(By Fredrickson's Photo Lab) Mr. and Mrs. George Cornish.

Fay Smith and George Cornish of Sutherlin were married Friday, June 23, at the Cornish home. Rev. Richard Graef, pastor of the St. John's Lutheran church, performed the double ring ceremony at six o'clock in the evening, before the fireplace, with its mantle decorated with lilies and roses and tall white lighted tapers with baskets of flowers placed at each side.

The bride wore a dusty rose satin gown with white accessories and an gardenia and rosebud corsage. She was attended by her daughter, Miss Lily Smith, as maid of honor. She wore a pale green marquisette ankle length dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and white sweet peas.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Lloyd Cornish.

The wedding march was followed by the song "I Love You Truly". A buffet supper followed at the home on Central avenue after the ceremony with the following guests present: Mr. and Mrs. Telkamp, Drain, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Alen Kytola, Canyonville, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Cornish and daughter, Sherry, Seattle, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Porter, Happy Valley, Oregon; Don Porter, Roseburg, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Vansteenberg, Roseburg; Mrs. Cora Eastburn, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Thompson, Sherman Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cornish and daughter, Ilia; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Vansteenberg and son, Willard; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wahl, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wahl, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Graef, Lily Smith and Charles Swindler.

At eight o'clock a reception was held at the Sutherlin Community hall with 150 guests present. Mrs. Joe Porter presided over the punch bowl and the wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Irma Cornish had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Claude Harvey and Mrs. Wesley Thompson took care of the many lovely gifts.

The beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake was made by Howard Vansteenberg, cousin of the bridegroom.

Music for the evening's dancing was furnished by a five-piece orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornish are at home to their many friends on West Central Avenue.

Mental Freak Proves Speed Charge Innocent
PASADENA, Calif., July 3.—(AP)—Here's a motorist whose persuasive power really registers.

When Clarence A. Bunnell was cited for driving 40 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone he argued he had not broken any speed laws because he has an "intuitive sense of speed that acts as a regulator on his accelerator pedal."

Judge William E. Fox agreed to go for a ride with Bunnell to test the alibi. The speedometer was shielded from Bunnell but not the judge. At various speeds Bunnell "called his shots" almost to fractions.

Bunnell was adjudged innocent.

Strange Facts about Water

It's raining all the time somewhere...

Scientists estimate that 16 million tons of water hit the earth every second. The wettest spot in the U. S. A. has 150 inches of rain in a year.

AND YET—
GOOD BREWING WATER IS RARE
All waters differ greatly in mineral content and taste. To assure Olympia Beer's constant purity, rare flavor and aroma, all Olympia is brewed with crystal pure water from its artesian wells . . . waters from deep glacial substrata, found at T—
