

Rose Pays Annual Rent For Church-Used Land

MANHEIM, Pa., June 13.—(P)—Received one red rose for rental of land on which stands Zion Evangelical Lutheran church. If a receipt had been demanded—none was necessary—a such might have been the wording yesterday as a full blooming red rose changed hands in a ceremony dating back to 1772. The traditional payment of one red rose was originated to commemorate the gift of the church land to the early Manheim Lutheran congregation by Henry "Baron" Siegel, colonial glassmaker. Yesterday's rose was selected by Mrs. J. F. Knittle, wife of the late pastor of the church, from a rose garden started by her husband on church property. The "rent" was handed over to Mrs. Elizabeth Van Tassel Dannewer, of Westfield, N. J., a sixth generation descendant of "Baron" Siegel.

BUTTON, BUTTON—Ready for the all-out button selling campaign are these six candidates for the title of Queen of the Sutherlin Timber Days carnival, scheduled for July 1-4. Given 500 buttons apiece to start with, the candidates were assured more would be available when these were sold. Half of the proceeds from the button sales are retained by the candidates' sponsors, with the other half going to the Timber days committee to help finance the event. Each button represents a vote for the queen hopeful who sells it. From left, candidates and their sponsors are Pauline Miller, Roseburg VFW; Margie Boyd, Riddle VFW; Kitty Aldred, Roseburg Active club; Carol Morley, Roseburg DAV auxiliary; Bonnie Bellows, Roseburg Jaycees; and Jesse Himelwright, Sutherlin BP&W. Not available when the picture was taken was Doris Price, sponsored by the Sutherlin Lions. (Master Studio picture).

KRNR DIAL-LOG

Well, how did you like it? Of course, we mean TUNE-O. Remember, you the listener, must have a Tune-O card in order to play this game. Briefly, here's the rules again: To win a prize you must fill five squares in a straight line on the card you have, which can be obtained at Clark's studio, F & W Floor Covering, Peter Pan Beauty Salon, Drive In restaurant, and the Roseburg Jewelry store. The five squares may be in a line up and down, across, or diagonally. You can also win by filling the four corners of the card. The center square is free and may be filled in automatically. As soon as you have filled in five squares in a line or the four corners of the card, call number 4, KRNR, and have your card checked. You may be a winner!

Opportunity doesn't KNOCK! It RINGS telephones! And not just ONCE, but many times over KRNR. We mean for you not to miss listening to the new "Tex Beneke" show, heard every night 6:30 to 6:45. Bob Grant, emcee of the "Beneke" show, will pick a number out of the phone book at random, and if you can answer his question of the evening, you will win a silver dollar. Two phone calls will be placed during the program, and if no one can answer the question correctly, the silver dollar automatically becomes two silver dollars for the next show. Every listed phone number has an equal chance of being picked. So tune "Tex Beneke," every evening at 6:30.

TONIGHT: Bob McCarl will finish the tale of "Pee-Wee Piccolo," on Sleepytime Tales at 7. At 8, it's "Melody Time," followed by the "Jovin Jamboree" (8:30-9:00 p.m.) with your citizen of the week, "Music You Want," tonight will feature Handel's "The Great Elopement," with your conductor Sir Thomas Beecham and the London Philharmonic orchestra.

Blind, Deaf Student Is Graduate With Honors

NEW YORK, June 12.—(AP)—Totally blind and deaf, Robert J. Smithdas, 25, newly graduated with honors from St. John's university in Brooklyn, looked forward today to his next objectives—a lecture tour and graduate work at the University of Michigan. Smithdas "saw and heard" his commencement exercises yesterday through the eyes and ears of his college pal, John Spanier, 22, his constant companion for four years. Smithdas lost his sight and hearing at the age of six as the result of spinal meningitis. He is the son of a steelworker, Joseph Smithdas of Pittsburgh, and one of six children. Smithdas completed a high school course at Perkins institute, Watertown, Mass. At college he was on the wrestling team and became a skilled horseman and swimmer. Truffles range in size from a pea to a big potato.

The Otto Jones' were accompanied back to their home by Mrs. A. O. Pedersen who visited several days in the home of her brother and sister-in-law before returning to Portland Memorial day.

Mrs. Carl Borgoes was hostess Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the Jolly-Eight Sewing Circle at her home in Winston. Sewing and visiting were enjoyed after which cards were in play during the remainder of the afternoon. At the tea hour refreshments were served by the hostess to the following: Mrs. Roy Chambers, Mrs. Dennis Atwell, Mrs. Clarence Walker, Mrs. Leo Manske, Mrs. Lew Shigley and Mrs. Bill Stutsman.

The ground is being leveled this week in preparation for pouring a large cement patio, 29 by 44 feet, at the side-back entrance of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bacher in Winston section. Picnic grounds, an outdoor fireplace and a badminton court are also planned.

Representatives from the Portland offices of the Pacific Telephone company were on hand last week making a survey of Winston and vicinity in an attempt to estimate the number of "installations necessary to meet the demands of rapidly growing Winston." The new dial system, tentatively scheduled to be in effect some time during the month of February, has increased interest particularly since the recent announcement that, although Winston would have an exchange office, the Roseburg office may be reached without "long distance."

Travis Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wilson of Winston, left Sunday for San Diego, Calif. where he will begin service with the U.S. Navy.

Mrs. E. W. Randolph spent Thursday night in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones of Winston. From here she went to Portland to visit with another sister, and from there she plans to go on to Seattle.
