Sidelights.. Here and There

Mother's Day is being observed by many civic and fraternal organizations Sunday and during the coming week. Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia was founder of this one Sunday in the year when all thanks and memories return to mother. Roseburg OES honored mothers and grandmothers at their last lodge meeting. Gladys Wiley and Ramona Hampton came dressed in frilly black costumes of the Gay 90's, complete with the long forgotten bustles and tiny umbrellas. Ray Hampton acted as MC during the program. The OES choir sang a number and Donna Jean Ellison, daughter of an OES member, Frances Ellison, presented two piano selections. Awards in the beauty contest for grandmothers went to Gladys Wiley, best dressed; Mrs. E. A. Petty, oldest child and grandchild; Mrs. Joe Wikoff, newest grand-mother; Mrs. Patricia Foster, youngest mother. Several events will honor mothers Sunday. Wives of Elks are holding an afternoon tea at the Elks temple. Alpha Iota chapter, Beta Sigma Phi has planned a Mother's day tea at the Earl Garrison residence. Monday evening the Legion auxiliary will honor Gold Star mothers. Wednesday afternoon The Ten-mile Ladies club honored mothers of the community who were 75 years or older. Nine were special guests and of this number two were born in Douglas county. Mrs. Emma Smith, who is 83 was born at Winston and Mrs. De la Howard, 81, at Olalla. A bouquet of flowers was given the oldest mother, Mrs. Minnie Rathkey, who can count 86 years and her birthplace as Horens, Denmark. Roseburg friends of the veteran traveler Helen Casey will be interested to learn that she was enjoying the beauties of the Lake of Capri these past few warm spring days. Many residents of Roseburg took the opportunity to attend the May fete at the high school Friday afternoon. Seeing so many youth participate in the fete was indeed an inspiring sight. Queen Joanne Taylor ruled with a gracious hand. BADOURA CLUB HAS DESSERT-SUPPER MEETING ON TUESDAY EVENING Badoura club, Daughters of the Nile met Tuesday evening at a seven-thirty o'clock dessert-supper at the home of Mrs. T. B. Virden with Mrs. R. B. Rhodes and Mrs. L. L. Post as assisting hostesses. Mrs. Ethel Olson gave a most interesting illustrated talk on ceramics, which was greatly enjoyed by the group. Mrs. Earl M. The Fable of the "Suspicious Graduate"

ONCE upon a time there was a graduate named Henry who was very suspicious of his watch. The picture above shows Henry looking suspiciously at his watch which you can see is at least an hour slow! Henry's watch has been leading him in this merry game of "guess what time it is" ever since he got it for graduation last June. Henry's parents, who gave him this watch, weren't too particular about WHERE they bought it. One store was as good as another to them. So here's Henry with a pretty watch that won't keep time—a watch that is pretty and shiny because it has been in the jewelry store for repair more of the time than it has been on Henry's wrist.

Moral: It is better to buy a sundial than to buy a watch without good service behind it... ELGIN, HAMILTON, LONGINES, WYLER, GRUEN and other fine watches from 29.75. Advertisement for a jewelry store with a list of watch brands and a small illustration of a watch.
