Hamilton-Hicks Rites Read Sunday, May 21

Highlight of the past week was the wedding Sunday afternoon, May 21 of Miss Frederica Hamilton to Claude Hicks at the First Presbyterian church. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. W. A. MacArthur, pastor of the First Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Hamilton are parents of the bride. Mr. Hicks is the son of Mrs. Jess Hicks and nephew of Earl Benedict all of Roseburg. Baskets of white gladioli, white snapdragons and pink stocks arranged by the Fern Florists, formed the background for the wedding party. The candelabra were lighted by Sidney Moon and a tall cathedral candle stood before the altar.

Mrs. Homer Grow provided incidental music before the ceremony and played traditional wedding marches as the wedding party descended the aisle. Ralph Church sang "I Love Thee" by Grieg and "Because."

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She selected a gown of white organdy with embroidered bodice and high neckline which buttoned to the waist. She wore elbow length white organdy mitts and a fingertip veil which fell from a coronet of seed pearls. Her shower bouquet was fashioned of white roses and stephanotis. The veil had been worn by her sister, Mrs. Eugene Powell.

Miss Mary Ellen McKay of Portland, sorority sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Glenn Miller and Miss Marian Slattery of Roseburg; Miss Pat Kirby of Eugene and Mrs. Burke Freeman of Oswego. All wore pastel summer frocks and carried bouquets of white Esther Reed daisies tied with ribbons to match their gowns. Sheer white nylon gloves and ribbons in their hair harmonizing with their gowns completed their costumes.

Little Susan Gail Powell, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink organdy frock and carried white Esther Reed daisies tied with pink ribbons.

William R. Chalmers of Roseburg was best man. Ushers were Del McKay, Ernest Barker, Jr., Sidney Moon of Roseburg, and Robert Norton of Corvallis.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hamilton wore a pearl gray faille ensemble with black accessories with a shoulder corsage of white baby orchids. Mrs. Hicks wore a navy blue crepe with pink accessories and a lavender orchid corsage.

A reception followed at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hume on Blakeley street, close friend of the Hamilton family. More than 150 guests attended the affair given by the bride's parents.

The bride's table was elaborately decorated with a centerpiece of white roses, sweetpeas and lilies of the valley. Lighted white tapers complimented the floral arrangement. The three-tiered wedding cake carried out the white and pink color scheme. The living room mantel was arranged with white irises.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Hume, Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen cut the cake assisted by Miss Vera Carothers. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Eugene Powell, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Orlena Slattery. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Miss Margaret Scandling of Eugene, and Mrs. O. A. Kennerly, Jr., of Oakland, Calif.

The guest book was in charge of Miss Carol Kerr. Mrs. A. E. Kent arranged the floral decorations in the rooms.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Mary Ellen McKay.

For traveling the bride wore a horizon blue faille suit with navy accessories and a corsage of white roses. Upon their return from a wedding trip to coast points and Victoria, B. C., they will be at home after June 10, at 1411 West Second street.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hubbell of Seattle, Wash., uncle and aunt of the bride; Edgar Hamilton of Tacoma, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Leonnig, Miss Patricia Kirby, Miss Leona Anderson, Miss Margaret Scandling, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Burke Freeman of Oswego; Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Lennox, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lennox, Miss Lucille Lennox of Astoria; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cope of Langlois and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Norton of Corvallis.

The bride is a graduate of Roseburg high school and University of Oregon in 1928 where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi social sorority. She has been employed for the past year by the League of Oregon Cities at Eugene as research assistant.

Mr. Hicks graduated from Myrtle Point high school and attended Oregon state college. He is employed by California Oregon Power company in this city.

MRS. CLAUDE HICKS, the former Frederica Hamilton, poses in her bouffant wedding gown of white organdy. The wedding was an event of last Sunday afternoon at the Master Photo Studio.

CAUGHT IN A SHOWER of rice as they leave the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, May 21, are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hicks. Eugene Powell, brother-in-law of the bride, photoed the couple as they descended the church steps on the way to their wedding reception.

50th Wedding Anniversary Observed By Elkton Couple

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ferney Davis of Elkton was an event of May 14 at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Swearingen at Trent, Ore. The family was reunited for the first time in a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis were married in Roseburg May 18, 1900 and have resided most of the time in Douglas county. They made their home for five years in Fallon, Nev.

A basket dinner was served at noon to nearly one hundred relatives and friends who attended from Roseburg, Dillard, Elkton, Oakland, Drain, Cottage Grove, Eugene, Florence, Reedsport and the bay area in California.

The afternoon was spent visiting, taking pictures and enjoying music provided by members of the family.

Immediate members of the Davis family are Stacy Davis, Hayward, Calif.; Chris, of Oakland, Calif.; Elouise Jones of Berkeley, Calif.; and Twilla Swearingen of Trent, Ore.; nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Davis had the misfortune to break her leg in March and is still confined to a wheelchair. Otherwise both enjoy good health.

Mrs. Davis was born at Elkton, Ore., the daughter of pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eustace Schad. She is the niece of Fendal Sutherland, founder of Sutherland, Ore. Mr. Davis was born at Forrestal, Mo., and came to Oregon with his parents when a small boy.
