

Yoncalla Couple Wed In April Ceremony At Church Of Christ

Spring blossoms banked the altar of the Yoncalla Church of Christ church, Wednesday evening, April 19 for the wedding of Miss Donna Lloyd and Jerry Means. A candle-light service was read by the Rev. James Smith, pastor of the church before a large group of relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lloyd and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Means, all of Yoncalla.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a pale blue satin gown fashioned with a cool neckline and net yoke. Her finger-length net veil was held in place with a nylon crown. She carried an arm bouquet of sweet-heart roses.

Attending her as matron of honor was her aunt, Mrs. Max Main. She wore a pale yellow taffeta gown and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of rosebuds and carnations. The bridesmaids were Miss Colma Means, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Robert Lane.

Miss Means wore a pale yellow taffeta gown and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of yellow daffodils and white carnations. Mrs. Lane's gown was of pale green taffeta and she held a nosegay of white carnations.

Little Laura Ethel Meston, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She preceded the wedding party down the aisle scattering rose petals.

Donald Meyers was best man. Ushers were Jimmie Lloyd, brother of the bride and Bobbie Means, brother of the bridegroom. The bride's mother wore a black afternoon frock with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

The wedding party approached the altar to traditional wedding music played by Mrs. Arne Bjork. She also played incidental numbers prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Andy Curtwright and Mrs. Carl Conway, aunts of the bride, sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "I Love You Truly."

The candelabra were lighted by Miss Joanne Brant, wearing pale orchid taffeta; and Miss Joyce Potter, in light green taffeta.

A reception followed in the Sunday school rooms. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple, was first cut by the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Dora Benner completed the serving.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Charles Vian, Mrs. Andy Curtwright, Mrs. Carl Conway, Mrs. Meston, Mrs. Wilford Vian and Mrs. Lloyd Wise. Mrs. Donald Meyers had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a gray suit with white accessories. They have taken up residence at the Kruse apartments following a wedding trip to Odell lake and McCredie springs.
