

Russian People Want War To End Their Oppression

BOSTON, May 25 — (AP) — The people behind the iron curtain are praying for war between the United States and Russia to deliver them from oppression, according to Rep. Walter H. Judd (R-Minn.).

Judd told the Northern Baptist convention last night that in five eastern European countries he visited within the Soviet sphere he found the people have "such a hatred for their oppressors that they are praying for war."

A medical missionary in China before the last war, Judd belittled reports that Secretary General Trygve Lie of the United Nations went to Moscow to try to negotiate peace in the cold war.

"There is no way to end the cold war but to win it," the Minnesotan said.

The Rev. Dr. G. Pitt Beers of New York City, executive secretary of the American Baptist Home Mission society, told the 3,000 delegates that un-Christian conduct by Americans handicaps the church abroad.

He said that un-Christian conduct means "hanging chains on our missionaries' hands and weights on their feet."

"When a nation becomes the wealthiest and most powerful in the world," he said, "its character becomes a matter of world interest."

Our evil deeds are heralded abroad with glee and even our good deeds receive some recognition."

He said that when the country acts "christianly," it gives "our missionaries wings."

He deplored what he described as "acts of racial injustice." Such conduct, he said, fetters the activities of American church and medical missionaries in far flung areas.

Dad's Fishing Alibi Leads To Fire Alarm

AMESBURY, Mass., May 25. — (AP) — The fish story Alexander Waskiewicz told his two young sons caused a false alarm of fire. Waskiewicz returned empty handed from a fishing trip yesterday. He told the disappointed three and four-year-old boys he left his fish in a red box up the street.

They shuffled off to find the box. When they came to a red one on a pole, one youngster boomed the other who pulled the knob. It was a fire alarm box.

Fire Chief George A. MacDougall suggested Waskiewicz improve his fishing, luck or find a new alibi.

(NEA Telephoto) QUITS U. N. POST — Vladimír Hondek (above), top Czechoslovakian delegate to the United Nations at Lake Success, N. Y., quit his post with a charge that Russia has destroyed his country's freedom. He sent President Truman a letter asking for political asylum in the U. S. for himself, his wife and their two children.

TV 'Talent' Swindle Leads To Indictments

LOS ANGELES, May 25 — (AP) — Accused of swindling hundreds of men and women of from $50 to $100 apiece, 17 persons were indicted by a federal grand jury after its investigation of television "talent" schools.

Assistant U.S. Atty. Ray Kinnison said yesterday the defendants picked names from telephone books and advised people that TV talent scouts had spotted them. They are charged with mail fraud.

Tox Dodging Charges Hit 3 More In Kansas City

WASHINGTON, May 25 — (AP) — The Justice department today announced three more income tax evasion indictments have been returned by a Kansas City federal grand jury investigating crime conditions in that city.

The department said the indictments named Walter L. Rainey, John Mangiaracina and Sam Goldberg, all of Kansas City.

The same grand jury last Monday indicted Samuel C. Hayden, former assistant Jackson county prosecutor, and Thomas Locon on charges of evading income taxes.

Lifting the burden of fear

Is there a way to be free from fear—for oneself, one's health and welfare, and concerning those one loves?

A mighty and increasing multitude can answer "We have found the way!" Men and women in all walks of life, in heartfelt thankfulness testify that Christian Science is showing them how to replace fear with confidence and assurance unshakable.

Through the thoughtful study of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy they are proving step by step, in a plain and practical way, what real understanding of God does for man. This great book may be read or obtained at all Christian Science Reading Rooms. The coupon is also for your use.
