

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATIONS are over, but the memory lingers on. Above are reminiscent scenes of three big celebrations—the four-day Sutherlin Timber Days carnival, the two-day Middle Rodeo and Roseburg's July 4 fireworks display. The pictures are identified as follows: 1. Sutherlin Queen Carol Mosley and two of her princesses, Pauline Miller and Kitty Aldred, in the July 4 parade. 2. Rockets exploding in air at Roseburg's fireworks display. 3. The stands were full to witness Riddle's rodeo. 4. Queen Caroline Hills of Days Creek reigned over Riddle's rodeo. 5. Riddle rodeo all around cowboys were Darrill Ray, Roseburg, left, third place; T. Hibbert, Umpqua, center, first place, and Al Cooper, Bureka, Calif., second place. 6. Sutherlin Orange float was a first place prize winner. 7. How to put out fires was demonstrated by fire extinguisher representatives at Roseburg's fireworks display. 8. Bob Miller was a double-winner at Sutherlin, taking first place in the power and hand bucking contests. 9. Typical scene in Sutherlin's July 4 parade. 10. Charles Heade won first place in the high-climber event at Sutherlin. 11. This ancient jalopy was entered by Sig Pett of Roseburg at Sutherlin. 12. Kiddies had their part in Sutherlin's parade. 13. R. S. Sorensen was Sutherlin's champion truck driver. See stories page 12. (Pictures by Master Studio and staff photos)
