Chief Gorilla, O'Reilly In Bout

Yaqui Chief Gorilla the great est grappler ever to come from the Sonora mountains of Mexico and a member of the warlike Yaquia will meet Jack O'Reilly wrestling Australian in the headliner at the Roseburg armory Saturday night.

The battle promises to develop into one of the bloodiest brawls in local mat history — with the Indian seeking revenge for the wrong done to a younger member of the tribe. O'Reilly is good enough to wrestle any man — and anything can happen.

The weekly mat show opens at 8:45 p.m. with The Yaqui Kid who was victimized by O'Reilly last week meeting Danno MacDonald the young and promising Canadian. The one-hour curtain-raiser will be a scientific battle — in marked contrast to the inevitable brawl.

Elton Owen will be on hand to referee both bouts.

Yost In Quarterfinals; Clarks Loses Match

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., June 30—(AP)—Collegiate golf's classic—the NCAA championships — rolled into quarterfinals today an East-West affair with the South out of the picture.

The championship will be decided Saturday on the University of New Mexico's 68-13 yard layout. Here is the lineup for today: Oregon State's Dick Yost—who yesterday polished off North Carolina's Harvie Ward Jr. the defending NCAA champion — meets Bob McCall of Colgate; Ray Harris of Wake Forest meets Len Kenneth of Southern California; Ben Aleya of UCLA tangles with North Texas' Billy Maxwell and Purdue's Fred Wampier goes up against teammate Gene Coulter.

The only remaining entrant from the northern division of Pacific Coast conference, Ron Clark, was edged yesterday by Bob Crozier of Stanford, 1 up.

The Umpqua Chiefs squeezed out a 6-5 win over the invading Hills Creek nine Thursday night on Finlay field but not before a couple of teen-aged pitchers threw a scare into the local team.

An apathetic crowd watched amazed as the kids from Hills Creek jumped on starting pitcher Ken Ayers for two runs in the initial inning added two more in the third and led 5-2 going into the last of the seventh. Reliever Bus Sporer held the Hillbillies in check with nine strikeouts in the five innings he worked but the final Hills Creek score came while Sporer was still on the mound. Cy Whidden finished for the Chiefs and gave up only one hit in the final two innings he pitched.

Chiefs' scoring came in the second when Tex Chandler on base with his one hit in three tries scored ahead of Stan Norby on a Hillbilly error. Roseburg's big inning came in the seventh when John Herman and Lou Kotnick raced home on Virg Sanders' single to right field. Sanders tried up the game when brother George singled to center.

The deciding run crossed in the eighth when Stan Smith climaxed a fine individual performance with a triple to right field then attempted to steal home and was ruled safe by Umpire Al Flegel who said the opposing catcher stepped across the plate on the cut-off pitch.

Young Team
Average age of the Hills Creek team was typified by its two hurlers, starter John Lessell a Eugene high school senior and Jerry Cade who pitched Drain into the state B league championship this year. Lessell confined the Chiefs to two singles for the first six innings only to run into trouble in the seventh during the three-run Roseburg rally. Cade took over and struck out three of the next six batters in the final two innings.

A well-executed double play in the first frame should have warned the Chiefs that the Hillbillies were not to be dismissed lightly in spite of their school boy looks. Although the visitors committed three errors afield during the contest their performance was practically sportless in comparison to the six costly bobbles chalked up by Roseburg.

Both teams counted five hits apiece but Roseburg bunched theirs when they counted most late in the contest. The Homer Parks-coached Hillbillies started a vain rally in

Central Point, Chiefs In Tie

Roseburg and Central Point are tied in Southern Oregon league baseball standings each having won five league tilts while losing none.

League Secretary J. Q. Adams, in statistics covering games through Sunday, June 25, reports Myrtle Creek third with five wins three losses and three ties, Brookings fifth with two wins and three losses, Crescent City sixth with one win and four losses, and Rogue River in the cellar on no wins and six losses.

In last week's play, Brookings defeated Rogue River 12-1; Central Point downed Crescent City 7-4; Myrtle Creek trimmed Ashland 13-4; and Roseburg beat Grants Pass 11-5.

Vets Employes Down All-Stars In 9-5 Tilt

The Vets Employes defeated the Vets All Stars 9-5 in a Twilight Softball league encounter on the VA field Thursday evening.

The top of the ninth when pinch hitter Peterson singled sharply through the mound. However it was too late in the ball game and a Norby-to-Kotnick infield grounder play retired the sides.

TRADE ANNOUNCED

CHICAGO June 30 — (AP)—Mike McCormick veteran 33-year-old outfielder has been purchased by the Chicago White Sox from Oakland of the Pacific Coast league. Frank Lane White Sox general manager who announced the deal said McCormick would report here next Monday.

The Employes took an early lead by scoring twice in the first inning. They scored three more in the fifth but the All Stars came back in their half of the inning to tie it up with five on runs five hits.

The Employes then scored two in the sixth and two in seventh making the final score 9-5.
