Wife's Ankle Broken As Rancher Ropes Colt

KLAMATH FALLS, — (AP) — Catlemen convention in Klamath Falls got a kick out of this story: At Dorris, Calif., south of Klamath Falls, a rancher was out in his corral trying to rope a frisky colt. His wife was helping.

The loop settled over the animal's head in fine fashion but the colt circled around the corral and dragged the rope under the woman's feet, flipping her into the air.

As a result, Mrs. Nellis Menges, the ranch wife, is hospitalized here with a broken ankle.

Policemen Honor Saint Designated By Pope Pius

VATICAN CITY — (AP) — Pope Pius XII has named the Archangel Michael the patron saint of policemen.

In the Biblical account, the archangel Michael led the loyal angels in the battle against Satan and his followers, fought in heaven.

RIVERSIDE PTA REPORTS HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Under the very able leadership of Mrs. M. M. Sandall, Riverside PTA is nearing the close of a most successful year. The organization has 317 PTA members and 100 percent membership by teachers and also belongs to the Douglas County PTA Council. The association has sponsored three youth groups and a Room Mothers club was organized.

Proceeds from the smorgasbord and open house held during the year were used for purchasing a record player and public address combination, film strip, portable radio, added funds to furnish the teachers room and attachments for the mixer in the lunchroom. Contributions were made to the tuition and scholarship funds and to the National PTA building fund. The association sent two delegates to the state PTA convention.

The spring festival will be held at the schoolhouse the evening of May 16 at eight o'clock on the blacktop. All of the children of the school will participate in the festival, which will carry out the theme, "Building of America," and will be presented in play and dance form.

Riverside PTA has expressed appreciation to all parents, groups and organizations in cooperating to make the last year so successful.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS ELECT DELEGATES TO NATIONAL CONVENTION

Roseburg chapter, American Gold Star Mothers Inc., held a business meeting last week to elect delegates to the national convention in June at Detroit, Mich. Mrs. Olive Clarke, president, was elected first delegate with Mrs. Esco Johnson as alternate. Mary Lou Newhouse was elected delegate with Iva Van Noy, alternate.

On Friday, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Alice Harrison, Mrs. Esco Johnson, Iva Van Noy and Mary Lou Newhouse went to Medford to assist in installing the chapter. They were overnight guests of Gold Star Mothers of Medford.
