

Winston

By MRS. GEORGE BACHER
Franny's beauty shop in Winston has been leased by the owner, Mrs. Clell Holte, to Eileen H. Choover, of Roseburg. Mrs. Choover, also proprietor of the fairhaven beauty shop, plans to employ two operators in her new venture and will remain open from 8 to 6 week days, Tuesday through Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Houghton and family motored to Coos Bay to visit with relatives and friends for the Memorial day weekend. Mrs. Dennis Atwell was hostess Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the Jolly-Eight Sewing Club at her home in Winston. Sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the remainder of the afternoon. Refreshments were served at the 10 o'clock hour by the hostess to Mrs. Lew Shigley, Mrs. Leo Manske, Mrs. Carl Borgas and Mrs. Clarence Walker. The next meeting will be Wednesday afternoon, June 8, at the home of Mrs. Carl Borgas.

Mrs. Clell Holte left Friday evening to visit with her cousin, Harry Williams, in Chico, Calif. She plans to return next week and Mrs. Williams will accompany her to Winston to remain until July 4.

A new coat of paint has been applied to the recently stuccoed exterior of True's grocery. A pale, cool green, it is refreshing to tired, weary eyes in this vicinity. Strawberry harvest has begun in Winston's "rural sections"—and with much discouragement. The crop was first severely damaged by late frosts then buffeted by the dry winds until prospects are poor at best. Many commercial growers are not putting their crops on the market this season.

Mrs. A. R. Owens was a Thursday evening guest in the J. K. fasters home. Mrs. Owens has just returned from Salem where she visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. Owens, former Roseburg residents. Mrs. Truett Owens is the former Norma Porter.

East Roseburg man spent many months in the dentist's chair and many dollars in cash outlay for a new lower plate... wore 'em home Thursday of last week... following Saturday afternoon, he was mowing his lawn with a power-mower... was suddenly seized by a violent sneeze, which forced the plate out of his mouth and into the path of the mower. Before he could stop the machine, the blades had done their work and snapped that plate smack in two... Came Monday morning and another session with the dentist... that plate didn't fit comfortably anyway...

A long-raging international controversy concerning the hemispheric location of the Irish sea is finally to be settled—and all because moderator Bill Slater located this 75,000-square-mile body of water in the western hemisphere during a recent Mutual-Don Lee "Twenty Questions" broadcast. The matter of which meridian actually divides the eastern and western hemispheres has long been a major problem for international geographers, and now the hemispheric pot is boiling once again, with "Twenty Questions" seeking the correct information from the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey department and the National Geographic society. It all started when a listener submitted the Irish sea as one of the "subjects." Answering panelists' query, Bill said the Irish sea is located in the western hemisphere. He is operating on the theory that the Greenwich meridian, or zero degree in longitude, divides the hemispheres. The 70 degree west longitude geographers though raised the hue and cry—and the battle is on once again. When this major problem is geographically resolved, Slater will air the results on one of the "Twenty Questions" programs—which one depends entirely on the speed of this international discussion. TONIGHT: Citizen of the week interview on "Jovin Jamboree" (8:30-9:00 p.m.)... Sir Thomas Beecham and the Symphonia orchestra background the thrilling voice of Miss Erna Berger as together they perform Mozart's "The Abduction from the Seraglio" on "Music You Want" (10:15-10:45 p.m.)

ion Community club was postponed because of the graduation exercises. The next meeting will be held on the evening of June 8, and it is requested that members be on hand at that time to renew membership cards which expired on June 1.

Mrs. Jo Lasher entertained on Thursday evening with a handkerchief shower in honor of Mrs. F. C. Cole who is moving from Winston to West Fir to make her home. At the close of the social hour gifts were presented to the guest of honor and refreshments were served by the hostess. Those enjoying the affair were Mrs. Charles Botsford, Mrs. Robert Fairley, Mrs. Ray Harris, Mrs. Joyce Walker, Mrs. A. R. Snow, Mrs. A. R. Hill and the guest of honor, Mrs. Cole, and the hostess, Mrs. Lasher.

The building which will house the Ben-Etta theater has been completed and it is only a "matter of days" until it will be open for business, according to the owner, Paul Bender. Winstonites have been watching with interest as the building took shape (slowly because of many shortages of materials) and are cheered to learn that the exact date for opening will probably be announced this week.
