The answers to everyday insurance problems

By KEN BAILEY

QUESTION: Suppose I insure my home for $10,000. Does that mean that if my home is totally destroyed by fire, the insurance company has to pay me the entire amount?

ANSWER: No, the insurance company will pay you only the value of the property at the time of loss and only up to the face value of the policy. No insurance policy allows the insured to profit by a fire loss.

'Franks' And Pop Good On Picnic

By GAYNOR MADDOX NEA Staff Writer

Those all-American favorites—hot dogs and bottled soft drinks—go to an outdoor picnic or, for that matter, to the picnic at home.

An old friend of ours, Kathrine Wellenbrook, comes up again with a new angle on an old favorite. She suggests splitting frankfurter rolls lengthwise, spreading them with a mixture of sharp cheese and mustard, and then placing in slow oven (300 degrees F.) for about 10 minutes.

We tried it. It's wonderful. She serves iced carbonated beverages with them. For Memorial Day each bottle has a narrow red, white and blue ribbon about it. The pop bottles stand in a bucket of ice, and there are always plenty of extra bottle openers in case one gets lost in a careless pocket.

She has two other simple, very good snacks for our holiday picnic. I THINK YOU'LL LIKE THEM.

Sour Cream Mustard Dip
One-half pint sour cream, 1½ tablespoons prepared mustard, ½ teaspoon salt, dash black pepper, 1 teaspoon celery seed.

Combine sour cream and mustard. Stir in seasonings. Chill well. Place bowl in the center of platter containing pretzels and potato chips.

Salami Cones
(5-6 servings)
Ten to 12 slices salami, 2 packages (3 ounces each) cream cheese, 2 tablespoons milk, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard.

Roll the slices of salami into cones; fasten with toothpicks. Soften the cream cheese with the milk using more milk if necessary. Mix in the mustard. Fill the salami cones and chill thoroughly. Before serving, remove toothpicks.

It's Her Cook Book

PASADENA, Calif., June 10.—(AP)—Marvin Hersh, a door-to-door magazine salesman, called on Mrs. Madeline Sauder yesterday.

"Good morning, Madame. Did you get your free cook book yet?" Mrs. Sauder said she hadn't, so Hersh handed her one.

"There's usually a catch to this sort of thing," the lady said.

"Oh, no," Hersh assured her. "It's absolutely free."

Whereupon Mrs. Sauder closed the door and left Hersh with an unfinished sales talk on his hands.

Hersh rapped vigorously at both front and back doors. Mrs. Sauder refused to answer. She called the police instead.

Hersh told Sgt. Gerald Wilson. "The cook book is free only when you take out a subscription to a magazine."

The sergeant was unimpressed. He ruled on the spot that Mrs. Sauder was entitled to keep the cook book. There was no indication whether Hersh planned to appeal to a higher authority.
