JANE ELLSWORTH IS COMPLIMENTED AT MANY SHOWER PARTIES

Miss Jane Ellsworth, lovely daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, who became the bride of Thomas Francis McKenna, today, May 20, in Washington, D. C., has been the inspiration for a host of showers and parties given by Congressional friends and of particular interest were the Oregon ones, which included:

Mrs. Guy Cordon and Mrs. Wayne Morse jointly entertained at a large luncheon in the attractive Morse apartment. The afternoon was spent opening "packable" shower gifts. Guests were Oregon and Congressional friends. Mrs. Lowell Stockman, wife of Representative Stockman of Oregon, entertained at a large luncheon at her lovely home. It was a lingerie shower and guests were members of the bridal party and Congressional wives.

Mrs. Walter Norblad, wife of Representative Norblad of Oregon, had a luncheon at the Mayflower Hotel. Guests were bridal attendants and Mrs. Cordon, Mrs. Ellsworth and Mrs. Dittmann (formerly Mary Margaret Ellsworth).

Mrs. E. F. Tandy, well known former Roseburg resident, gave a linen shower and luncheon in her beautifully appointed apartment. Guests were Washington friends and Congressional wives.

Miss Virginia Nicholls, formerly of Portland, Oregon, gave a surprise miscellaneous shower at the Congressional Hotel. Guests were friends, who worked with Jane in Washington.

Miss Diana Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Powers, of Coos Bay and who is now in Washington, gave a luncheon at the Congressional Hotel. Guests included bridal attendants and a group of young Washington friends of the bride.

Other Oregonians at these parties were Mrs. Joseph Carson of Portland, Mrs. Charles Hulten, formerly of Eugene, Mrs. Carl Shoemaker, Mrs. William O. Douglas, Miss Grace Townsend, Miss Phrene Miller, Miss Marjorie Christianson and Mrs. Harold Say.

VOICE STUDENTS PRESENT RECITAL AT TEACHER'S HOME

A group of voice students were presented in recital by Mrs. Charles Brand Tuesday evening, May 16 at her home. The recital had unusual appeal for the voices were young and fresh but the tone was pure and true without strain.

The accompanist was Mrs. Sam Warg. Later in the evening the girls assisted Mrs. Brand in serving refreshments to their parents and friends.

Following is the program:
Lary Ann Ebersole—"Juanita,"
"When I Grow Too Old to Dream,"
Molly Fullerton—"Green Cathedral," Hahn; "Without a Song," Youmans.

Marian Jones—"Estrellita," Ponce; "Slumber Song," Gretchen-aninov.

De Ette Gilkeson—"Star Eyes," "Morning," Speaks.

Sue Stearns—"The Lord's Prayer," Malotte; "Teens," Rasbach.

Roberta Bailey—"Thanks Be to God," Dickson; "Ave Maria," Gounod.

Nancy Allen—"Songs My Mother Taught Me," Dvorak; "Clorinda," Martin.
