

Lions Club Will Aid In Clean-Up At Camp Tye

Sunday will be a work day at Camp Tye. Several members of the Roseburg Lions club are going to the camp that day and combine work with pleasure. They will do cleanup work and have a picnic. It is understood here that several Drain Lions will also be there for the day.

The club at its meeting last night set the date of Nov. 16 for the annual banquet honoring the Roseburg senior high school football team. Norman Seifarth is in charge.

A letter was read from Frank von Borstel, former county 4-H club agent and a Lions club member, who is now studying in New Zealand on a special exchange student arrangement.

Dr. L. M. Lehrbach attended the meeting for the first time since his return from Rochester, Minn., where he underwent surgery at the Mayo clinic.

Glenn Clute and Cliff Saar were named captains of two teams in an attendance contest.

The program was provided by Tom Pargeter, who showed a motion picture film, entitled "Underwriter's Label," sponsored by the Roseburg Association of Insurance Agents. The film showed the tests made by the underwriter's laboratories before approval is given equipment, which is supposed to be fire resistant, or before appliances are declared safe for use.

Pargeter, a member of the Kiwanis club, also presented a proposal for the club's consideration that a council of youth activities be set up embracing all service organizations, in order that the efforts of each group might be consolidated for more effective operation.

Activians Name Delegates To District Meeting

The Roseburg Active club will have three delegates at the annual district 3 convention, to be held in Coos Bay, starting tonight and continuing through Sunday.

The delegates include Dick Gilman, Arlo Jackin and Kenneth Atterbury. Two or three other members expected to attend some of the sessions.

Gilman is being sponsored for the office of lieutenant governor. The Active club Thursday morning heard a report from a Chairman Kenneth Atterbury on the amateur program presented Tuesday night. The undertaking was a financial success, he said. Funds are to be used for child welfare projects of the club. Plans are to have a second such program in the near future, at a date to be announced.

Each of the credit or success of the show was given to Mrs. Atterbury, who first conceived the program as a club project, and did a great deal of the work in selecting the talent and arranging the program. She was assisted by Mrs. Lowell Atterbury.

The News-Review account of the program Wednesday failed to acknowledge the performance of guest star Martin McClay Jr., whose concluding two numbers

YMCA Speaker At Rotary Lauds Korean Nation, Urges Continuance Of U. S. Help

The need for aid to Korea—"democracy's forgotten front"—was explained to Roseburg Rotarians Thursday noon by George A. Fitch, world services representative of the Young Men's Christian association.

"It is of the greatest importance to continue our aid to Korea in every way and form," the YMCA official maintained. "Korea is one of the most important bastions of democracy today," he said, "and we must help maintain it."

The veteran of 37 years in the Orient told his audience of the important part the YMCA is playing, and will continue to play with the aid of America, in Korean welfare. Fitch pointed out that workers as well as money are needed to do the job. Actually, he said, the Koreans have shown that they can support their own activities if they are aided by United States supervisory personnel.

Before backgrounding his listeners with a short summary of past events in Korea, Fitch told how he has, "in two years in the little known" country, seen more accomplishments than any other place in his entire career. Before that time, he spent most of his 37 years of service in China.

Pointing out the need for continued aid to Korea by the U.S., Fitch told of the precarious situation in the divided country. North of the 38th parallel is the Red-trained and Red-directed army of North Korea. South of the line stands the U.S.-trained but Korean-directed South Korean army. Thousands have been killed in skirmishes along this border, Fitch stated, but there has been no actual invasion by either side. The division of the country was granted Russia at the Yalta conference; a very bad blunder, in Fitch's opinion.

The north half of Korea produces 90 percent of the power and 85 percent of most minerals, but the southern part is mainly agricultural. In Fitch's opinion, it is

Gambler's Heavy Rake-Off Bared In Grand Jury Probe

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Assistant district attorney Alfred H. Scotti charges that big-time gambler Frank Erickson has a financial finger in a $885,000 gambling pie dished up in a fancy Florida resort.

Scotti said in court that Erickson gets a cut from a gaming room operated at the swank Colonial Inn, located near Hallandale, Fla., between Miami and Hollywood. Hallandale is the train stop for the gulfstream race track.

The Florida establishment netted a profit of $685,538 in one year for Erickson and his Florida and Detroit, Mich., owners, Scotti said.

He declared Erickson's cut of five percent netted him $34,276 for the period.

The assistant district attorney said the information was revealed in records seized May 2 in Erickson's Park Avenue offices.

Erickson, admitted operator of a coast-to-coast $12,500,000-a-year bookmaking business, recently appeared before a Senate investigating committee.

Records seized in the raid may be held for scrutiny by the district attorney's office, general sessions court Judge John A. Mullen ruled yesterday.

A grand jury has been probing Erickson's gambling activities since the raid on his office.

Sophomore Will See His Son Receive Diploma

NEWARK, Del., May 19.—(AP)—A 49-year-old sophomore will see his son get a diploma at the University of Delaware's annual commencement exercises June 6.

Receiving his sheepskin in business administration will be Frank H. Horner Jr., 24½ of Wilmington, Del., a navy veteran of World War 2.

Witnessing the ceremony will be his father, Frank H. Horner Sr., a sophomore in the school of education. The elder Horner also is a veteran of the last world war.

Returning from service with General Patton's third army, the elder Horner said he decided to enter college because he was "fed up with being nice to people" in his old job as a grocery clerk.

He thinks teaching will be better because "you don't have to worry about pupils taking their business to the school on the next corner."

Both the armory and Naval Reserve headquarters at the county fairgrounds will be the scene of "open houses" as local service units strut their stuff. New equipment used by the Army and National Guard will be shown at the armory, plus a regular National Guard drill period, scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday.

The Roseburg Naval Reserve will display the radio and radar equipment for which the local units are famed. All equipment will be in operation during the open house, scheduled to last throughout Saturday and beginning immediately after the conclusion of the parade.

Official approval by the city was issued today in a proclamation from Mayor Al Flegel, recognizing local efforts in the nationwide observance.

And in the nation's capital, President Truman will sound the keynote by appearing with Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson at a banquet of military men—a session expected to stress the strength and unity theme.

National Program Listed According to an Associated Press dispatch, tomorrow's nationwide observance of Armed Forces Day will be the first of its kind. Here before the Army, Navy and Air Forces have sponsored separate "days" of their own. The change reflects unification of the three services under the Defense department.

Crack units of all the armed forces will pass in review before the President, Johnson and other national leaders in a mammoth military parade in the capital tomorrow morning.

Eight big B-36 Intercontinental bombers from Fort Worth, Texas, will mark the day by taking different routes across the country, one passing over each of the 48 state capitals and more than 250 cities and military installations.

The Navy will display ships of many types in the principal ports along the coasts and the Great Lakes. These ships, like shore installations of the Army, the Navy, the Air Force and the Marine Corps, will observe "open house" for the public.

The military departments also will cooperate with civilian observances in many communities by sending troops, bands, ships and planes to take part.

Following the parade in Washington tomorrow morning, Johnson will leave for New York to address a banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria tomorrow night.

Vice President Barkley will speak at a meeting in the Roosevelt hotel in New Orleans tomorrow evening, and high military officials will speak today, and tomorrow at meetings in many other sections.

BUDGET SUGGESTION LOS ANGELES, — (AP)—How to balance the budget, Japanese style. First, says Hayato Ikeda, you reduce government subsidies to industry. Then you lop 250,000 off a payroll of 1,500,000.

Ikeda, Japanese cabinet member credited with balancing his country's budget for the first time in 20 years, gave that recipe here. He was en route home after a visit to Washington to study budgetary measures.
