Another Trek In Yukon Area Begun By James Bond

James Bond, who on several occasions has shown his Yukon territory motion pictures in Roseburg is back in the Yukon to obtain material for another show. He writes that he reached Mayo, Y. T., June 29, prepared to leave immediately on a 90-day pack horse trip covering from 400 to 600 miles of wilderness area abounding in white sheep, grizzly bear, moose, caribou and wolves. The area to be visited has no trails and no human population.

A plane is to contact the party at a pre-designated spot Aug. 20, with mail and food. He plans to return to Mayo about Oct. 1. Bond has contracted with the Oregon division of the Iraak Walton league, to show his films in all towns having clubs or chapters affiliated with the two state organizations. Proceeds will be split between Bond, the state organizations and local clubs. The Roseburg show is scheduled for mid-December. Bond, a former resident of Roseburg, now makes his home in Portland.

bid is declared to be high at the closing of the auction, the bidder must immediately make the required payment and confirm the bid by submitting it in writing on a Forest Service bid form. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved. Before bids are submitted, full information concerning the timber, the conditions of sale and the submission of bids should be obtained from the Forest Supervisor, Roseburg, Oregon, or the District Ranger, Glide, Oregon.

Misjudged Car Proves It Still Has Old-Time Zip

BOSTON, July 6.—(AP)—Jacob Garfinkle of Stoneham was sure his car had lost much of its old zip during a two-mile drive. He was about to enter a garage to find out about the sudden loss of power when he looked behind him. There, tightly hooked to his rear bumper was a driver-less automobile. He told police he apparently drove away from a parking space with the stowaway automobile securely hitched to his.

Branch of Eskimos Alaska Nearly Extinct

WASHINGTON, July 6.—(AP)—Smithsonian institution reports that a little-known people in Northern Alaska is rapidly dying out, chiefly because of "great epidemics of influenza and measles." The people, generally known as the Nunatamiut Eskimo, numbered 5,000 nomad caribou hunters two or three generations ago, the report said. It added: "Now a single group of less than 40 is left alive."

Cities Must Decide On Rent Controls By Dec. 31

PORTLAND —(AP)—Cities must decide by Dec. 31 whether rent controls are to be continued into next year, Robert E. Lowe, Portland area rent director, says. A decision must be reached by city council or by a vote of the people by that date or rent controls will expire under a new law. If, however, it is determined locally that a housing shortage makes controls necessary, they may be continued until June 30, 1951, Lowe said. His office has jurisdiction over Vancouver, Camas, Kelso and Longview, Wash., and Portland, Roseburg, Corvallis and Astoria, Ore. The only other Oregon city with control is Pendleton, supervised by the Seattle office. From 1892 to 1949 a total of 5,268 elk were shipped from Yellowstone National park to foreign countries for exhibition and establishing of herds.
