Penalty Levied For Pact To Set Group Of Fines

PORTLAND, May 26. — (AP) — St. Johns Motor Express company, whose attorney wanted to settle 12 charges at $50 each, drew a $2,000 fine in Federal Judge Gus Solomon's court today.

The firm pleaded guilty on the 12 charges of violating Interstate Commerce commission regulations. Earlier the attorney, John M. Hickson, reported a "gentleman's agreement" with the district attorney's office and agreed to a total fine of $600.

Judge Solomon refused to hear the case on that basis and transferred it to Federal Judge James A. Fee. Judge Fee slapped a contempt charge against the attorney and sent the case back to Judge Solomon.

KDND DIAL-LOG

Speedway fans unable to attend this year's running of the 500-mile race at Indianapolis on Memorial day, May 30, will be as close to the auto classic as the nearest radio, it was announced by Orchard Auto Parts company, which will sponsor the broadcast of the race as a Perfect Circle corporation representative for Roseburg, over KRNR.

The first of four broadcasts will begin at 9:00 a. m., 15 minutes before the Mercury pace car takes the track to start the race, and will get the cars well on their way over the 500-mile grind before leaving the speedway at 9:15 a. m. Station KRNR will again take fans to the track at 10:30 a. m. for another eye-witness account of the race, with a third period scheduled to begin at 12:30 p. m. At 1:00 o'clock, the broadcast of the finish will begin and continue until the track's checkered victory flag has waved the winner across the finish line. The broadcast of the racing classic will be carried by the entire Mutual Broadcasting system, and Bill Slater will head a crew of announcers describing the race.

SATURDAY: Another radio gathering of young people at the Ott and Ricketts music store to answer the musical questions posed by emcee Lyle Fenner on "Kid Frolics" (10:30-11:00 a. m.)... hour-long "It's Requested" session with Bob McCarl (2:00-3:00 p. m.)... Ruth Warrick starring for the "Proudly We Hall" dramatization of "The Angel of Clarksville" (3:00-3:30 p. m.)... Carl S. Marvel, winner of the William Gibbs award medal for 1950, will be a member of the "Reviewing Stand" panel that will discuss the subject "Natural Versus Synthetic Rubber" (5:00-5:30 p. m.)... Beautiful singer Lena Horne will describe her plans for a forthcoming trip to Europe, when she is interviewed by Broadway reporter Radie Harris (5:30-5:45 p. m.) Miss Horne will fill a six-month singing schedule in the capitols of the continent. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, who recently resigned as undersecretary of Commerce, will hold the press conference on the air for "Meet the Press" (8:30-9:00 p. m.).
