

Extended Draft Act 'Musts,' Exemptions And Deferments Listed In Complete Detail

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington—(AP)—This is an ABC on the new draft act—the selective service act—which Congress okayed and which President Truman will sign into law.

It will remain law until July 9, 1951. It is the same draft law which has been in effect since 1948, except for a couple of changes, only one of which need be mentioned here. The new law means:

1. Every youth must register with his local draft board, or a place designated by it, within five days after reaching his 18th birthday. But he can't be drafted until he's 19.

2. Every youth between 19 and 26 — and all between those ages must be registered — can be drafted into the armed forces for 21 months' service, unless deferred or exempted for one reason or another.

3. Physically, mentally, and morally unfit.

4. Aliens who have not declared themselves interested in becoming citizens.

5. State governors or others elected by the people of an entire state; members of Congress and state legislatures; state and federal judges.

6. Sole surviving sons of families which lost one or more members due to service in the armed forces.

7. Conscientious objectors who say, because of their religious beliefs, they can't perform any kind of military service, combat or non-combat. They will have to prove this to the draft board's satisfaction.

8. War veterans who served in the armed forces at least 90 days between Dec. 7, 1941 and Sept. 12, 1945.

9. Service veterans who served 12 months between Sept. 16, 1940 and June 24, 1948, when this draft law first went into effect.

Deferment Reasons Listed

In addition, anyone reaching 26 is exempt from the draft since only those under 26 can be drafted under the law.

There are other youths who can get deferment from induction into the armed forces for various reasons.

(Under the law an exempt person can't be drafted. But a deferred person is one who is kept out of the draft only for the period of such deferment.)

Deferments—

1. Conscientious objectors whose conscience won't let them fight although they're willing to do non-combat duty in the armed forces.

2. Youths who are in important farm work or some occupation considered necessary to the national health, safety or interest and can't be replaced.

3. Youths living with a wife and child; or youths whose drafting would mean a real hardship for someone dependent upon them.

4. Members of a reserve outfit, like the national guard or the officers' reserve. But — and this was the only important change made by the new law — the President can call them into active service anytime he thinks they're needed. Also, to get deferment because you're in the national guard, you must have been in it since before June 24, 1948. Which means: You can't duck the draft if you are needed, by running to join the

A weiner roast highlighted the evening at the meeting of the community club on the clubhouse grounds Thursday evening, June 22. A large group of members and their families enjoyed the outing after which a brief business meeting was held in the hall. The meeting was called to order by the new president, Oscar Amundson, and minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Connie Nelson. At the suggestion of the president the meeting was then adjourned in order that the group might work on the float which was entered in Saturday afternoon's parade in Roseburg.

The next meeting of the community club will be at 7:30 Thursday evening, July 6, at the community hall. A program is planned for the evening.

Visiting in the home of Senator and Mrs. Thomas Parkinson at Winston are Marilyn and Diane Sala. The girls' father, Ed Sala, who is a brother of Mrs. Parkinson, has returned to his home in Portland after bringing them to the Parkinson ranch for a vacation.

A new "wife saver" opened in Winston on Monday — a "serve yourself" laundry, located on highway 42 just beyond the junction, is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hatch who moved to this community some three years ago from Nebraska. The building which will house the new business is 20 by 35 feet in dimension and is equipped with four washers complete with dryers.

Mrs. Hatch will manage the laundry and her husband plans to continue his work with the C & D Lumber company in Dillard. The couple have recently completed a new home near the site where their business is located.

Merton Lengele of Prineville is visiting in the home of his brother, Howard Lengele, this week. The latter is proprietor of Howard's Hardware in Winston.

Junk Hauler Shot By Patrolmen

SEATTLE, June 30—(AP)—A little red metal wagon which Frank Butler used to haul his collection of bottles, rags and miscellany to the junk yard, caused his death in a skid road hotel last night.

Butler was killed in his fourth floor room by Patrolman Walt Hill and J. W. Ray as they sought to question him in connection with the shooting of a man tentatively identified as John McDonald in the alley behind the hotel.

Witnesses to the earlier shooting said Butler shot McDonald when he found him looking at the wagon, a new one which Butler had purchased to take the place of one which had been stolen from him. Hill and Ray said they broke in the door when Butler refused to open it and found him holding a gun.

"It was either fire first or wait to be shot," another officer explained. McDonald, shot in the stomach, was expected to live.

national guard now.

6. College students in advanced courses in the reserve officers training corps. Each such case will be judged on its merits. A student just beginning ROTC training couldn't escape the draft simply by being in ROTC.

What of a youth who wants to finish his schooling? The boards will defer a youth in high school or college until he has completed a year of school in the year in which he otherwise would have been drafted. This is not really a deferment but only a postponement.

Anyone disliking a board's decision can appeal to the appeal board in his state. If turned down there, he can appeal to a three-man final appeal board appointed by the President.
