

Lillard-Crocker Wedding Is Event of May 7th

Miss Betty Lou Crocker, daughter of Mrs. Peyton Oederkirk of Roseburg, became the bride of Daun C. Lillard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lillard, of this city Sunday, May 7, at St. George's Episcopal church. Rev. Alfred Tyson performed the ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of two hundred guests.

White calla lilies were used on the altar. Other decorations were four large baskets of spirea. Leroy Hiatt sang, "O Perfect Love," and the "Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. R. B. Hirsch. The candles were lighted by Wayne and Larry Henninger acting as acolyte boys.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Oederkirk, was lovely in an off-the-shoulder gown of white nylon marquisette with chantilly lace bodice and matching lace edging the peplum. Her white net veil was waist length and was held in place with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

Miss Betty Smith of Corvallis, godmother of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of orchid nylon marquisette with off-the-shoulder neckline and an orchid headdress. She carried white gladioli tied with orchid ribbon.

Miss Christina Trapalis, Miss Yvonne Hiatt, Miss Pat Sheehy and Mrs. Jack Rodgers were bridesmaids and wore green dotted Swiss off-the-shoulder gowns with flowered hats to match. They carried pink gladioli tied with green and white ribbons. Anne Saunders was flower girl and wore a gown of pink dotted Swiss. Her headdress was of pink carnations. She wore matching pink gloves. Timmy Kash was ring bearer.

Kelsey Hobday Jr. was best man and Wesley Ashworth, Pat Sullivan, Don Gerretsen and Dale Lander were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue suit with pink accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a chartreuse colored suit with pink accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink carnations.

A wedding reception followed in the parish hall with St. George's Episcopal Guild members in charge. The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a heart-shaped picture of a bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Leroy Hiatt cut the cake and Miss Irene Trapalis and Miss Carrie Miller served the punch. Gifts were in charge of Miss Ann Carte, and the guest book was in charge of Miss Audrie Roselund.

Out-of-town guests present were: Mrs. L. C. Batten of Waldport; Mrs. E. H. Erngquist and son, Leslie Howell, of Woodenville, Wash.; Mrs. J. B. Fuller and daughter, Marilyn; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jendro and Miss Nancy Bailey, of Longview, Wash.; Mrs. H. C. Hanson of Norma, N. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Balfour of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shoenhard of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Shafer of Eureka, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilkerson of McMinnville.

For traveling the bride chose a navy suit with navy and white straw hat with a veil. Her accessories were navy and white. Following a honeymoon to San Francisco and up the coast through the Redwoods, Mr. and Mrs. Lillard are now at home to their friends on the Keasey road, route 2, box 123.

The bride has lived in Roseburg all of her life. She was graduated from Roseburg senior high school in 1946; attended Oregon State college and is affiliated with Sigma Kappa sorority. She is a member of KRNR radio station staff. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg high school in 1946 and served two years with the U. S. navy. He is employed by Umpqua Valley Appliance.
