Huge Crowds Greet Coast Play; Portland Loses, Ties

(By The Associated Press)
Pacific coast club owners, who have been moaning about what television has been doing to the gate, broke out their best denture ad smiles today.

The Memorial day doubleheaders drew the season's peak total attendance of 49,166. Proving, perhaps, that a bargain bill and warmer weather was all that was needed to loosen up the rusting turnstiles.

The day's largest crowd — 14,641 at Oakland — saw a fireworks display by San Diego's oracles Minoza, who swatted three homers in the nightcap to give the Oaks an even break with the Reds and, incidentally, keep his club in first place.

None On Base
Minoza's homers all came with none on, in the first, third and seventh innings of the short game. He missed on his other trip up in the fifth. Harry Simpson also clobbered a homerun with two on to bring the final score to 6-1. Such doings overshadowed the one-bitter Jack Kraus was pitching. Kraus gave up only a scratch single to pitcher Earl Harritt, but had to be relieved when he loaded the sacks on walks in the seventh.

The Oaks won the first game, 11-2, behind Clyde Shoun. Old pro Billy Herman hit a homer.

Hollywood moved to within a game of the top by smashing cellar-bound Sacramento twice, 5-4 and 6-0, before 9,437 fans. Jean Pierre Roy pitched six scoreless relief innings to win the first game and Pinky Woods followed with a seven inning shutout. Rookie Bill Antonello hit a two-run homer to clinch the second one. Orr Grove and Frank Dasso were the losers.

Big Seattle Crowd
The season's second biggest crowd at Seattle — 13,310 — saw the oncoming Rainiers two-time Los Angeles, 3-2 and 9-5. Vern Kinds-father and Jim Wilson were the route-going winners, the latter racking up his seventh straight. Les Layton's miff of shortstop Bill Schuster's single to left let the Rainiers score the tying and winning runs in the ninth inning of the opener. A six-run sixth featuring doubles by Wilson and George Vico sewed up the second contest.

Portland drew 11,778 customers in losing to San Francisco, 3-1, in 11 innings, and then going to a 4-4 tie in five innings.
