

Citizenship Is Revoked Because Of Perjury Guilt

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7.—(AP)—Perjury in seeking citizenship is ample ground for revoking that citizenship, Federal Judge James A. Fee ruled here in sentencing

Mrs. William Allen Dies After Illness

Mrs. William (Mona) Allen, 75, well-known resident of Roseburg and Brockway, died at a local hospital Monday following a short illness.

She was born in Shasta county, California, Jan. 7, 1875, and came with her parents to Douglas county in 1880. She was married here in 1892 to James Henry Porter, deceased, and later moved to California. She returned to Oregon to make her home at Portland for several years before returning to Douglas county in 1912. She was married to William M. Allen in 1918 at Portland. Mrs. Allen was a communicant of the Episcopal church and a member of the Women's Auxiliary of Railway Conductors.

Surviving are her widower, William H. Allen, Brockway; a daughter, Mrs. Leonard W. (Mona) Riley, Roseburg; two sisters, Mrs. Lou Knight, and Mrs. R. Livingstone, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday June 8, at 11 a.m. at St. George's Episcopal church with the Rev. Father Alfred S. Tyson officiating. Concluding services and interment will follow in the Masonic cemetery. Her body will lie in state at the Long & Orr mortuary, which is in charge of funeral arrangements until 10 a.m. Thursday morning.

Gus John Carles. In a case similar to that of "Harry Bridges, west coast longshore leader, Carles was convicted by a federal court jury of having lied in his petition for naturalization. Bridges was similarly convicted in San Francisco and sentenced to five years imprisonment. Judge Fee revoked Carles citizenship and sentenced him to 15 months in prison.

Immigration inspector Roy Norene said Carles likely would be deported to his native Greece at the expiration of his sentence.

In his citizenship application Carles, 54, a restaurant chef, said he had never been arrested. Immigration agents testified he had been arrested in San Francisco on grand larceny and state prohibition law violation charges and in Seattle had been sentenced to prison for forgery.

Deputy District Attorney Floyd Hamilton told the court he was unable to find specific authority in naturalization laws for revocation of citizenship because of perjury in the application. Judge Fee said, however, that power was held by the court.

Hamilton said that both Bridges and Carles were indicted under the same statute. As a rule, he said, citizenship revocation is based on a special proceeding rather than as part of a criminal charge.

Carles came to the United States in 1912 and was naturalized in 1946.
