoover, saying, "while some of us may have disagreed with him when he was president, none of us can question his sincerity, his patriotism, and his vast knowledge of government and public affairs."

Operetta Scheduled At Junior High Auditorium

"The Outlaw King," a Robin Hood operetta, will be presented at the Roseburg junior high school auditorium Friday, May 12, at 8 p.m. Miss Marlene Jewell, publicity manager, announced today. The operetta, based upon the well-known story of Robin Hood and King Richard, will be put on by the entire student body. About 100 students are actually in the cast of production, directed by Mrs. W. W. Woodward. Most of scenery, which Miss Jewell says is very impressive, has been made by the industrial arts and art classes of the junior high. The costumes were made by the home economics classes. The play will be in three acts.

War Tank's Inventor Summoned By Death

SYDNEY, Australia, May 10 (AP)—Lancelot De Mole, who invented a military tank in 1912 but had his plans pigeonholed by the British war office, died here May 6 after a four-year illness. He was 70.

De Mole received no monetary reward for his invention. Later the war recognized him as the inventor of the tank and he was made a commander of the British empire in recognition of his invention.
