Sutherland Junior Legion Club Edges Roseburg Outfit In Final Inning, 2-1

By CHUCK PLUMMER
Brick Avery's Sutherland Junior Legion baseball team squeezed two runs across the plate in the final inning Sunday to edge Norm West's Roseburg Legion team, 2-1.

The game was definitely a pitcher's duel, with Sutherland's Wally Beamer striking out 12 Roseburg batters and Mickey Coen, the Roseburg chucker, striking out 8.

Roseburg gained a one-run advantage in the second inning when left fielder Vic Sanders reached first on an error, stole second, and scored on Louie Ripberger's hit to the second baseman, who fumbled the ball and allowed Ripberger to reach first. Beamer then struck out Coen to retire the side.

Coen then held Sutherland scoreless until the last of the seventh. Bob Wahl, Sutherland's third baseman and first man up, hit a single. Fenell scored him with a double that went into center field, hit a telephone wire, and landed 20 yards away from Roseburg center fielder Gene Henry. Coen then walked.

Wallick Defeats Dusette On Mat

By CHUCK PLUMMER
Villainous Leo Wallick defeated Georges Dusette, popular French Canadian, in a thrilling battle Saturday night at the Roseburg armory.

The bout was filled with Wallick's dirty tactics and much slugging between opponents.

Wallick took the first fall with a series of falling hangersman's holds, and a body press. Dusette took a terrific beating in the second but, with Wallick again applying his hangersman's holds, Dusette whirled him around and put on his famous full-nelson to take the fall.

In the final canto, Dusette surprised everyone by rushing out of his corner, and proceeded to beat the devil out of Wallick. Wallick finally made his way out of the ropes, and then, rested, he beat the devil out of Dusette, applied his devastating piledriver, and won the fall.

The opener, which featured Karl Gray and Johnny Paavich, was almost as exciting as the final. In the first fall, Paavich tied Gray up in the corner ropes, and shoulder butted him in the stomach. As Paavich ran back to get a run at it, Gray moved and Paavich hit his head in the corner. Gray immediately picked him up, threw him to the mat on his back a few times and won the fall with a body press.

The second fall was just the opposite of the first. This time Gray had Paavich pinned in a corner and was shoulder butting him in the stomach. On about the third butt, Paavich jumped up in the air onto Gray's back, and pinned him with a reverse leg nelson.

In the final fall, Paavich and Gray staged a furious battle, with very few holds being used. Finally, Paavich shoved Gray into the ropes and on the rebound, smacked him on the chin with a thwack that could be heard all over the auditorium, and pinned him for the three-count.

Last Team Events Set At ABC Tourney

COLUMBUS, O., June 12—(AP)—The last team events will be rolled tonight in the 47th American Bowling congress tournament.

Unless the unexpected happens — and it has three times in the past — Pepsi-Cola of Detroit with its great 2952 will be the champion. Tonight the last 72 of 5,109 teams will bowl on the 59th day of the pin classic.

The tournament continues in daylight tomorrow in doubles and singles.

Luke Appling, the ageless Chicago White Sox star, has a .311 lifetime batting average for 21 big league seasons.

Golfdom's Bantam Ben Posts Comeback Climax

ARDMORE, Pa., June 12—(AP)—The whole golf world knew it today and no one dared question it—the boss man is back.

He's back with two sound legs, a new pin-hungry quality to his golf shots and a determination that marks him as one of the great masters of all time.

The climax chapter in the fantastic Ben Hogan saga was written yesterday down the fairways and across the tricky greens of Merion's historic east course.

Stars Boost Coast Lead; Surkont Wins

By JIM HUBBART
Associated Press Sports Writer
Pitcher Max Surkont and the San Diego Padres continued to amaze Pacific Coast league adherents today—Surkont for his phenomenal record with last place Sacramento, and the Padres for their phenomenal ability to sleep standing up.

The pennant battle has assumed the proportions of a rout as the clubs hit the road for Tuesday's series openers. How long it will remain thus is a matter of conjecture, but right now Hollywood leads San Diego by five full games.

The Padres, once the scourge of the league, booted a pair to Hollywood Sunday, even as they booted six previous games during the week. Both contests ended at 6 to 4.

What had happened to San Diego's prodigious batting power, its effective pitching and its infield nobody seemed to know, least of all the Padres. They were slumping—and badly.

Big Surkont, meanwhile, chalked up his 12th victory of the campaign and his 99th strikeout as the lowly Oaks trimmed third place Oakland, 10 to 2 and 3 to 0. The shutout belonged to Frankie Dasso.

Surkont, the PCL's winningest flinger, scattered seven hits in posting his third triumph in four cracks at the Oaks. Dasso was steady all the way in the finale, yielding only four blows in double loss but Oakland six games off the pace.

The other participants split yesterday's twin bills. A walk by reliever Dewey Adkins gave Portland a 5 to 4 victory over Los Angeles in their first game. The free pass came in the ninth inning with the bases loaded. Bob Muncie blanked the Beavers in the afterpiece, however, 4 to 0. He gave up six hits.

Redding Threatens Far West Runaway

By the Associated Press
The Redding Browns are threatening to make a runaway of the Far West league baseball race with only the Klamath Falls Gems presently in a position to stop the Browns' headlong rush.

Redding jumped on last place Eugene for three victories over the weekend to increase their margin over Klamath Falls to 4½ games. Third place Medford is 10 games off the pace.

The Browns beat Eugene 6-4 and 15-5 in a doubleheader Sunday, and 17-5 Saturday. Redding's big stick was Russ Rosburg who hit grand slam home runs yesterday and Saturday to make it three days in a row.

Meanwhile, Klamath Falls had a somewhat dismal weekend, falling two games further behind Redding. The Gems lost to Medford 1-10 in the first game yesterday, but came back for a 15-9 win in the nightcap. Klamath Falls dropped an 8-2 decision to Medford Saturday.

Corvallis Golf Star Defeated In Final Play

DALLAS, Tex., June 12—(AP)—Marjorie Lindsay, who has the stamina and the shots to do it, looked toward the western open today, her first major victory—the women's Trans-Mississippi championship—in the bag.

She won the open championship, she said, not with her legs but with his head and a putter he started to throw away.

"My legs are okay and I wish we could get everybody to forget them," the strong-jawed little man said after his victory. He resents pity. He dislikes being regarded as a freak.

He won the open championship, she said, not with his legs but with his head and a putter he started to throw away.

"I picked it up in Memphis three months ago during an exhibition and stored my old brass putter in a garage back home in Fort Worth. I sent out an SOS for it and it came by air just before we teed off for the playoff round. I didn't change."

Coast Conference Has Special Rose Bowl Committee

VICTORIA, B. C., June 12—(AP) The Pacific Coast conference had a special Rose Bowl committee all set up today but hadn't told it what it was supposed to do.

That's just one top-important matter facing conference representatives going into the first full day session of their 1950 summer meeting. Also on the agenda was arrangement of the 1954 football schedule by the athletic directors, but it appeared this might hit a snag.

At least one director said he opposed setting the schedule under the winter meeting. He said the grip campaign already is booked for four years ahead and felt the conference would have a better idea of 1954 needs after the 1950 season.

Will Meet With Big 10.
The Rose Bowl committee selected to meet with a similar Big Ten group named by the Big Ten conference to discuss a renewal of the five-year pact now in its last year. Coast representatives, opening their meeting yesterday, picked five men. The Big Ten had named seven.

Writer Says Chandler Contract Try Fails

ST. LOUIS, June 12—(AP)—Sports Editor J. Roy Stockton of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch says that according to the "grapevine," baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler, has demanded a new seven-year contract, but failed to get it.

The report, published in Stockton's column yesterday brought an immediate denial from the commissioner, who said he knew nothing about it.

Chandler added that his contract has until April, 1952, to run.

Detroit Tigers Nip Boston Red Sox Twice; Cards Rap Durocher's Club To Boost Lead

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
"The Red Sox won't win the pennant this year," the man said. "They fold up against the strong clubs."

The man was a Boston baseball writer. The remark was made right after Boston had buried the poor St. Louis Browns under a record shattering 29-4 count last Thursday.

Fold probably is the wrong word but there is no denying the Red Sox have had miserably luck against the first division clubs this season. In 23 games against the Yankees, Tigers and Cleveland Indians, the Sox have won nine and lost 14. That's a cellarlike .394 percentage.

Red Rolfe's Tigers heaped insult on injury yesterday when the league leaders used two lefthanders who pitched nine innings apiece. Not since Cleveland's Gene Bearden beat them in the '48 pennant playoff game had an enemy southpaw been able to pitch the distance and win in Fenway park.

Southpaw Hal Newhouser scattered 10 hits to beat Boston, 6-2, in the opener. Lefty Ted Gray allowed only four hits in nine innings.

Victoria Leaves Cellar In WIL

By FRANK VAILLE
Associated Press Sports Writer
Victoria was out of the Western International league cellar today for the first time this season.

They did it the hard way yesterday by taking a twin bill from the Yakima Bears 1-0 and 8-3 behind the sterling pitching of John Marshall and Ronnie Smith. Marshall pitched three-hit ball in the seven innings shutout while Smith gave up only five blows in the finale. Victoria's 12-hit attack in the second game included a triple and six doubles.

The double defeat and 3-1 series loss dropped by the title-defending Bears into third place as Wenatchee completed its series sweep against Tri-City 3-1 and 7-2. Spokane replaced the latter loser in fifth place with a 4-3 12-inning victory over Vancouver, which dropped into the cellar. Their second tilt was postponed.

League — leading Tacoma and fourth place Salem divided a twin bill. Salem handed Bob Kerrigan his first loss of the season after 10 straight wins with a 6-3 first game verdict. Salem's John Tierney gave up five hits for his 11th win against two defeats. Tacoma snared the nightcap 2-1 as Wimpy Quinn doubled home Dick Wenner in the eighth with the deciding counter.

In Saturday tilts, Wenatchee bested Tri-City 6-1. Spokane topped Vancouver 6-3 and Yakima slapped Victoria 6-1. Tacoma at Salem was rained out.

League action tonight is limited to the Canadian parks. Victoria tests its new-found strength against Wenatchee and Vancouver hopes for better things against Salem. Spokane opens at Tri-City tomorrow at does Yakima at Tacoma.

Phillies Split

Philadelphia's third place Phillies remained a half game behind Brooklyn, splitting a pair with the Pirates in Pittsburgh. The Phils came from behind with five runs in the eighth against Rookie Vern Law to win the first game, 7-6, but the Pirates took the second, 5-4 on Ralph Kiner's 13th homerun of the season.

Chicago's Cubs tied Boston for fourth place, defeating the Braves twice in Chicago, 5-4, in 10 innings and 2-1. The White Sox, Chicago's American league entry, also won two games, whipping the Senators in Washington, 8-3 and 5-4.

Cleveland and the Athletics divided a doubleheader in Philadelphia. Three runs in the 10th ended the Indians to win the first game, 6-3. A seven-run seventh inning won the second for Philadelphia, 9-6.

A near-sellout crowd of 34,906 saw Newhouser and Dobson duel evenly for seven innings of the opener, but the Tigers broke a 2-2 deadlock in the eighth and added three more in the ninth to give Newhouser his fifth victory and Dobson his fourth defeat.

Fred Hutchinson was the Tiger starter in the second game. He was clubbed for eight hits and five runs in five innings. Gray took over after Detroit had tallied three times in the fifth to knot the score at 5-5. Each team scored once in the seventh. Thereafter Gray and Parnell, Boston's sole hurler, pitched goose eggs until Vic Wertz homered in the 14th. It was Gray's sixth triumph and Parnell's fifth loss.

Vic Raschi and Fred Sanford turned in fine pitching performances for the Yankees. Raschi yielded only three hits in hurling his first shutout and seventh triumph. Cleveland Wins
Bob Lemon pitched his seventh triumph for Cleveland. Tenth inning homers by Al Rosen and Jim Hegan off Bobby Shantz were the winning blows.

The double triumph by the White Sox ended a seven game victory string of the Senators against Chicago. Ray Scarborough, ex-Senator, was clipped for 11 hits but staggered through for his fifth win in the nightcap.

Lefties Howie Pollet and Alpha Bazle pitched the Cards to their 10th straight win over the Giants before the largest crowd in four years — 33,853 fans.

Don Newcombe gained his sixth triumph for Brooklyn in the opener against the Reds. A six-run Cincinnati seventh against Dan Bankhead helped Ewell Blackwell gain his fourth victory in the nightcap.

Hank Saratz's long fly scored Bob Ramazzotti from third with the winning run for Chicago against Boston in the opener. Ren Northey's homer helped Bob Rush win a morale duet from Warren Spahn in the afterpiece.

Middleground Now Has Edge On Hill Prince

NEW YORK, June 12 — (AP) — Middleground had the edge today over Hill Prince for the three-year-old championship, but there will be a lot more fireworks coming up before the Texas comet makes it stick.

The King Ranch colt's victory in the Belmont stakes Saturday, where Hill Prince finished a disappointing seventh, still has the horse people trying to figure out what gives.

Middleground had won the Kentucky Derby, then ran second to Chris Cheney's Hill Prince in the Preakness. Hill Prince copped the Preakness so easily, most everyone thought he'd be a shoe-in for the Belmont. So the crowd made the Virginia-bred colt a 17-20 favorite then watched in amazement as Middleground romped to the wire for a one length victory over George Widener's Lights Up.

Hill Prince led to the top of the stretch, where he tired with a quarter mile to go. He clocking for the first mile and one-quarter was a scorching 2:02 1-5. Middleground's time for the mile and one half was 2:28 3-5.

Middleground grabbed $61,350 of the $91,950 purse and upped his total earnings to $235,225. Those in the crowd of 39,152 who liked him in the mutuels got $7.40 for $2.
