Full War-Time Benefits Apply To Korean Service

WASHINGTON — (AP) — American servicemen fighting in southern Korea are entitled to full war-time benefits, the Veterans administration said today.

This is true "despite the fact that this nation is not at war," the agency said in a statement.

The benefits include:

For servicemen in Korea who are injured or become ill in line of duty—disability compensation at war-time rates.

For dependents of servicemen who lose their lives in the Korean action—death compensation at full war-time rates. (Peace-time rates are 80 percent of the war-time rates.)

For servicemen in Korea who carry national service life insurance—the waiving of premium payments in case of injury or disease traceable to the extra hazard of service.

VA said a law passed 12 days

Father-Son Wrangle Results In Riot Call

PORTLAND — (AP) — Five police cars converged on a restaurant, answering what the radio dispatcher thought was a riot call.

When they got there, they reported, they found this:

Philip San Angelo, demanding that his son, Donald, 36, come home with him.

after the 1941 attack on Pearl Harbor provides war-time rates for disability or death resulting from injury or disease received in line of duty "as a direct result of armed conflict, or while engaged in extra hazardous service, including such service under conditions simulating war."

The Korean action qualifies in both instances, the agency added.

VA added that service in Korea does not alone make for eligibility to education and training benefits under the G.I. bill.

It said the G. I. bill was designed primarily for the readjustment of world war II veterans. For the purposes of this act, world war II ended July 25, 1947.

Host Uses Gun To Disperse Late-Staying Guests

NEW YORK — (AP) — Fred Burton, 26, came up with a new scheme to make those late-staying guests go home.

Police said he pulled a gun on them and ordered them out.

The Ringoes, N. J., man and his sister, Mrs. Marion Robinson, were Donald saying he was married and wouldn't do it unless his bride, Leora Seckmann, also 16, would be welcomed.

The bride had put in the call for the police when she thought the father-and-son argument was getting out of hand.

The father on May 1 had reported his son missing. He didn't find him—working in a restaurant—until Wednesday morning. Then the argument started.

Donald was taken to juvenile court.

He said he and his bride were married at Vancouver, Wash., Monday with the girl's mother as a witness. He said he gave his age as 21.
