DiMaggio Leads Yankees To Twin Win Via 8 RBIs

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
All's well with the New York Yankees now that Joe DiMaggio is back on the team. Apparently all both Dimag and the Yankees needed was a change of scenery.

A sweep of the doubleheader in Cleveland yesterday, 14-5 and 12-4, established the world champions more securely than ever in first place. With a record of 20-4, they're better off than they were a year ago today when they had a 19-10 mark.

Washington's 6-2 triumph over Detroit and Chicago's 4-3 victory over Boston after the Red Sox had won the opener, 7-0, gave the Yanks a two and a half game lead over the second place Tigers and a three-game edge over the Red Sox.

When the Bronxites left the usually friendly confines of the Yankee stadium a week ago Sunday they were in second place and DiMaggio was in the midst of one of the worst batting slumps of his career. He was batting .225.

Once on the road, DiMaggio began belting like the jolter of old and the Yankees wasted little time climbing to the top. They've won six straight with one more to play in Cleveland and two in Detroit.

The leading figure in the Yankee surge has been DiMaggio. In the six games Joe collected nine hits in 23 times at bat for a batting mark of .391.

The Brooklyn Dodgers' lead in the National league was cut to a half game when Philadelphia's Phillies divided a doubleheader with the St. Louis Cardinals while the Cincinnati Reds were nosing out the Browns, 10-9. The Cardinals needed a triple play to win the first game, 6-3, but the Phils came back to win the nightcap, 4-2, on Andy Seminick's two-run homer in the last of the ninth.

Boston's Braves moved into a third place tie with the Cards, winning two from the Cubs 3-2 and 4-3. Pittsburgh moved past the Cubs into fifth place, sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from the Giants in New York, 4-2 and 8-6.

Philadelphia and St. Louis split an American league twin bill, the A's winning the second game, 8-3 after the Browns had won the opener, 11-6.

DiMaggio enjoyed his biggest day of the year yesterday as he batted in eight runs in the twin bill. A crowd of 79,570, third largest ever to see a major league game, saw Ed Lapat and Allie Reynolds each win his fourth game for the Yankees. Bob Feller and Early Wynn were the losers.

Washington State college, winner four successive years of the northern division coast conference baseball title, squares off this Friday against Southern California in the first game of the Pacific Coast title playoff.

The best-of-three series will be played in Pullman with the second game set for Saturday and the third, if necessary, Monday.

The Cougars closed out their division campaign Saturday with a 9-6 win over Idaho. The Vandal loss, coupled with Oregon's 7-4 victory over Oregon State, dropped Idaho into the cellar behind OSC. Oregon wound up the year in third place three and a half games behind Washington.

Stojack Topples The Great Atlas

By CHUCK PLUMMER
Frank Stojack pitted his brains and skill against The Great Atlas' brawn and handed the strongman his first wrestling defeat, except by disqualification, Saturday night at the armory.

It was an exciting, rough and tumble battle until Stojack applied his famous airplane spin in the second fall. Atlas won the first fall with a full nelson, after a series of headlocks. Stojack was taking a beating in the second until Atlas shoved him into the ropes, with the purpose of dishing out a body slam on the rebound, but Stojack ducked under Atlas' legs, and got the airplane spin. He spun Atlas around 36 times, reversing direction three times.

After the five minute rest period between falls, Atlas begged for an extra two minutes, because of dizziness, but Stojack refused on the basis that Atlas wouldn't give him extra time after the first fall to recuperate from the full nelson. So Atlas decided to play it smart and ducked outside the ropes until referee Elton Owen counted to nine. Then he came in the ring, but went out again for a nine count. Owen got wise to his tricks and started a faster count, and as Atlas protested, Stojack grabbed his legs and spun him around in a flying dutchman and won with a boston crab.

In the opener, popular Eddie Williams gained another shot at Jack O'Reilly's title with a two-out-of-three fall win over meanie Karl Gray. Williams took the first fall with a rolling jack-knife and a body press. Gray won the second with a surfboard, and Williams won the final with his popular "Highland Fling."

OSC Takes Golf Title

CORVALLIS, May 22 (AP)—Paced by Dick Yost's two-under-par 140, Oregon State college won the northern division coast conference golf title here Saturday.

Yost's superb shooting gave the Beavers a surprise one-stroke win over the favored Oregon Ducks. OSC's four-man team made 591 strokes to Oregon's 592.

Washington was third with 604, Washington State, 626, Montana 651, and Idaho 665.
