Convict Wins Freedom On 'Severity' Claim
LITTLE VALLEY, N.Y., May 16.—(AP)—A 55-year-old man has won his freedom after 17 years and 12 days in prison by convincing a judge that a 30-year sentence for robbery was too severe.
James Higgins was convicted of first-degree robbery in 1933. He was sentenced May 3 of that year as a previous felony offender.
Yesterday, Cattaraugus County Judge Joseph A. Nevins upheld Higgins' contention that the indictment against him did not establish any previous felony conviction, and therefore the 30-year sentence was too harsh.
Nevins imposed a new sentence — 15 years to a maximum of 17 years and 12 days — just the time Higgins has served in Auburn state prison.

Strange Facts about Water
Water makes the rainbow
Nature's most colorful manifestation of water is the rainbow. Countless drops of water, hanging in the sky, act as minute prisms, bending the sun's rays of varying wave length, and reflecting their spectral colors in a gorgeous arc.
WATER LENDS BRILLIANCE TO BEER
All important to the flavor of fine beer are its brilliance and effervescent sparkle. The constant delicate flavor, aroma and brilliance of famous Olympia Beer are due to the rare brewing water from the Olympia Brewing Company's subterranean wells at Tumwater, Washington.
