

Jack Onslow, Sox Manager, Is Kicked Out

Philadelphia Athletics Coaching Shakeup Also Stirs Baseball World

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sportswriter)
Firing of Jack Onslow as manager of the Chicago White Sox and the vigorous shakeup of the Philadelphia Athletics has overshadowed the baseball world today.

Even the New York Yankees' nine-game win streak and sizzling pace of the Brooklyn Dodgers are overshadowed by the managerial changes.

Onslow's ousting came as no surprise. Jack's name had been on the wall since last fall because of a feud with the White Sox front office.

When Onslow heard the news he said, "They won't second guess me any more. As far as I'm concerned Lane (General Manager Frank Lane) can manage the team and Comiskey (Vice President Charles A. Comiskey) can coach at third base—or any place else he so desires." That tells the story.

Johnny (Red) Corridan, former Brooklyn and Yankee coach and minor league pilot, was moved up from coach to manager for the rest of the season.

Deal Completed
The new deal at Philadelphia is more complicated. Manager and Club President Connie Mack, now 87, named Jimmy Dykes assistant manager and Mickey Cochrane general manager of the club. Both former athletic greats were working for Connie as coaches.

While Dykes and Cochrane moved up, Connie's son, Earle, who has been running the club as assistant manager, became chief player scout. He is to leave "immediately" in search of new talent.

Both the White Sox and A's have been bitter disappointments so far. The Sox are last, 14½ games behind the leaders and the A's are sixth, 13 games out.

Onslow's firing wasn't announced until after the Sox' 2-1 loss to Cleveland. The Philadelphia changes were released before they were beaten 2-0 by the Yankees.

Light Heavyweight Crown Will Go On Block Tonight

The coveted Pacific coast light-heavyweight wrestling crown will go on the block at the Roseburg armory arena Saturday night, with Jack O'Reilly defending his title against the challenge of Eddie Williams.

The other one-hour skirmish will match Jack Kiser, Portland, against Rod Fenton, Vancouver, B. C. Kiser, newly-crowned Rocky Mountain junior heavyweight titleholder, will be meeting one of the roughest and toughest matmen in the business—a newcomer here but a veteran of many years in the mat wars. The match gets under way at 8:45 p.m.

Johnny Paavich will referee both bouts, Matchmaker Elton Owen announced.

O'Reilly, the arrogant Aussie, has held the coast light-heavy title longer than any other grappler, but Douglas county fans will be pulling for a victory for Williams, the popular Scotsman from Missouri, Williams nearly turned the trick three weeks ago, losing to the Australian villain by a very narrow margin.

The two-match program promises to attract the biggest crowd in many weeks.

Qualifying Rounds In Golf Tourney Are Being Played

The qualifying rounds for the fourth annual Roseburg invitational golf tournament got underway on the local course this morning.

Entries for the tourney will continue to be accepted until 5 p.m. today. Norm Tauscher, director of the tournament, expects the qualifying round to be completed by 7 p.m.

Tonight the club will hold a special buffet dinner for the visiting golfers and guests at the clubhouse. Additional entertainment has been planned for the evening.

Sunday morning the first round of the competition for the coveted championship will be held in the morning. The second round will be played in the afternoon.

Shoulder All Right
Hal Newhouser showed no traces of his shoulder trouble in his second round-going job against the St. Louis Browns. Hal gave the Bro six hits, riding home with an 11-2 win. It was the first half of a scheduled two-night doubleheader, but the second game "as rained out."

The Boston Red Sox and Washington were not scheduled.

Burt Shotton tried his Brooklyn relief pitcher, Jack Banta, as a starter and came up with a complete game victory, 5-1, over Boston and Johnny Sain, a six-time winner.

Despite their winning spurt, the Dodgers are unable to shake off the Phillies who remained one game back by whipping New York, 3-2. Robt Roberts struck out 1 Giants enroute to his sixth victory.

Roy Smalley was the difference between Chicago and Pittsburgh last night. The Cub shortstop at a bases loaded home run in the fourth inning to give the Cubs a 4-0 victory.

Kenny Raffensberger, always rough for St. Louis, led down the Cardinals with six hits while Cincinnati banked out a 9-4 edge.

Wilson Gives Up One Hit In Seals Contest

Win Is Sixth Straight; Portland Beavers Beat Los Angeles Team 8-1

By JIM HUBBART
Associated Press Sportswriter
When P. Ripier Richards headed Horace Greeley's advice and came west as a not-so-young man, he may have brought with him to Seattle the pitching standout of the season in the Pacific Coast league.

The goose-egg king, Jim (The Arm) Wilson, had the San Francisco Seals flapping their flippers and rolling over dead as the Rainiers went on a run-making orgy to win, 19-4.

Wilson allowed only one hit, a scratch single that took a bad hop over third baseman Tony York's head in the fifth, until Manager Richards lifted him at the end of the seventh to give him a rest.

Sixth Win
He got credit for his sixth consecutive win after five hard-luck defeats at the start of the season, and boosted his latest shutout string to 12 innings. Before Sacramento got one run off him last Sunday, he had hurled 31 innings of scoreless ball.

Wilson followed Richards to Seattle from Buffalo, where the Waxahachie, Tex., "wonder man" piloted the Bisons to an International league pennant last year.

George Vico, the Rainiers' new first baseman, aided in the rout at San Francisco by hitting a three-run homer in his first time at the platter. It was a duplicate of his big league debut at Detroit two years ago where he homered on his first try.

Roy Helsler, cranked the Portland Beavers to an 8-1 conquest at Los Angeles, Helser, a coach at Linfield college in Oregon, flew down yesterday to take his turn, and flew right back today to his clubs.

Hits Safely
Frankie Baumholtz, the deadeye Angel perpetuated his hitting streak by bashing a single on his fourth trip to the plate. Baumholtz now has hit safely in 31 consecutive games.

Joe Brovia piloted homer No. 14 for Portland in the ninth with one aboard.

Southpaw Al Olsen exploded the myth that Hollywood eats left handed pitchers alive by shutting out the Twins, 4-0.

The Padres re-established their three game bulge on Hollywood as Olsen racked up his ninth victory of the season against two setbacks. It was only the second time this year that the Hollywoods have succumbed to a left handed pitcher. Olsen sent them down with seven scattered hits.

At Sacramento, George Bamberger of Oakland and Bill Evans of the Solons were embroiled in a 15-inning duel that ended when George Metkovich singled home Artie Wilson from second to give the Oaks a 2-1 triumph.

This put the Acorns in third place, six games behind the Padres. Bamberger yielded nine hits; hard-luck Evans, 12.

Eugene Will Feature Big-Car Auto Racing
EUGENE — Big-car auto racing returns to the half-mile track at the Lane county fairgrounds here Tuesday afternoon, when the Northwest Racing association presents a seven-event race program in addition to time trials.

The Tuesday program will start with time trials at 1 p.m., an hour after the gates open. The first of five six-lap heat races will get underway at 2:30 p.m., with the first and second-place winners qualifying for the 40-lap class "A" main event. There will also be a 20-lap class "B" main.

GALCADOR WINS
EPSOM, Eng., May 27.—(AP)—The English colt Galcador won the English derby today, as the favored Prince Simon ran second in the classic at Epsom Downs.

Double Eclipse, a stablemate of Prince Simon, was third in the mile and one half run.

Prince Simon, owned by William Woodward, New York banker, appeared to have the race won in the stretch, but the French colt caught him.

HEAVY HITTER—Tex Chandler, the Umpqua Chiefs big catcher will see plenty of action this Sunday, when the Chiefs travel to Ashland to face the Lithians in the third Southern Oregon league contest. Chandler leads the clubs RBI figures with 6 runs batted in and a .500 batting average (Staff photo).

The Umpqua Chiefs will play their third Southern Oregon league contest at Ashland Sunday.

Ashland has won two games in league play. The Lithians beat Grants Pass 15-2 and pounded Brookings 24-6. Roseburg is undefeated in league play with wins over Crescent City and Myrtle Creek.

Earl Sargent, the Chiefs manager, has named Bud Sporer to start the pitching chores for the Roseburg club.

In other league contests Sunday, Myrtle Creek will host the Rogue River club, Grants Pass will travel to Crescent City, and Brookings will face the powerful Central Point nine at Central Point.

Drain Smothers Union 19-0 To Enter Finals

ALBANY, Ore., May 27.—(AP)—Roosevelt of Portland and Drain of southern Oregon are favored to walk off with their second straight high school baseball championships in Oregon tonight.

Roosevelt, the defending Class A champion, advanced to the finals of the annual tournament last night behind the no-hit pitching of Langford. Roosevelt downed Albany, 13-1, the loser's lone run scoring on a passed ball.

Roosevelt's opponent will be Eugene, which gained the finals on a 17-5 victory over Hillsboro.

Drain, the defending class B finalist, smothered Union yesterday, 19-0, in a game called after 4 innings by mutual agreement.

Drain's opponent tonight will be Amity, a team that nosed out Astoria yesterday, 4-3.

Russ Taylor and Dale Buck were the Amity heroes. With two out in the seventh inning, Buck singled. He stole second base, and scored the winning run on Taylor's single.

He stole second base, and scored the winning run on Taylor's single. Arvey Nelson, Amity hurler, struck out 10. Eldon Russell, Astoria, whiffed 13.

Union was completely unable to cope with Drain. The defending champ pounded out 14 hits and stole 13 bases in the abbreviated contest. Third baseman Bob Cellers got two triples, a double and stole two bases.

Eugene scored its second straight top-sided win in downing Hillsboro. The Axemen collected 15 hits and 12 walks. Five Hillsboro errors added to the carnage.

WSC Is Winner Over Stanford In Playoff Game

PULLMAN, Wash., May 27.—(AP)—The Stanford Indians who pitched their fast-balling strikeout ace, Jack Heinen, against Washington State college today in an attempt to prolong the District 8 NCAA baseball playoffs.

Heinen, who won eight and lost four during the season, will face either lefty Russ Foster (3-0) or sophomore Gene Conley (2-2) in the second game of the best-of-three playoff at 1:30 (PT) this afternoon.

WSC beat the Indians in yesterday's opener 3 to 2. If Stanford should win with Heinen, the third game would follow as the second half of a doubleheader.

Two weeks ago Washington State enclosed its vast baseball field with a four-foot snaf fence. Yesterday WSC's Don Paul and Gordon over the left field section to win the game.

Paul's homer came in the second inning with none on. Brunswick soaked his in the fourth with one on. Trailing 0-3, Stanford scored in the fifth on Bruce Cameron's double and added another in the sixth when Dave Melton singled, advanced to third on an error, and scored on a double play.

Pacific Coast Records Broken In Track Meet

BERKELEY, Calif., May 27.—(AP)—Shot putter Otis Chandler of Stanford and hurdler Dick Atlesley of USC led their teams into today's finals of the Pacific Coast conference track meet with record-shattering preliminary performances.

Chandler, a husky blond from Los Angeles, got off the third longest shot put in history, setting a new conference mark of 57 feet 4½ inches yesterday. Chandler set the old conference record of 54 feet 9 inches last year.

Atlesley, who bettered the world record in the 120-yard high hurdles with a 13.5 second race two weeks ago, won his heat in the highs in the record-shattering time of 14 seconds flat. The lanky Trojan timber-topper set a new conference mark of 23.1 seconds in taking his heat in the 220-yard low hurdles.

California's Donny Anderson dominated the qualifying heats of the 100 and 220 yard dashes. He equaled conference marks in taking his heat of the century in 9.6 seconds and his heat of the fur-long in 21 seconds flat.

Stanford qualified 17 men, USC 14, California 10, Oregon seven, Washington five, WSC and UCLA three apiece, Oregon State college two, Idaho and Montana one each.

But the qualifying events didn't include the 880, mile, two mile, mile relay, pole vault and high jump.
