

Rod-Gun Club To Recommend Hunting Seasons, Limits Stay Same, Except For Waterfowl

The Roseburg Rod and Gun club will recommend to the Oregon Game commission that hunting seasons and bag limits for 1950 be the same as in 1949, except for migratory waterfowl. Club members voted for a continuous season rather than the split season on ducks and geese observed last year.

The club also will recommend that the North Umpqua whitetail deer refuge remain open to hunting; that no elk hunting be permitted in Douglas county east of Highway 99, and that the backwater area of the North Umpqua river above the Winchester dam be closed to waterfowl hunting. The game commission also will be asked to provide that deer hunters who have killed a deer during regular season be prohibited from participating in drawings for kill tags during any special seasons which may be ordered.

Reserve Drawn Discussion
Principal discussion centered around regulations for the whitetail reserve, bordering the North Umpqua river from Winchester to Oak creek. The reserve was opened to hunting last year.

Bert Oar, chairman of the club's game committee, reported he had interviewed 41 land owners within the reserve and found general complaint of game damage. He also found much complaint of damage from hunters — cut fences, open gates, killing or wounding of livestock, etc.

Dave Luman, game biologist, reported checks indicate that the reserve still carries a large whitetail deer population; that due to overpopulation of the range, inbreeding and other factors that the deer have deteriorated, particularly in size, and that a reduction of population and a scattering of the animals probably would be beneficial.

Would Abolish Reserve
Club members voted not only to recommend that the deer season be continued on the reserve, but also to seek legislation to abolish the reserve, inasmuch as the game commission now has authority to open or close any areas as need may arise.

Discussing the matter of deer population, Luman reported a substantial gain in Douglas county and predicted a continuing increase because of logging operations which, by permitting more sunlight to reach grass and brush, improve range conditions.

Padres Drop To 3rd Spot; Beavers Win

By HERB WILHOIT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The rasping racket you hear in the Pacific Coast League today is the once frisky S.A. Diego Padres sliding into third place on their percentage points, three of 'em.

A week ago the Padres were breathing hotly on the necks of the league-leading Hollywood Stars but the movietown jads cooled them off with a 6-1 winning series.

Oakland continued the chilly treatment last night by whacking the Padres 7-5 in the San Diego ball yard, a business that left Oakland and San Diego each six games behind Hollywood. But the Oaks have second place now by three percentage points. The Padres' Max West got his 14th homer in the eighth.

Stars Run Strong
Hollywood, meantime, continued its front-running exercises by coming from behind to beat Sacramento, 4-2, thus subduing the festivities somewhat on a fans' night for Solon Manager Joe Marty.

Although Sacramento is in the league cellar, 9,207 fans packed the park for Marty. He lost the ball game but was given an automobile, a live pig, sundry other gifts and a parade.

Hollywood's Glen Moulder gave the Solons nine hits, the same number collected by the stars off Orv Grove and Harry Gumbert.

Portland Takes Close Win
Portland dropped San Francisco a little farther down the league ladder by a 9-8 victory over the saw contest. The winning run developed in the eighth when Hillis Layne and Mickey Rocco singled and pinch hitter Johnny Rucker singled Layne home. The three hits were off the Seals' Elmer Singleton, who had relieved Cliff Melio in that inning.

There was a thundering noise in Wrigley field, Los Angeles, as the Seattle Rainiers continued their terrific pace with a 14-hit, 13-4 win over the Angels. The big boom came in the fourth inning when Seattle manufactured 10 runs on six hits, two walks and three Angel errors.

Bill Salkeld hit a bases-loaded homer and Jack Albright a bases-empty homer in that inning. Angel homers by Frank Baumholtz and Rube Novotney in the third were of little avail.

Seattle's Jim Wilson won his ninth straight, striking out 11 for a season total of 94, as he gave the Angels nine hits.

FISHIN'S GOOD at Diamond Lake, according to Dr. and Mrs. K. T. Bradley of Roseburg, who recorded this catch over the weekend. The Bradleys say many local persons have not made the trip to Diamond lake because of reports that fish are not friendly to anglers' efforts. Dr. and Mrs. Bradley (and this picture) show proof it isn't so.

Chief-Miller Contest Set Here Tonight

The undefeated Umpqua Chiefs will play host to a potent Millers baseball team of Eugene tonight in a non-league tilt slated to get underway at 8 p. m. on Finlay field.

Earl Sargent, the Chiefs manager, stated today he hopes Jupe Pluvius will not force a cancellation of the contest. The Chiefs have been idle now for 10 days and need a game.

Sporer to Pitch
Sargent has named Bus Sporer, with four straight wins this season, to start the pitching chores for the Chiefs. Don Kirsch, University of Oregon baseball coach and manager of the Miller club, will start either Mel Krause or DeWayne "Swede" Johnson on the mound for the Eugene club.

It is not known whether Krause will make the Roseburg trip or not. Krause, a chucker for the Chiefs in 1949 play, has signed to pitch for the Eugene club in the state tournament but is not a regular member of the squad in state league play.

The game will also mark the appearance of another player well known to Roseburg baseball fans. Ted Wilson, baseball coach at La Grande, will play center field for the Eugene team. Wilson was a star on the 1949 pennant winning Chiefs' squad.

Smith Injured
Sargent stated that the Chief's new outfielder, Phil Smith, may not be in the starting lineup. Smith injured his foot in a sawmill accident Monday and will probably not be ready for the game.

A pregame ceremony is planned for the Eugene-Roseburg tilt when the Disabled American Veterans introduce their queen candidate for the Sutherland Timber Days carnival, Miss Carol Morley, to the local baseball fans. Miss Morley is scheduled to throw the game ball to Umpire Al Flegel to start the all-important non-league tilt.

Sutherlin, Firmco Take Softball League Openers

Firmco defeated Pitco, 5-3, and Sutherlin downed Scherners 5-4, in the opening games of the City softball league on Finlay-field Tuesday evening.

Lee Barnes pitched excellent ball for Firmco, allowing Pitco only one hit in the seven-inning ball game. His teammates gave him excellent support as he struck out two and issued one walk.

"Buc" Defferding, the losing pitcher for Pitco, allowed seven hits, walked three and struck out five.

Firmco opened its scoring in the fourth inning, getting two runs on three hits and a walk. The outfit clinched the ballgame in the sixth with three runs on three hits and a walk.

Held Until 7th
Barnes held Pitco scoreless until the seventh inning when the club scored three tallies on one hit, two fielder's choices and two errors.

Sutherlin's chucker, Vang, allowed the bottlers four hits, six walks, and struckout three. Roy Baughman, hurling for the bottlers, gave up nine hits, issued six walks and struck out three.

Sutherlin took a three run lead in the second inning on five hits and one error. The team scored again in the fourth, with two runs crossing the plate on three hits and a walk.

Junction City Defeats Drain

The Junction City Reds defeated Drain 6-1 to win their first Lane-Douglas league encounter at Junction City Sunday.

Charles Beene, 16-year-old hurler for Junction City, set the Drain hitters down with two singles, one each in first and seventh frames. He struck out 10 of Drain's potential hitters in Junction City's first league start. The defeat was Drain's second of the season.

Drain took a one-run lead in the first frame, combining a walk a wild pitch and a single for the lone tally. Junction City moved ahead with two runs in the fourth on Don Ruecker's single, a double by Willis and another single by Barker. The victors added four insurance runs in the fifth on three hits and two Drain errors. Willis Johnson, losing hurler, gave up seven hits and struck out ten. He got in trouble in only two frames, but was unable to cope with Beene's clutch hurling.

Hills Creek-Monroe and Marcola-Yoncalla contests were rained out in other Lane-Douglas league activity Sunday.

177 Youngsters In Two Programs

Norm West, director of the pee-wee and junior legion baseball programs, reported 177 youngsters have registered for pee-wee play this summer.

West has divided the young candidates into groups and is teaching them baseball in three shifts on the pee-wee training camp at Finlay field. West stated the first two or three weeks of the program will be devoted to nothing but fundamentals. He is showing the youngsters how to slide, bunt, hit and throw. West stated no uniforms will be issued until he has completed his fundamentals instruction and organized the youngsters into teams.

In legion ball, West is working with the Roseburg team every evening on Finlay field. His main emphasis this week has been on hitting. Last Saturday, the locals received a 2-1 defeat from the strong Sutherlin team. West believes one of the main reasons for the upset victory was the poor hitting by the local team.

The Junior legion team will play its next game with Myrtle Creek on Finlay field, Friday night, starting at 8 p. m.

Ten regulars on the University of Arizona baseball team hit over .300 during the Wildcats' 1950 campaign.

Gorgeous George To Wrestle Here

Thanks to the PAL club of Portland, a boys' organization, Douglas county wrestling followers will be given their annual treat—the appearance of "Gorgeous George" Wagner, the most talked-about and highly-publicized professional grappler in the world.

Wagner, a native of Houston, Tex., hit the jackpot in a modest way when he suddenly became a favorite with Oregon mat fans. He bought a turkey farm at Pleasant Hill and then married a Creaswell girl—in the Eugene army ring.

That stunt, which had been done by such grappling characters as Bulldog Jackson, started Wagner off on a colorful career that paid a merry tune on cash registers in arenas throughout the nation.

Wagner, who agreed to wrestle for a PAL benefit in Portland Friday (probably the first time he has ever given anyone else a break), will wrestle the best available opponent on Saturday's headliner at the Roseburg armory—Eddie Williams, the little midwestern Scotsman who has been beaten here only by coast champ Jack O'Reilly.

Matchmaker Elton Owen claims Saturday's card will be the best in local history, with Howard Cantonwine, Wagner's 230-pound trainer, meeting Leo Wallace in a semi-final skirmish; Charley Carr, the Louisiana villain, against Dale Kiser, popular young Portlander, in the opener.
