Cutting Service Donaldson's Way Of Reducing Post Office Deficit

By DOUGLAS LARSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—When Postmaster General Jesse Donaldson ordered his drastic cuts in postal services he cut a Gordian knot. During the long years of a growing postal deficit not one of the thousands of suggestions to put the P.O. in the black offered this startlingly simple solution.

If the taxpayer doesn't want to pay for fancy postal services, don't give them to him. At least the problem is out in the open now.

Donaldson's cuts in service are in anticipation of proposed Congressional budget cuts for next year. They won't wipe out the deficit entirely. But they show the way. Here they are, summarized:

There will be one delivery a day instead of two. Some business districts will continue to get two. No mail will be collected from letter boxes after 8:30 p.m. There will be only one parcel post delivery a day to both residential and business districts. Window service will be provided only between 8 a. m. and 6 p.m. at main offices. Branch offices will be closed earlier.

No large batches of mail will be accepted over post office loading platforms after six in the evening except first class mail, air mail and newspapers. Directory service, locating the right address if an incorrect one is on the envelope, is now out.

No Hardship Foreseen

There are other details in the order but those are the ones the citizens will see in operation first hand. And except for maybe having to wait one-half of a day longer for a letter, making sure you put the proper address on a letter, and getting to the post office earlier

Rape Testimony Hinted In Trial Of Wilson Brothers

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 20 —(P)—The prosecution hinted at surprise rape testimony Monday in the trial of the Wilson brothers on charges of kidnaping and murder. Prosecutor R. De Witt Jones said he would call Dr. Howard Richardson, chief of the Oregon state crime detection laboratory, to testify on whether 18-year-old Jo Ann Dewey was raped before she was killed March 19.

The girl was snatched off a dark Vancouver street that night. Her body was found in the Wind river a week later. Utah and Turman Wilson, 20 and 24-year-old brothers, were accused of the crime.

Before the trial, the state insisted there was no evidence of a sex attack. But as the trial began last week, Jones came up with a statement that further examination had developed definite evidence of sex act.

The first witness today was Mrs. James Nelson, who said she saw the abduction from her apartment house window here.

She testified that she was roused by screams, and looked out to see a dark-haired man beating a girl, who lay prone on the sidewalk. In a moment another, smaller man, with a light jacket and a light coat joined in beating the girl, she said. Then they all drove away.

The prosecuting attorney brought out, in questioning, the fact that Mrs. Nelson picked out two men from a police line-up later on, resembling the figures she had seen. The names of the two she picked were not mentioned, however.

Winston Clubbers Install Officers

The annual installation of officers of the Winston Community club was held at the community hall Tuesday evening, June 8. Oscar Amundson was installed as president. Dennis Atwell as vice president and Mrs. Connie Nelson as secretary. One new member, Roy Fisher, was added to the board of directors.

In addition a number of committee chairmen were appointed to serve during the coming year. Lloyd Stutsman was appointed as chairman of the program committee; Mrs. Carl Borgaess, chairman of the refreshment committee; Marvin White, chairman of the dance committee, and Mrs. Connie Nelson, assisted by Mrs. Jennie Atwell and Mrs. Lee Mahoney, will have charge of the membership committee. W. F. Schell was put in charge of advertising for the club and Wilbur Hill in charge of the snack bar. Mrs. George Bacher was appointed news reporter.

After the business meeting a group of interesting games were enjoyed by the large group of members present. Mrs. Marvin White was in charge of the program for the evening.

The next meeting of the club is scheduled for Thursday evening, June 22. A winter post is planned for the evening for members and their families on the grounds near the community hall. Those attending are asked to bring weiners for their families and the remainder of the refreshment committee members are urged to be present for the frolic.

7 SOLDIERS ACCUSED

ABERDEEN, June 20. — (P)—Seven Fort Lewis soldiers have been charged in a Grays Harbor justice court with the forcible rape of a 10-year-old Aberdeen girl last Saturday night.

The charges were filed by county prosecutor Stanley J. Drause. The soldiers are being held at the county jail at Montesano in lieu of $15000 bond each.

Hero Upset By Binge Addict

RENO, Nev., June 20. — (P)—The hero of a flaming plane crash and a five-day trek across sun parched Nevada desert? Gosh no, confessed chagrined Allan Lee Pearce, 23, of Oklahoma City, he was the victim of a "lost month" in Reno bars.

It all started, he related from a cell in the county jail, when an Oklahoma City girl—whom he refused to identify—refused to get out of bed to keep a date.

Many drinks later and about $1,400 poorer, Pearce was picked up Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff Stanley Power of Fernlee wandering in the desert 40 miles northeast of Reno.

He gasped out a story of a flaming plane crash on a flight from Seattle to Albuquerque, N. M., and of five tortuous days walking in the sun-parched desert. At that time he identified himself as John E. Chenuau, 24, of Austin, Texas.

"What can they do to a guy for lying?" he asked.

Police were noncommittal but they booked him on a holding charge—investigation of airplane theft.

DIAL-LOG

Back from vacation after all too short week in southern California where everything happens at once... CBS engineers on strike... streetcar and bus operators calling a halt... bakers refusing to bake a cake... and the arrival of approximately one million Shriners in the Los Angeles area. Then back to Roseburg... where the moments are also far from dull, what with the excitement over the approaching rodeo celebration...

Program Director Lyle Fenner announced today that KRNR will bring a live broadcast of drummer Gene Krupa and his orchestra direct from the Elks temple ballroom this Thursday night (11:15-11:30). Krupa will be the biggest "name" band to hit Roseburg in many years, and possibly for years to come. Recognized as the greatest drummer of our times, Gene Krupa will play the local Elks club this Thursday night as a part of his northwest tour. Technicalities prevent KRNR's carrying the famous orchestra any longer than fifteen minutes, although efforts are being made toward stretching the broadcast period to a half-hour. For a bit of a live performance featuring top artists in the musical world, don't miss Gene Krupa and his orchestra direct from the Elks ballroom Thursday night (11:15-11:30 p.m.)

TONIGHT: Another absorbing citizen-of-the-week interview on "Jovin Jamboree" (8:30-9:00 p.m.). Representative Harris Ellsworth transcribed from Washington, D.
