Woman To Work Sixth Season As Forest Lookout

Miss Marceline Moore is leaving Tuesday to take up her work as lookout on Mount Scott, about 10 miles north of Glide. She will be there until the end of fire season. Last year was an exceptionally long season and the lookouts were not brought in until the middle of October.

This will make Miss Moore's sixth year as a lookout on Mount Scott. The lookout station is located about seven miles from the Roseburg Lumber company logging operations, and there has been logging at various times within a short distance of the station, said Miss Moore.

DIAL-LOG

This writer, (Carol Kerr) left for a southern California vacation as of Saturday, June 10... so today's "Dial Log" has been hanging fire for the past couple of days before publication. And speaking of trips... word has it that a prominent local doctor is taking a trip, too, in a couple of weeks. With him, he's taking for company on the long motor-trip, one "Mayor of Pine." The "Mayor of Pine" is a human skeleton... named after a ghost-town in Idaho. The doctor we speak of longed for another skeleton other than his own personal bone structure all through medical school... and finally bought one for $160.00 after he was married and financially secure. Seems one day, the doctor chanced to hang the skeleton in his garage to get him out of the way... and when the garbage-man arrived that afternoon, taking his usual shortcut through the garage, sight of the "Mayor of Pine" almost caused him to give up his career as dispenser-of-rubles. But anyway, the "Mayor of Pine" is accompanying the doctor on his trip to New Orleans, where he (the Doctor) will begin a two-year orthopedic specialty. Whether the "Mayor of Pine" will help out on the long driving stint eastward or not, can't say... but he'll be right there in the front seat of the station-wagon should an emergency arise. Bet the doctor has more fun on Halloween than anybody...

Sam Hayes, for 21 years one of the topnewscasters in radio, debuts in a new Don Lee week-day series this week in the 6:45-6:55 p.m. time spot. Hayes brings a world of experience to his new Don Lee series. Sam made his radio debut in San Francisco in 1929 as part of a dramatic company. The following year found him chief announcer of a leading San Francisco station. He remained there until 1931, when he won a spot as regional network newscaster for a major oil company, and, hence, became the first newscaster heard on a hookup of Pacific coast stations.

TONIGHT: A man who is breaking mentally under the strain of his work comes to George Valentine for assistance, on "Let George Do It." Although no psychiatrist, George aids him by discovering that his client is not guilty of the murders he seems to have committed, with the aid of an "Iron Cat." (8:00-8:30 p.m.) Prokofiev's Classical Symphony and Ravel's Daphnis et Chloe Suite No. 2 will be performed on "Music You Want" by Serge Koussevitzky and the Boston Symphony Orchestra (10:15-10:45 p.m.)

'Hopper Invasion Of Warner Valley To Be Resisted

CORVALLIS—(AP)—A battle to keep grasshoppers from migrating into the irrigated Warner valley of southeastern Oregon will open in early July.

Millions of migratory grasshoppers have been traveling for more than a decade from Nevada into Oregon. They now cover 600,000 acres in Oregon.

So far, the Oregon infestation covers only sage-covered rangeland. But one band has moved to within three or four miles of the fertile Warner valley.

Dr. Don C. Mote, head of the Oregon state entomology department, said poison toxaphene-bran is being spread in the area nearest population centers. Three baiting camps are working in Oregon, along with a grasshopper "surveyor" who locates the insect bands.

The danger period will come in early July, when the grasshoppers grow their wings and begin their annual migration. They can travel one to six miles daily at that time.

The poison bait is prepared in Lakeview and trucked to the baiting crews, who spread it from pick-up trucks. Airplanes may be used later, should the grasshoppers start migrating toward the Warner valley.

At the meeting Tuesday, Hoyt added, a new name will be chosen for this summer activity and the boy suggesting the name that is chosen will receive a prize.

This program is designed primarily for boys from about the ages of nine to 14. It is planned the program will be carried out primarily at Umpqua park and the boys will carry their lunches. The starting time will be about 9:30 a.m. and the boys will return about 3:30 p.m. Hoyt emphasized that if the boys want the program they should be sure to attend the meeting tomorrow morning.

Increased Gold Production In Oregon Reported

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Oregon gold production in 1949 exceeded that of the previous year by 11 percent due chiefly to expanded dredge output.

The bureau of mines reported the state's gold production from lode and placer mines in 1949 was 16,226 fine ounces, compared to 14,611 ounces in 1948. The 1949 output was below the 1947 postwar record of 18,979 ounces.

Oregon's silver production fell from 13,856 ounces in 1948 to 12,195 ounces in 1949 while production of copper increased ten fold from 4,000 pounds in 1948 to 40,000 pounds last year. Lead production increased 71 percent in 1949 over the preceding year with a total of 24,000 pounds compared to 14,000 in 1948. Zinc production in 1949 amounted to 12,000 pounds.

The total value of the five metals produced in the state during 1949 was $592,107 compared to $527,064 in 1948.

The value of the gold produced last year was $567,910, of silver $11,037; copper $7,880; lead $3,792 and zinc $1,488.

Grant county was the largest contributor in 1949 to the state's metal production.

Baker county was second, Baker county produced 5,959 ounces of gold and 2,880 ounces of silver. The mines bureau combined the production of Grant and Wheeler counties to avoid disclosure of individual output and listed the two as producing 9,069 ounces of gold, 5,385 ounces of silver, 800 pounds of copper and 6,600 pounds of lead.
